Article 5. Charter Capital, Shares, and Founding Shareholders

1. The Company's charter capital is VND 234,754,560,000 (Two hundred thirty-four billion, seven hundred fifty-four million, five hundred sixty thousand Vietnamese dong).

The total charter capital is divided into 23,475,456 (Twenty-three million, four hundred seventy-five thousand, four hundred fifty-six) shares, with a par value of VND 10,000 per share (ten thousand Vietnamese dong per share).

2. The Company may adjust its charter capital upon approval by the General Meeting of Shareholders and in accordance with legal regulations.

3. All shares of the Company at the time of adopting this Charter are ordinary shares. The rights and obligations associated with these shares are specified in Article 11.

4. The Company may issue other types of preferred shares upon approval by the General Meeting of Shareholders and in compliance with legal regulations.

5. The names, addresses, number of shares, and other details of the founding shareholders are in accordance with the Law on Enterprises.

6. Ordinary shares must be offered on a priority basis to existing shareholders in proportion to their ownership percentage, unless otherwise decided by the General Meeting of Shareholders. Any shares not subscribed by existing shareholders shall be determined by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may allocate such shares to other parties under conditions and methods deemed appropriate, provided that the shares are not sold under more favorable conditions than those offered to existing shareholders, except when shares are sold through a stock exchange via an auction process.

7. The Company may repurchase its issued shares in accordance with the provisions of this Charter and applicable laws. Shares repurchased by the Company are classified as treasury shares, which the Board of Directors may resell in compliance with this Charter, the Law on Securities, and relevant guidelines.

8. The Company may issue other types of securities upon approval by the General Meeting of Shareholders and in compliance with legal regulations.

Article 6. Share Certificates

1. Shareholders of the Company shall be issued share certificates corresponding to the number and type of shares they own.

2. A share certificate is a document issued by the Company, an accounting book entry, or electronic data confirming ownership of one or multiple shares in the Company. Share certificates must contain all details specified in Clause 1, Article 121 of the Law on Enterprises.

3. Within 30 days from the date of submitting the complete application for the transfer of share ownership in accordance with the Company's regulations, or within 30 days (or another period specified in the issuance terms) from the date of full payment for the purchased shares as stipulated in the Company's share issuance plan, the shareholder shall be issued a share certificate. Shareholders are not required to pay the Company for the printing of share certificates.

4. In case a share certificate is damaged, erased, lost, stolen, or destroyed, the shareholder may request a replacement share certificate, provided that they present evidence of share ownership and cover all related costs incurred by the Company.

Article 7. Other Securities Certificates

Bond certificates or other securities certificates issued by the Company (excluding letters offering, temporary certificates, and similar documents) must bear the signature of the legal representative and the Company's seal.

Article 8. Share Transfer

1. All shares are freely transferable unless otherwise specified by this Charter or the law. Listed shares on the Stock Exchange shall be transferred in accordance with the regulations on securities and the securities market.

2. Shares that have not been fully paid for cannot be transferred and are not entitled to dividends, bonus shares issued from the Company's equity, preemptive rights for newly issued shares, or any other shareholder rights as prescribed by law.

Article 9. Share Repurchase

1. If a shareholder fails to fully and timely pay for subscribed shares, the Board of Directors shall notify the shareholder and has the right to request full payment of the outstanding amount, including interest on the unpaid amount and any related costs incurred by the Company due to the late payment.

2. The payment notice must specify a new deadline for payment (at least seven (07) days from the date of notification), the payment location, and clearly state that if payment is not made on time, the unpaid shares will be subject to repurchase by the Company.

3. The Board of Directors has the right to repurchase unpaid shares if the payment requirements stated in the notification are not fulfilled.

4. Repurchased shares shall be treated as shares available for sale under Clause 3, Article 112 of the Law on Enterprises. The Board of Directors may directly or authorize others to sell, redistribute, or dispose of the repurchased shares to former shareholders or other entities under conditions and methods deemed appropriate.

5. Shareholders holding repurchased shares must relinquish their shareholder status for those shares but remain liable for all outstanding amounts, plus interest at a rate not exceeding 10% per year at the time of repurchase, as determined by the Board of Directors. This liability applies from the date of repurchase until full payment is made. The Board of Directors has the full authority to enforce the payment of the entire share value at the time of repurchase.

6. A repurchase notice shall be sent to the shareholder before the repurchase date. The repurchase remains effective even in the event of errors or negligence in sending the notification.

CHAPTER V. ORGANIZATIONAL STRUCTURE, MANAGEMENT, AND CONTROL

Article 10. Management structure

The Company's management structure consists of:

1. The General Meeting of Shareholders;
2. The Board of Directors;
3. The Supervisory Board;
4. The General Director.

CHAPTER VI. SHAREHOLDERS AND GENERAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

Article 11. Shareholder Rights

1. Shareholders are the owners of the Company and have rights and obligations corresponding to the number and type of shares they own. Shareholders are only liable for the Company's debts and other financial obligations within the scope of their contributed capital.

2. Holders of common shares have the following rights:

a. Attend and speak at General Meetings of Shareholders and exercise voting rights directly, through an authorized representative, by remote voting, or by submitting votes via mail, fax, or email. Shareholders may also participate and vote via online meetings, electronic voting, or other digital means. The voting method shall be approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders in each session. Each common share carries one voting right.

Shareholders must submit their voting ballots via registered mail, fax, or email to the Board of Directors no later than one (01) day before the meeting. In the case of registered mail, the Head of the Voting Committee at the General Meeting of Shareholders has the right to open the shareholder's voting ballot at the meeting.

b. Receive dividends at a rate determined by the General Meeting of Shareholders.

c. Freely transfer fully paid shares in accordance with this Charter and applicable laws.

d. Have the preemptive right to purchase newly issued shares proportional to their current holdings of common shares.

e. Review, inspect, and extract shareholder-related information from the list of eligible shareholders for the General Meeting of Shareholders and request corrections to inaccurate information.

f. Review, inspect, extract, or copy the Company's Charter, minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders, and resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders.

g. In case of Company dissolution or bankruptcy, receive a portion of the remaining assets proportional to their contributed capital after the Company has fulfilled its obligations to creditors and shareholders holding other types of shares, in accordance with legal regulations.

h. Request the Company to repurchase their shares in cases stipulated by the Law on Enterprises.

i. Be treated equally. Each share of the same type grants the shareholder the same rights, obligations, and benefits. If the Company issues preferred shares, the rights and obligations associated with them must be approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders and fully disclosed to shareholders.

k. Have full access to periodic and extraordinary information disclosed by the Company in accordance with the law.

1. Be protected in their legitimate rights and interests; request the suspension or annulment of resolutions and decisions of the General Meeting of Shareholders or the Board of Directors as stipulated by the Law on Enterprises.

m. Exercise other rights as provided in this Charter and the law.

3. Shareholders or groups of shareholders holding at least 5% of total common shares are entitled to:

a. Nominate candidates for the Board of Directors or the Supervisory Board as stipulated in Articles 24 and 35 of this Charter.

b. Review, inspect, and extract the minutes, resolutions, and decisions of the Board of Directors; semi-annual and annual financial statements; reports from the Supervisory Board; contracts and transactions that require Board of Directors' approval; and other documents, excluding those related to the Company's trade secrets or business secrets.

c. Request the Board of Directors to convene the General Meeting of Shareholders in accordance with Clause 3, Article 115, and Article 140 of the Law on Enterprises.

d. Inspect and obtain copies or extracts of the list of shareholders eligible to attend and vote at the General Meeting of Shareholders.

e. Request the Supervisory Board to examine specific issues related to the company's management and operations when deemed necessary. The request must be made in writing and must include: For individual shareholders: Full name, permanent address, nationality, identification number (Citizen ID, Passport, or another legally recognized personal document); For institutional shareholders: Name, permanent address, nationality, establishment decision number, or business registration number; Number of shares held, registration date of shares for each shareholder, total shares held by the group of shareholders, and their ownership percentage in the total company shares; The specific issue to be examined and the purpose of the examination.

f. Other rights as stipulated in this Charter.

Article 12. Obligations of Shareholders

Shareholders have the following obligations:

1. Comply with the Company's Charter and regulations as well as the decisions of the General Meeting of Shareholders and the Board of Directors.

2. Not withdraw contributed capital in the form of common shares under any circumstances, except when the company or another party repurchases the shares. If a shareholder withdraws part or all of their contributed capital in violation of this clause, they and any related beneficiaries must be jointly liable for the company's debts and other financial obligations within the value of the withdrawn shares and any damages incurred.

3. Participate in General Meetings of Shareholders and exercise voting rights through the following methods:

- a) Attend and vote directly at the meeting.
- b) Authorize another person to attend and vote on their behalf.
- c) Attend and vote via online meetings, electronic voting, or other electronic means.

d) Send voting ballots to the meeting via mail, fax, or email.

4. Fully pay for the shares they have subscribed to as required.

5. Provide accurate contact information when registering for shares.

6. Fulfill other obligations as required by law.

7. Bear personal responsibility if acting on behalf of the company in any of the following cases:

- a. Violating the law.
- b. Engaging in business activities or transactions for personal gain or for the benefit of other individuals or organizations.
- c. Settling debts before their due date while the company is at risk of financial instability.

8. Maintain confidentiality of information provided by the company as stipulated in the Company's Charter and applicable laws. Shareholders must only use the provided information to exercise and protect their legitimate rights and interests. It is strictly prohibited to distribute, copy, or share the company's provided information with any third party.

Article 13. General Meeting of Shareholders

1. The General Meeting of Shareholders is the highest authority of the Company. The annual General Meeting of Shareholders is held once (01) a year. The annual General Meeting of Shareholders must be convened within four (04) months from the end of the financial year.

If it is not possible to hold the meeting within this period, the Board of Directors may extend the time for holding the annual General Meeting of Shareholders, but not exceeding six (06) months from the end of the financial year.

2. The Board of Directors shall convene the annual General Meeting of Shareholders and select a suitable location. The annual General Meeting of Shareholders decides on matters stipulated by law and the Company's Charter, particularly approving the audited annual financial statements. If the audit report on the Company's annual financial statements contains material exceptions, an adverse opinion, or a disclaimer of opinion, the Company must invite a representative of the approved audit firm to attend the annual General Meeting of Shareholders, and such representative is responsible for attending the meeting.

3. The Board of Directors must convene an extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders in the following cases:

- a. When the Board of Directors deems it necessary for the benefit of the Company;
- b. When the number of remaining members of the Board of Directors or the Supervisory Board is less than the minimum number required by law;
- c. At the request of a shareholder or group of shareholders as stipulated in Clause 3, Article 11 of this Charter. The request for convening the General Meeting of Shareholders must be made in writing, stating the reason and purpose of the meeting, and must be signed by the relevant shareholders or compiled from multiple documents with the necessary signatures;
- d. At the request of the Supervisory Board;
- e. Other cases as prescribed by law and the Company's Charter.

4. Convening an extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders

a. The Board of Directors must convene the General Meeting of Shareholders within thirty (30) days from the date when the number of members of the Board of Directors or Supervisory Board falls below the required minimum, as specified in Point c, Clause 3 of this Article, or upon receiving a request as stated in Points d and e, Clause 3 of this Article.

b. If the Board of Directors fails to convene the General Meeting of Shareholders as stipulated in Point a, Clause 4 of this Article, the Supervisory Board must replace the Board of Directors in convening the meeting within the next thirty (30) days, in accordance with Clause 3, Article 140 of the Enterprise Law.

c. If the Supervisory Board fails to convene the General Meeting of Shareholders as required in Point b, Clause 4 of this Article, then within the following thirty (30) days, the shareholder or group of shareholders specified in Point d, Clause 3 of this Article has the right to replace the Board of Directors and the Supervisory Board in convening the General Meeting of Shareholders, in accordance with Clause 4, Article 140 of the Enterprise Law.

In this case, the shareholder or group of shareholders convening the General Meeting of Shareholders has the right to request the business registration authority to oversee the procedures, conduct of the meeting, and resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders. All costs related to the convening and holding of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be reimbursed by the Company. These costs do not include expenses incurred by shareholders attending the General Meeting of Shareholders, including accommodation and travel costs.

Article 14. Rights and Duties of the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. The annual General Meeting of Shareholders has the right to discuss and approve:

- a. Audited annual financial statements;
- b. Report of the Board of Directors;
- c. Report of the Supervisory Board;
- d. The Company's short-term and long-term development plans.

2. The annual and extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders shall decide on the following matters:

- a. Approval of annual financial statements;
- b. Annual dividend payments for each type of share in accordance with the Enterprise Law and the rights attached to such shares. The dividend rate shall not exceed the rate proposed by the Board of Directors after consulting shareholders at the General Meeting of Shareholders;
- c. The number of members of the Board of Directors;
- d. Selection of the auditing firm;
- e. Election, dismissal, removal, and replacement of members of the Board of Directors and the Supervisory Board;
- f. Total remuneration for members of the Board of Directors and the remuneration report of the Board of Directors;
- g. Amendments and supplements to the Company's Charter;
- h. Determination of the type of shares and the total number of shares of each type that may be offered for sale;
- i. Division, separation, consolidation, merger, or conversion of the Company;
- j. Reorganization and dissolution (liquidation) of the Company and appointment of a liquidator;

k. Examination and handling of violations committed by the Board of Directors or the Supervisory Board that cause damage to the Company and its shareholders;

l. Decision on investment or sale of assets valued at 35% or more of the total asset value recorded in the most recent financial statements;

m. The Company repurchasing more than 10% of the total number of issued shares of each type;

n. The Company or its subsidiaries entering into contracts with persons specified in Clause 1, Article 167 of the Enterprise Law, with a value equal to or exceeding 35% of the total asset value of the Company and its subsidiaries recorded in the most recent audited financial statements;

o. Approval of internal governance regulations; operational regulations of the Board of Directors and the Supervisory Board;

p. Other matters as prescribed by law, this Charter, and the Company's other regulations.

3. Shareholders are not allowed to participate in voting in the following cases:

a. Approval of contracts specified in Clause 2, Article 14, where the shareholder or a related party of the shareholder is a party to the contract;

b. The repurchase of shares of that shareholder or of a related party of that shareholder, except in cases where the repurchase is conducted in proportion to the ownership ratio of all shareholders or through order matching or public tender offers on the Stock Exchange;

c. All resolutions and matters included in the meeting agenda must be discussed and voted on at the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Article 15. Authorized Representatives

1. Shareholders entitled to attend the General Meeting of Shareholders under the law may authorize their representatives to attend. If more than one representative is appointed, the specific number of shares and votes authorized to each representative must be clearly determined.

2. The authorization for an individual or organization to represent a shareholder at the General Meeting of Shareholders, as stipulated in Clause 1 of this Article, must be made in writing. The authorization document must be prepared in accordance with civil law regulations and must clearly state the name of the authorizing shareholder, the individual or organization being authorized, the number of shares authorized, the scope and content of the authorization, the duration of the authorization, and the signatures of both the authorizing party and the authorized party.

The individual or organization authorized to attend the General Meeting of Shareholders must present the authorization document when registering for the meeting before entering the meeting room.

3. In cases where a lawyer signs the appointment of a representative on behalf of the authorizing party, such an appointment is only considered valid if the appointment document is submitted together with the power of attorney granted to the lawyer (if it has not been previously registered with the Company).

4. Except as provided in Clause 3 of this Article, the voting ballot of an authorized representative within the scope of authorization remains valid in the following cases:

a. The authorizing party has passed away, has limited legal capacity, or has lost legal capacity;

b. The authorizing party has revoked the authorization appointment;

c. The authorizing party has revoked the authority of the authorized representative.

This provision does not apply if the Company receives notification of any of the above events before the opening of the General Meeting of Shareholders or before the reconvening of the meeting.

Article 16. Changes to Rights

1. Changes or cancellations of special rights attached to a class of preferred shares shall take effect when approved by shareholders holding at least 65% of the ordinary shares attending the meeting and simultaneously approved by shareholders holding at least 65% of the voting rights of the respective preferred shares. A meeting of shareholders holding a specific class of preferred shares to approve changes to these rights shall only be valid if at least two (02) shareholders (or their authorized representatives) are present and hold at least one-third ($1/3$) of the par value of the issued shares of that class. If the required number of attendees is not met, the meeting shall be reconvened within thirty (30) days, and the holders of shares of that class (regardless of the number of shareholders and shares) who are present either in person or through authorized representatives shall be considered sufficient to constitute a quorum. At such meetings of preferred shareholders, shareholders holding that class of shares, whether present in person or through representatives, may request a secret ballot. Each share of the same class shall have equal voting rights at such meetings.

2. The procedures for conducting such separate meetings shall follow the provisions of Articles 18 and 20 of this Charter.

3. Unless otherwise stipulated in the share issuance terms, the special rights attached to preferred shares regarding some or all matters related to profit distribution or the Company's assets shall not be altered when the Company issues additional shares of the same class.

Article 17. Convening the General Meeting of Shareholders, Meeting Agenda, and Notice of the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. The Board of Directors shall convene the General Meeting of Shareholders, or the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be convened in the cases specified in Points b and c, Clause 4, Article 13 of this Charter.

2. The person convening the General Meeting of Shareholders shall perform the following tasks:

a. Prepare the list of shareholders eligible to attend and vote at the General Meeting of Shareholders. The list of shareholders entitled to attend the meeting shall be prepared no more than ten (10) days before the date of sending the notice of the General Meeting of Shareholders;

b. Prepare the agenda and content of the meeting;

c. Prepare materials for the General Meeting;

d. Draft the resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders based on the expected meeting agenda;

e. Determine the time and venue of the General Meeting;

f. Notify and send the meeting invitation to all shareholders eligible to attend;

g. Perform other tasks necessary for the meeting.

3. The notice of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be sent to all shareholders by a guaranteed method and shall also be announced on the Company's website, the State Securities Commission, and the Stock Exchange. The person convening the meeting must send the meeting invitation to all shareholders in the list of eligible attendees no later than twenty-one (21) days before the opening date of the General Meeting of Shareholders (calculated from the date the notice is sent, dispatched with prepaid postage, or placed in the mailbox). The meeting agenda and related documents for voting shall be sent to shareholders and/or published on the Company's website. If the documents are not attached to the notice, the notice must specify the website address where shareholders can access them, including:

a. The meeting agenda and documents to be used in the meeting;

b. The list and details of candidates in case of electing members of the Board of Directors or Supervisory Board;

c. Voting ballots;

- d. The proxy form for authorizing representatives to attend the meeting;
- e. Draft resolutions for each issue on the agenda.

4. Shareholders or groups of shareholders mentioned in Clause 3, Article 11 of this Charter have the right to propose matters to be included in the meeting agenda. The proposal must be made in writing and sent to the Company at least seven (07) working days before the opening date of the General Meeting of Shareholders. The proposal must include the shareholder's full name, permanent address, nationality, ID card number, Citizen Identification Card, Passport, or other valid personal identification for individual shareholders; the name, enterprise code, or establishment decision number, and headquarters address for institutional shareholders; the number and type of shares held, and the proposed issues for inclusion in the meeting agenda.

5. The person convening the General Meeting of Shareholders has the right to reject proposals mentioned in Clause 4 of Article 17 in the following cases:

- a. The proposal is not submitted within the required time frame or does not meet the required conditions;
- b. At the time of the proposal, the shareholder or group of shareholders does not hold at least 5% of the ordinary shares as stipulated in Clause 3, Article 11 of this Charter;
- c. The proposed issue is beyond the decision-making authority of the General Meeting of Shareholders;
- d. Other cases as prescribed by law and this Charter.

Article 18. Conditions for Holding the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. The General Meeting of Shareholders shall be conducted when the attending shareholders represent more than 50% of the total voting shares.

2. If the required number of attendees is not met within thirty (30) minutes from the scheduled opening time, the convener shall cancel the meeting. The General Meeting of Shareholders must be reconvened within thirty (30) days from the originally planned date of the first meeting. The reconvened meeting shall only proceed if the attending shareholders represent at least 33% of the total voting shares.

3. If the second meeting cannot be conducted due to insufficient attendance within thirty (30) minutes from the scheduled opening time, a third meeting may be convened within twenty (20) days from the intended date of the second meeting. In this case, the meeting shall proceed regardless of the total voting shares represented by the attending shareholders and shall be considered valid, with the authority to decide on all matters initially scheduled for approval at the first General Meeting of Shareholders.

Article 19. Procedures for Conducting and Voting at the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. Before the meeting begins, the Company must complete the shareholder registration process and continue registering until all eligible shareholders attending the meeting have completed their registration.

2. During the registration process, the Company shall issue each shareholder or authorized representative with a voting card, which includes the registration number, the shareholder's name, the authorized representative's name (if applicable), and the number of votes the shareholder holds. The General Meeting of Shareholders shall vote on each agenda item separately. Voting shall be conducted in three forms: approval, disapproval, or abstention. The vote count results must be announced by the Chairperson before the meeting is adjourned. The General Meeting of Shareholders shall elect vote counters or vote-counting supervisors as proposed by the Chairperson. The number of vote counters shall be determined by the General Meeting based on the Chairperson's proposal.

3. Shareholders or authorized representatives who arrive after the meeting has started may register immediately upon arrival and thereafter participate and vote. The Chairperson is not required to pause the meeting to allow latecomers to register, and prior voting results shall remain valid.

4. The General Meeting of Shareholders shall be presided over by the Chairperson of the Board of Directors. In the absence or temporary incapacity of the Chairperson, the remaining members of the Board of Directors shall elect one among themselves to chair the meeting based on the majority principle. If none of them can preside, the highest-ranking Board member shall facilitate the election of a Chairperson from the attendees, and the individual with the highest votes shall preside.

In other cases, the person signing the notice convening the meeting shall oversee the election of the Chairperson, with the highest-voted individual being designated as Chairperson.

5. The agenda and content of the meeting must be approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders at the opening session. The agenda must clearly define the timing of each item.

6. The Chairperson may postpone the meeting with the consent or request of the General Meeting of Shareholders, provided that the required quorum is met in accordance with Clause 8, Article 146 of the Law on Enterprises.

7. The Chairperson may take necessary actions to conduct the meeting in an orderly and legal manner, following the approved agenda and reflecting the majority's views.

8. The convener of the General Meeting of Shareholders may require shareholders or authorized representatives to undergo reasonable security checks before attending the meeting. If a shareholder or representative refuses to comply, the convener, after careful consideration, has the right to deny or expel them from the meeting.

9. The convener of the General Meeting of Shareholders, after careful consideration, may take necessary measures to:

- a. Arrange seating at the meeting venue;
- b. Ensure safety for all attendees;
- c. Facilitate shareholder participation (or continued participation). The convener has full discretion to modify or implement necessary measures, including issuing entry passes or using alternative arrangements.

10. If security measures are applied at the meeting, the convener may:

- a. Announce that the meeting is taking place at the location stated in the notice and that the Chairperson is present there ("Main Meeting Venue");
- b. Arrange for shareholders or authorized representatives who cannot physically attend the Main Meeting Venue to participate remotely from another location while still being considered attendees.

The meeting notice does not need to specify the security arrangements in detail.

11. Under this Charter (unless otherwise required by circumstances), all shareholders shall be deemed to be attending the meeting at the Main Meeting Venue.

12. The Company shall hold at least one (01) General Meeting of Shareholders per year. The Annual General Meeting of Shareholders shall not be conducted through written consultation.

Article 20. Approval of Resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. Except as provided in Clauses 2 and 3 of this Article, resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders on the following matters shall be approved when more than 50% of the total votes of shareholders with voting rights, either attending in person or through an authorized representative, vote in favor:

- a. Approval of the annual financial statements;
- b. The Company's short-term and long-term development plans;

c. Dismissal, removal, and replacement of members of the Board of Directors and the Supervisory Board, and reporting on the appointment of the General Director by the Board of Directors.

2. The election of members of the Board of Directors and the Supervisory Board shall be conducted in accordance with Clause 3, Article 148 of the Law on Enterprises.

3. Resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders concerning amendments and supplements to the Charter; types and total number of shares of each type; changes in the Company's organization and structure; reorganization or dissolution of the enterprise; investment projects or asset sales valued at 35% or more of the total assets recorded in the Company's latest financial statement shall be approved when at least 65% of the total voting shares of all attending and voting shareholders vote in favor.

4. Resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders that receive 100% approval of all shares with voting rights shall be considered valid and effective immediately, even if the process and procedures for approving such resolutions were not carried out in full compliance with regulations.

Article 21. Authority and Procedures for Collecting Shareholders' Opinions in Writing to Approve Resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders

The authority and procedures for collecting shareholders' opinions in writing to approve resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be carried out as follows:

1. The Board of Directors has the right to collect shareholders' opinions in writing to approve resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders when deemed necessary for the Company's benefit.

2. The Board of Directors must prepare opinion collection ballots, draft resolutions, and explanatory materials related to the draft resolution. These materials must be sent and disclosed to shareholders at least fifteen (15) days before the deadline for returning the ballots, ensuring shareholders have reasonable time for review and voting. The requirements and methods for sending the ballots and accompanying materials shall comply with Clause 3, Article 17 of this Charter.

3. The opinion collection ballot must include the following key contents:

a. Company name, headquarters address, business registration number;

b. Purpose of collecting opinions;

c. Shareholder information: Full name, permanent address, nationality, and identification details (Citizen ID, Passport, or equivalent) for individual shareholders;

for institutional shareholders, company name, business registration number, headquarters address, or representative details; number of shares held and voting rights;

- d. Issues to be voted on;
- e. Voting options: Approve, Disapprove, No opinion for each issue;
- f. Deadline for returning completed opinion ballots to the Company;
- g. Full name and signature of the Chairman of the Board of Directors.

4. The completed opinion ballot must bear the signature of the shareholder (for individuals) or the legal representative (for institutions) or their authorized representatives.

5. The completed opinion ballot can be submitted to the Company via:

- a. Mail: Must be sealed and unopened before vote counting.
- b. Fax or Email: Must remain confidential until the vote counting.

Any ballots received after the deadline, opened prematurely, or disclosed before vote counting are invalid. Ballots not submitted are considered as not participating in the vote.

6. The Board of Directors conducts the vote counting in the presence of the Supervisory Board or a shareholder who does not hold a managerial position. The vote counting minutes must include:

- a. Company name, headquarters address, business registration number;
- b. Purpose and issues voted on;
- c. Number of shareholders and votes cast, distinguishing between valid and invalid votes, along with voting method details and an attached list of participating shareholders;
- d. Total votes for Approve, Disapprove, and No opinion for each issue;
- e. Resolutions passed and corresponding approval percentages;
- f. Full names and signatures of the Chairman of the Board, vote counters, and supervisors.

Members of the Board, vote counters, and supervisors share joint responsibility for the accuracy and integrity of the vote counting minutes and any damages caused by inaccurate vote counting.

7. The vote counting minutes or resolution must be disclosed on the Company's website within twenty-four (24) hours or sent to shareholders within fifteen (15) days from the vote counting completion date.

8. The collected opinion ballots, vote counting minutes, approved resolution, and relevant materials must be retained at the Company's headquarters.

9. A resolution passed via written opinions is valid as a resolution approved at a General Meeting of Shareholders if it receives approval from shareholders representing more than 50% of the total voting shares.

Article 22. Minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. The General Meeting of Shareholders must be recorded in minutes and may also be audio-recorded, video-recorded, or stored in other electronic formats. The minutes must be prepared in Vietnamese and may have an additional English version. The minutes must include the following key contents:

- a. Company name, headquarters address, and business registration number;
- b. Time and venue of the General Meeting of Shareholders;
- c. Agenda and discussion topics of the meeting;
- d. Full names of the Chairperson and Secretary of the meeting;
- e. Summary of discussions and shareholder opinions on each agenda item;
- f. Number of shareholders attending and their total voting rights, including an attached list of registered shareholders or their representatives and their corresponding shareholding and voting rights;
- g. Total voting results for each issue, including voting methods, total valid and invalid votes, votes in favor, against, and abstentions, along with corresponding voting percentages;
- h. Resolutions passed and their corresponding approval percentages;
- i. Signatures of the Chairperson and Secretary.

Both the Vietnamese and English versions of the minutes have equal legal effect. However, in case of any discrepancy, the Vietnamese version prevails.

2. The minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders must be prepared and approved before the meeting concludes. The Chairperson and Secretary are jointly responsible for the accuracy and integrity of the minutes.

3. The meeting minutes must be published on the Company's website within twenty-four (24) hours or sent to all shareholders within fifteen (15) days from the meeting's conclusion.

4. The minutes serve as official evidence of the proceedings of the General Meeting of Shareholders unless objections are raised within ten (10) days from the date the minutes were sent, following the proper procedures.

5. The minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders, the annex listing the registered shareholders attending the meeting with their signatures, the proxy documents for attendance, the approved resolutions, and related documents must be kept at the company's headquarters.

Article 23. Request for Annulment of Resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders

Within ninety (90) days from the date of receipt of the minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders or the minutes of the voting results collected by written consultation, members of the Board of Directors, Supervisors, the General Director, shareholders, or groups of shareholders as specified in Clause 3, Article 11 of this Charter have the right to request a Court or Arbitration to review and annul the resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders in the following cases:

1. The procedures for convening the meeting or collecting written opinions from shareholders were not conducted in accordance with the provisions of the Law on Enterprises and the Company Charter, except for the case specified in Clause 4, Article 20 of this Charter.

2. The content of the resolution violates the law or the Company Charter.

If a resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders is annulled by a Court or Arbitration decision, the person who convened the annulled meeting may consider reorganizing the General Meeting of Shareholders within thirty (30) days following the procedures and regulations under the Law on Enterprises and this Charter.

CHAPTER VII. BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Article 24. Nomination and Candidacy for the Board of Directors

1. If candidates for the Board of Directors have been identified in advance, information regarding these candidates must be included in the meeting materials of the General Meeting of Shareholders and publicly disclosed at least ten (10) days before the opening of the meeting on the Company's website. This allows shareholders to review the candidates before voting. Candidates for the Board of Directors must provide a written commitment to the accuracy, truthfulness, and reasonableness of their disclosed personal information and must commit to performing their duties with integrity if elected.

The information about the candidates for the Board of Directors must include at least the following:

- a. Full name, date of birth;;
- b. Educational background;

- c. Professional qualifications;
- d. Work experience;
- e. Companies where the candidate currently holds a position as a member of the Board of Directors or other management roles;
- f. Evaluation report on the candidate's contributions to the Company (if the candidate is currently a Board member of the Company);
- g. Any related interests in the Company (if applicable);
- h. Name of the shareholder or group of shareholders nominating the candidate (if applicable);
- i. Other relevant information (if any).

2. Shareholders holding common shares have the right to aggregate their voting rights to nominate candidates for the Board of Directors. Shareholders or groups of shareholders holding from 05% to under 10% of the total voting shares may nominate one (01) candidate; from 10% to under 30% may nominate up to two (02) candidates; from 30% to under 40% may nominate up to three (03) candidates; from 40% to under 50% may nominate up to four (04) candidates; from 50% to under 60% may nominate up to five (05) candidates; from 60% to under 70% may nominate up to six (06) candidates; from 70% to 80% may nominate up to seven (07) candidates; and from 80% to under 90% may nominate up to eight (08) candidates.

3. If the number of candidates nominated and self-nominated is still insufficient, the incumbent Board of Directors may nominate additional candidates or organize nominations as per the Company's internal governance regulations. The nomination procedure by the incumbent Board must be clearly disclosed and approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders before proceeding with the nomination in accordance with the law.

Article 25. Composition and Term of the Board of Directors Members

1. The Board of Directors consists of five (05) members. The term of each Board member shall not exceed five (05) years, and members may be re-elected without limitation on the number of terms.

2. The total number of independent Board members must account for at least one-third (1/3) of the total Board members. The minimum number of independent Board members shall be rounded down.

3. A Board member shall no longer hold the position in the following cases:

- a. No longer meets the qualifications for Board membership as prescribed by the Law on Enterprises or is legally prohibited from serving as a Board member;

- b. Voluntarily resigns;
 - c. Suffers from mental disorders, and other Board members provide professional evidence proving the member is no longer capable of performing their duties;
 - d. Fails to attend Board meetings for six (06) consecutive months, except in cases of force majeure;
 - e. Removed by the General Meeting of Shareholders;
 - f. Provides false personal information when submitting candidacy to the Company as a Board member;
 - g. Other cases as prescribed by law and this Charter.
4. The appointment, dismissal, or removal of a Board member must be publicly disclosed in accordance with the regulations on securities and the stock market.
5. Board members are not required to be shareholders of the Company.

Article 26. Powers and Duties of the Board of Directors

1. The Company's business activities and operations shall be subject to the supervision and direction of the Board of Directors. The Board has full authority to exercise all rights and obligations of the Company, except for matters under the authority of the General Meeting of Shareholders.

2. The powers and duties of the Board of Directors are stipulated by law, the Company's Charter, and resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders. Specifically, the Board has the following powers and responsibilities:

- a. Decide on the strategy, medium-term development plans, and annual business plans of the Company;
- b. Establish operational objectives based on strategic goals approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders;
- c. Appoint, dismiss, sign, and terminate contracts with the General Director and other executives, and determine their salaries;
- d. Supervise and direct the General Director and other executives;
- e. Decide on the organizational structure, establishment of subsidiaries, branches, representative offices, and the contribution of capital or share acquisitions in other businesses;
- f. Handle complaints by the Company against business executives and decide on the Company's legal representatives in legal matters involving executives;
- g. Propose the reorganization or dissolution of the Company;

h. Issue and approve Board of Directors' operational regulations, internal governance regulations, and information disclosure policies after approval by the General Meeting of Shareholders;

i. Approve meeting agendas and materials for the General Meeting of Shareholders, convene General Meetings, or collect shareholders' opinions;

j. Propose annual dividends, determine the timeline and procedures for dividend distribution;

k. Propose types of shares to be issued and the total number of shares for each type;

m. Determine the offering price for shares and bonds when authorized by the General Meeting of Shareholders;

n. Present the audited annual financial statements and corporate governance report to the General Meeting of Shareholders;

o. Report the appointment of the General Director to the General Meeting of Shareholders;

p. Approve investments or sales of assets valued below 35% of the Company's total assets as recorded in the most recent financial statement (which must not be older than 90 days);

q. Approval of purchase, sale, loan, lending contracts and other contracts and transactions with a value of 35% or more of the total asset value recorded in the Company's most recent financial report. This provision does not apply to contracts and transactions specified in Point d, Clause 2, Article 138, Clauses 1 and 3, Article 167 of the Enterprise Law ;

r. Exercise other rights and fulfill obligations as required by law.

3. The following matters must be approved by the Board of Directors:

a. Establishment of branches or representative offices;

b. Establishment of subsidiaries;

c. Within the scope of Clause 2, Article 153 of the Law on Enterprises, and except for cases stipulated in Clause 2, Article 138 and Clauses 1 and 3, Article 167 of the Law on Enterprises, which require approval from the General Meeting of Shareholders, the Board of Directors may, at its discretion, decide on the execution, amendment, and termination of the Company's major contracts from time to time;

d. Appointment and dismissal of authorized representatives and Company lawyers;

e. Borrowing and execution of mortgages, guarantees, and indemnities by the Company

f. Investments not included in the business plan and exceeding 10% of total Company assets or exceeding 10% of the annual business plan;

g. Purchase or sale of shares and equity in other companies in Vietnam or abroad;

h. Valuation of non-cash assets contributed to the Company, including gold, land use rights, intellectual property, technology, and trade secrets;

i. Repurchasing or redeeming up to 10% of each type of shares

j. Determination of share repurchase prices;

k. Other business matters or transactions requiring Board approval.

4. The Board must report to the General Meeting of Shareholders on its activities, particularly regarding its oversight of the General Director and other executives during the financial year.

5. Unless otherwise required by law or the Company Charter, the Board may delegate authority to lower-level employees or other executives to act on behalf of the Company.

6. Board members (excluding alternate representatives) shall receive compensation for their services. The total compensation for the Board is determined by the General Meeting of Shareholders and is distributed either by mutual agreement or equally if no agreement is reached.

7. The total compensation and benefits of each Board member, including salaries, expenses, commissions, stock options, and other benefits from the Company, subsidiaries, and affiliates, must be disclosed in detail in the Company's annual report. Board member compensation must be separately reported in the annual financial statements.

8. Board members who hold executive positions or serve on Board committees may receive additional compensation in the form of lump-sum payments, salaries, commissions, profit shares, or other forms as decided by the Board.

9. Board members are entitled to reimbursement for travel, accommodation, and other reasonable expenses incurred while performing their duties, including attending meetings of the General Meeting of Shareholders, Board of Directors, or Board committees.

Article 27. Chairman and Vice Chairman of the Board of Directors

1. The General Meeting of Shareholders or the Board of Directors must elect a Chairman from among the members of the Board of Directors.

2. The Chairman of the Board of Directors is responsible for preparing agendas, documents, convening, and presiding over meetings of the Board of Directors and the General Meeting of Shareholders. The Chairman also has other rights and obligations as stipulated in this Charter and the Law on Enterprises.

3. The Chairman of the Board of Directors must ensure that the Board of Directors submits the annual financial statements, the company's operational report, the audit report, and the inspection report of the Board of Directors to shareholders at the General Meeting of Shareholders.

4. The Chairman of the Board of Directors may be dismissed by a resolution of the Board of Directors. In the event of resignation or dismissal of the Chairman, the Board of Directors must elect a replacement within ten (10) days.

5. Between meetings of the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors represents the Board in directly directing, urging, and supervising the activities of the Executive Board and other management personnel.

Article 28. Meetings of the Board of Directors

1. If the Board of Directors elects a Chairman, the Chairman shall be elected at the first meeting of the Board of Directors' term within seven (07) working days from the date of completion of the election for that term. This meeting shall be convened by the member who received the highest number of votes. In the event of more than one (01) member receiving the highest or equal number of votes, the members shall vote by majority to select one (01) among them to convene the Board of Directors meeting.

2. The Chairman of the Board of Directors must convene regular and extraordinary meetings of the Board, set the agenda, and determine the time and place of the meeting at least five (05) working days before the meeting date. The Chairman may call a meeting whenever necessary and must hold at least one (01) meeting per quarter.

3. The Chairman of the Board of Directors must convene a Board meeting without unreasonable delay upon a written request specifying the purpose of the meeting and the matters to be discussed from any of the following:

- a. The General Director or at least five (05) other executives;
- b. At least two (02) members of the Board of Directors;
- c. An independent member of the Board of Directors;
- d. The Supervisory Board.

4. The Chairman must convene the meeting within seven (07) working days from the date of receiving a request as stated in Clause 3 of this Article. If the Chairman fails to convene the meeting as requested, they shall be liable for any damage caused to the company, and the requesters specified in Clause 3 of this Article have the right to convene the meeting.

5. If required by an independent auditing firm conducting the Company's financial statement audit, the Chairman must convene a Board meeting to discuss the audit report and the Company's financial status.

6. Meeting Venue: Board meetings shall be held at the Company's headquarters or another location in Vietnam or abroad as decided by the Chairman of the Board and agreed upon by the Board.

7. Notice and Agenda of the meeting: The notice of the Board of Directors meeting must be sent to members of the Board of Directors and the Supervisors at least five (05) working days before the meeting date. A member of the Board of Directors may waive the meeting notice in writing, and such waiver may be modified or revoked in writing by that member. The notice of the Board of Directors meeting must be in Vietnamese and must include the full agenda, time, and location of the meeting, the contents of the matters to be discussed, along with necessary documents regarding the issues to be discussed and voted upon at the meeting, and the voting ballot of the member.

The meeting notice shall be sent via mail, fax, email, or other means, but it must ensure delivery to the registered address of each member of the Board of Directors and the Supervisors at the Company.

8. Quorum: The meetings of the Board of Directors shall be conducted when at least three-fourths (3/4) of the members of the Board of Directors are present either directly or through a representative (authorized person) if approved by the majority of the Board of Directors members.

In the event that the required number of attendees is not met, the meeting must be reconvened within seven (07) days from the originally scheduled meeting date. The second meeting shall proceed if more than half (1/2) of the members of the Board of Directors are present.

9. Online Meetings: The Board of Directors meetings may be held in the form of an online conference among members of the Board of Directors when all or some members are in different locations, provided that each participating member can:

- a. Hear each other member of the Board of Directors speaking at the meeting;
- b. Speak to all other members attending simultaneously.

The discussion among members may be conducted directly via telephone, other communication means, or a combination of these methods. A member of the Board of Directors participating in such a meeting shall be considered "present" at the meeting. The location of the meeting conducted in this manner shall be where the majority of the Board of Directors members are located or the location where the Chairperson of the meeting is present.

10. Voting ballots: A member of the Board of Directors may send their voting ballot to the meeting via mail, fax, or email. In the case of mailing the voting ballot, the ballot must be placed in a sealed envelope and delivered to the Chairman of the Board of Directors no later than one (01) hour before the start of the meeting. The voting ballots shall only be opened in the presence of all attendees.

11. Voting:

a. Except as provided in point b of Clause 11 of this Article, each member of the Board of Directors or an authorized representative as stipulated in Clause 8 of this Article who is physically present at the Board of Directors meeting shall have one (01) vote;

b. A member of the Board of Directors shall not vote on contracts, transactions, or proposals in which they or their related parties have an interest that conflicts or may conflict with the interests of the Company. Such members shall not be counted in the minimum number of members required to hold a meeting of the Board of Directors regarding decisions in which they are not entitled to vote;

c. In the event of an issue arising at the Board of Directors meeting regarding a member's interest or voting rights, and the member does not voluntarily relinquish their voting rights, the Chairperson's decision shall be final, except where the nature or scope of the Board member's interest has not been fully disclosed;

d. A member of the Board of Directors benefiting from a contract specified in points a and d, Clause 5, Article 39 of this Charter shall be deemed to have a significant interest in that contract.
