3. Supervisory activities of the Board of Directors over the Board of Management

The supervisory activities of the Board of Directors (BOD) over the Board of Management (BOM) have been carried out strictly and periodically in accordance with the Charter of organization and operation of the Vietnam National Textile and Garment Group and the BOD's operational regulations. Key highlights of the BOD's supervision and direction of the BOM in the first six months of 2025 are as follows:

- Every two weeks, the Chairman of the BOD holds briefing meetings with the Group's BOM Standing Committee (General Director and Standing Deputy General Director) to promptly update the production and business situation and provide guidance and solutions to address difficulties and obstacles. Since April 2025, the Chairman has directed the implementation of the “90-Day Rapid Work Campaign,” aiming to fully utilize signed orders and make a strong effort to complete Q2 orders within 90 days to respond effectively to continuously fluctuating market conditions and unpredictable tax policies.

- Supervised the review, amendment, and supplementation of the Group’s Charter and those of its subsidiaries to ensure compliance with current legal regulations and the Group’s development orientation, developing a standard Charter to be applied uniformly across subsidiaries.
- Supervised the BOM in directing the Group’s capital representatives to successfully organize General Meetings of Shareholders at subsidiaries in compliance with the operational charter and legal regulations.
- Directed the BOM to successfully organize the 2025 Annual General Meeting of Shareholders.
- Supervised and directed the BOM to establish the Human Resources Division to enhance management efficiency and organizational structure in subsidiaries, gradually standardizing human resource management in line with corporate culture and the specific characteristics of each unit.

During the first six months of 2025, the BOD directed the BOM to maintain regular market information conferences, meetings of the Yarn Production and Business Committee and Garment Production and Business Committee, scientific and technological research, human resource development, risk management, and internal control according to the BOD’s orientation. The Chairman of the BOD directly participated in managing the yarn sector, organizing periodic meetings at least once a month to provide guidance and direction amid ongoing uncertainties in yarn production and business activities and unclear tax policies.

4. Activities of the Subcommittees under the Board of Directors

The Office of the Board of Directors (BOD Office) serves as the standing advisory body, assisting the BOD by directly consolidating and analyzing content to support the activities of the subcommittees. Specifically:

a. Human Resources Subcommittee

- Advises the BOD in directing the Board of Management (BOM) to review personnel representing the Group’s capital at subsidiaries, especially at units organizing the General Meeting of Shareholders for the 2025–2030 term.
- Participates in the Group’s Human Resources Division activities.

b. Research and Development Subcommittee

- Timely updates changes in tax policies of major export markets and analyzes the direct and indirect impacts of these policies on the Group’s production and business activities, as well as the competitive advantages of enterprises within the Group.

- Conducts consolidation, analysis, and evaluation of trends in import-export tariffs, trade defense taxes, and preferential tax mechanisms under Free Trade Agreements (FTAs) and bilateral agreements. Simultaneously forecasts potential risks and opportunities arising from global tax policies, combined with detailed comparisons of tax policies and incentives between Vietnam and several competing export countries such as China, Thailand, Indonesia, and India to clearly identify the Group's competitive position in the global supply chain. Based on the analysis results, it advises flexible response solutions to protect interests and enhance the Group's production and business efficiency amid increasingly deep international economic integration.

- Monitors developments in global and domestic macroeconomic issues that may directly or indirectly affect enterprises within the Group

- Analyzes, evaluates, and forecasts the global textile and garment market situation: global demand for textiles and garments; export trends of competing countries; factors affecting national competitiveness; in-depth analysis of product groups and key products of competitors; fashion trends and major factors impacting the textile and fashion industry in 2025; evaluates the impact of retaliatory tariffs and new regulations in export markets on textile and garment products; studies, synthesizes, and forecasts product shifting trends to major markets.

c. Risk Management

- Provided advisory to the Board of Directors on the approval of the Financial Regulation of Dong Phuong Knitting Sole Member Limited Liability Company

- Advised the Board on the resolution to cease operations and proceed with the dissolution procedures of Vietnam Textile Raw Materials Manufacturing and Trading One Member Limited Liability Company
