INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

*On the combined financial statements of Song Da 9 Joint Stock Company
For the financial year ended 31 December 2025*

To: The Shareholders
The Board of Management and Board of General Directors
Song Da 9 Joint Stock Company

We have audited the accompanying combined financial statements of Song Da 9 Joint Stock Company (hereinafter referred to as the "Company") which were prepared on 18 March 2026, as set out on page 06 to 44, including: the combined balance sheet as at 31 December 2025, the combined income statement and combined cash flow statement for the financial year then ended and the notes thereto.

Responsibilities of the Board of General Directors

The Board of General Directors of the Company is responsible for preparing and presenting the combined financial statements to give in a true and fair view in conformity with Vietnamese Accounting Standards, Vietnamese Corporate Accounting System and legal regulations on the preparation and presentation of the combined financial statements and for such internal control as the Board of General Directors determines is necessary to enable the preparation and presentation of the combined financial statements that are free from material misstatements, whether due to fraud or error.

Responsibilities of the Auditors

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these combined financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Vietnamese Standards on Auditing. Those Standards require that we comply with ethical requirements, plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance whether the combined financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the combined financial statements. The selected procedures depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the combined financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the Company's preparation and fair presentation of the combined financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by the Board of General Directors, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the combined financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT (CONT'D)

Opinion of the Auditors

In our opinion, the combined financial statements give a true and fair view, in all material respects, of the combined financial position of Song Da 9 Joint Stock Company as at 31 December 2025 and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the financial year then ended, in accordance with Vietnamese Accounting Standards, Vietnamese Corporate Accounting System and legal regulations on the preparation and presentation of the combined financial statements.

2.3 STATEMENT OF COMPLIANCE WITH ACCOUNTING STANDARDS AND SYSTEM

The Board of General Directors ensures compliance with the requirements of the Vietnamese Accounting Standards and the Vietnamese Corporate Accounting System as promulgated under Circular No. 200/2014/TT-BTC dated 22 December 2014, the implementing guidance circulars on accounting standards issued by the Ministry of Finance, and relevant legal regulations on the preparation and presentation of the financial statements in the preparation of the combined financial statements.

3. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The significant accounting policies adopted by the Company in the preparation of these combined financial statements are as follows:

3.1 BASIS AND PURPOSE OF PREPARATION OF COMBINED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The combined financial statements are prepared on the accrual basis of accounting (except for information relating to cash flows).

The dependent units maintain their own accounting records and operate under dependent accounting arrangements. The combined financial statements of the Company are prepared based on the aggregation of the combined financial statements of the dependent units. Revenue and balances between the dependent units are eliminated in the preparation of the financial statements.

3.2 ACCOUNTING ESTIMATES

Combined financial reporting in conformity with Vietnamese Accounting Standards requires the Board of General Directors to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the combined financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the financial year. Actual business results may differ from the estimates and assumptions set.

3.3 FOREIGN CURRENCIES

Transactions arising in foreign currency are converted at the exchange rate on the date of the transaction. The closing balances of monetary items denominated in foreign currency at the end of the financial year are undergone conversion using the exchange rate on that date.

Foreign exchange rate differences arising during the year from foreign currency transactions are recognized in financial income or financial expenses. The exchange rate differences from re-evaluating monetary items denominated in foreign currency at the date of the financial year, after offsetting the increases and decreases in differences, are recorded in financial income or financial expenses.

The exchange rates utilized to convert foreign currency transactions are the actual transaction rates at the time of these occurrences. The actual rate for foreign currency deals are determined as follows:

- The actual transaction rate when buying and selling foreign currency (spot foreign exchange contracts, forward contracts, futures contracts, options contracts, swap contracts): the exchange rate agreed upon in the foreign currency purchase or sale contract between the company and the bank.
- If the contract does not specify the payment exchange rate:
  - For capital contributions or received investments: the buying exchange rate of the bank where the company opens a bank account to receive funds from the investor on the date of the contribution.
  - For accounts receivable: the exchange rate for buying foreign currency by the commercial bank where the Company designates customers to make payments at the time of the transaction.
  - For accounts payable: the exchange rate for selling foreign currency by the commercial bank where the Company plans to conduct the transaction at the time the transaction occurs.
  - For transactions involving the purchase of assets or expenses paid immediately in foreign currency (not recorded through accounts payable): the buying exchange rate of the commercial bank where the Company makes the payment.

The exchange rate when re-evaluating monetary items denominated in foreign currencies at the end of the financial year is determined according to the following principles:

- For foreign currency accounts at banks: the exchange rate for buying foreign currency by the commercial bank where the Company opens these accounts.
- For monetary items denominated in foreign currency classified as other assets: the exchange rate for buying foreign currency by the Commercial Bank, which the Company regularly makes transactions.
- For monetary items denominated in foreign currency classified as accounts payable: the exchange rate for selling foreign currency by the Commercial Bank, which the Company regularly makes transactions.

3.4 CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS

Cash includes cash at hand, non-term bank deposits and demand deposits. Cash equivalents are short-term investments with a redemption period or maturity of no more than 3 months from the date of purchase, are easily convertible into a specified amount of cash, and carry minimal risk of value fluctuation upon conversion.

3.5 FINANCIAL INVESTMENTSHeld-to-maturity investments*

Held-to-maturity investments include investments that the Company has the intention and ability to hold to maturity. Held-to-maturity investments include: term bank deposits (including treasury bills and promissory notes), bonds, redeemable preference shares in which the issuer is obliged to repurchase the shares at a specified date in the future, and other held-to-maturity investments.

Held-to-maturity investments are initially recognized at cost, which includes the purchase price and expenses related to the acquisition. Interest income from held-to-maturity investments arising after the purchase date is recognised in the income statement on an accrual basis. Interest received in advance before the Company acquires the investment is deducted from the investment's carrying amount at the purchase date.

Held-to-maturity investments are determined at cost minus provisions for doubtful debts.

When there is solid evidence that part or all of the investment may not be recoverable and the amount of loss is reliably determined, the loss is recognized as a financial expenses during the year/period and the investment value is directly deducted.

Loans

Loans are determined at cost less provisions for doubtful debts.

Provisions for doubtful debts of loans shall be made on the basis of the expected level of potential losses.

Investments in subsidiaries

An investment is classified as an investment in a Subsidiary when the Company has control over the investee. Control is defined as the power to govern the financial and operating policies of an enterprise or business so as to obtain benefits from its activities.

Investment in other entities

Investments in equity instruments of other entities include equity investments where the Company does not have control, joint control or significant influence over the investees.

Investments in equity instruments of other entities are initially recognized at cost, which includes purchase price or capital contribution plus any directly related investment costs. Dividends and profits from periods prior to the investment acquisition are recorded as a reduction in the investment's value. Dividends and profits from periods after the investment acquisition are recognized revenue. Dividends received in the form of shares may only increase the recorded number of shares, without recognizing the value of shares received.

Provision for impairment of investments in equity instruments of other entities is set aside at the time of preparing the combined financial statements when there is a decline in the value of investments compared to the original cost. The Company shall make provision as follows:

- For an investment in listed shares or an investment with a reliably determined fair value, the provision is based on the market value of the shares.
- For an investment whose fair value cannot be determined at the reporting date, the reserve shall be set aside equal to the difference between the actual capital contributed by all parties to that entity and the actual equity multiplied by the ratio of the Company's capital contribution compared to the total actual contributed capital of all parties in that entity.

Increases or decreases in the amount of provision for investment losses in equity instruments of other entities that need to be set aside at the closing date of the combined financial statements are recognized as financial expenses.

3.6 RECEIVABLES

Accounts receivable are stated at carrying amount less provisions for doubtful debts.

The classification of receivables is made according to the following principles:

- Trade receivables represent trade receivables arising from purchase and sale transactions between the Company and the independent customers.
- Other accounts receivable reflect non-commercial receivables that are unrelated to purchase and sale transactions.

NOTES TO THE COMBINED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS (CONT'D)(These notes are an integral part of and should be read in conjunction with the accompanying combined financial statements)3. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONT'D)*3.6 RECEIVABLES (CONT'D)

The provision for doubtful debts is made for overdue receivables according to economic contract, contractual commitment, or debt commitment, remain uncollected despite multiple demands. The overdue period of a receivable is determined based on the principal repayment period stated in the initial sale contract, regardless of any extension agreed upon by the parties; or for receivables that have not yet reached the due date but where the debtor is bankrupt, undergoing dissolution, disappearance, or fleeing, and being reversed when the debt is collected.

Increases or decreases in the balance of the provision for doubtful debts that need to be appropriated as of the balance sheet date are recorded as administrative expenses.

3.7 INVENTORIES

Inventories are measured at the lower of cost or net realizable value.

The cost of inventories is determined as follows:

- Raw materials, tools, equipment, and real estate inventories: includes purchase costs and other costs directly attributable to bringing inventory to its current location and state.
- Work in progress: includes material, labor and other directly related costs, measured for each project (PJ) or project item (item) is determined as follows:

✓ For projects and items with revenue recognized for amount of work completed:

$$\text{Work in progress at end of period of each project/item} = \frac{\text{Value of unfinished output at end of period of each project/item}}{\text{Value of unfinished output at end of period of each project/item}} \times (1 - \text{Rated interest rate})$$

In which: The rated profit rate determined by the Company is 10% (10% in the previous period). The output value of unfinished production at period-end is determined on the basis of the volume of unfinished output at the end of the period according to the inventory results.

✓ For projects and items without revenue recognized for amount of work completed:

$$\text{Work in progress at end of period of each project/item} = \text{Work in progress at start of period of each project/item} + \text{Production and business expenses incurred in the period of each project/item}$$

The issue price is calculated according to the weighted average method and is recorded under the perpetual inventory system.

Net realisable value is determined as the estimated selling price of inventory in the normal course of business, less estimated costs of completion and estimated selling expenses.

A provision for inventory devaluation is made for each inventory item where the cost exceeds its net realizable value. Increases or decreases in inventory discount provisions that need to be made at the end of the financial year are recognized in the cost of goods sold.

NOTES TO THE COMBINED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS (CONT'D)(These notes are an integral part of and should be read in conjunction with the accompanying combined financial statements)3. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONT'D)*3.8 TANGIBLES FIXED ASSETS

Tangible fixed assets are recorded at historical cost and are reflected in the balance sheet as cost, accumulated depreciation and carrying amount. The historical cost of purchased tangible fixed assets includes the purchase price (less trade discounts or rebates), taxes and costs directly attributable to making the fixed assets ready for use. Expenses incurred after initial recognition of tangible fixed assets are recorded as an increase in the historical cost of the asset when it is probable that these costs will increase future economic benefits. Expenses incurred which do not meet the above conditions will be recorded into expenses during the year.

When intangible fixed assets are sold or liquidated, the accumulated costs and depreciation are written off, and any profits and losses incurred as a result of the liquidation are recognized in income or expenses for the year.

Tangible fixed assets are depreciated by the straight-line method based on their estimated useful lives. Accounting entries for tangible fixed assets are classified in groups of assets with similar nature and purpose of use in production and business activities of the company. The specific depreciation period is as follows:

Fixed assets	Useful lives (years)
- Buildings and structures	15 - 40
- Machines and equipment	05 - 20
- Vehicles and transmission equipment	04 - 08
- Management equipment	03 - 05
- Other Fixed assets	03 - 05

3.9 INTANGIBLE FIXED ASSETS

Intangible fixed assets are recorded at historical cost and are reflected in the balance sheet as cost, accumulated amortization and carrying amount. Historical costs of intangible fixed assets include all the expenses of the Company to have these fixed assets as of the dates they are ready to be put into use. Expenses related to intangible fixed assets, which are incurred after initial recognition, are recognized as operating expenses in the year unless these expenses are associated with a specific intangible fixed asset and increase economic benefits from these assets.

When intangible fixed assets are sold or liquidated, the accumulated costs and amortisations are written off, and any profits and losses incurred as a result of the liquidation are recognized in income or expenses for the year.

The Company's intangible asset is land use rights.

Land use rights

Land use rights are all actual costs the Company has incurred that are directly related to the land used, including: money spent to obtain land use rights, costs for compensation, site clearance, site leveling, registration fees, etc. Land use rights with indefinite term are not depreciated.

3.10 CONSTRUCTION IN PROGRESS

Construction in progress of the Company reflects costs directly attributable to assets being procured and installed that have not yet been put into use, and construction works in progress that have not yet been accepted and put into use as at the closing date for the preparation of the combined financial statements. These assets are recognized at cost and are not subject to depreciation.

NOTES TO THE COMBINED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS (CONT'D)(These notes are an integral part of and should be read in conjunction with the accompanying combined financial statements)3. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONT'D)*3.11 PREPAID EXPENSES

Prepaid expenses include actual expenses that have been incurred but are related to the results of production and business activities across multiple accounting periods. Prepaid expenses consist of costs of insurance, tools and supplies that have been used and are waiting for allocation, repair and maintenance expenses of fixed assets, prepaid land rental, goodwill, commercial advantage, establishment expenses and other prepaid expenses.

Tools and supplies: Tools and supplies that have been put into use are allocated using the straight-line method over a period of 36 months.

Repair costs for fixed assets: One-time repair costs of significant value are allocated to expenses using the straight-line method over a period of 36 months.

3.12 LIABILITIES AND ACCRUED EXPENSES

Liabilities and accrued expenses are recognized for amounts to be paid in the future for goods and services received. Accrued expenses are recognized based on reasonable estimates of the amounts payable.

The classification of payables into trade payables, accrued expenses, and other payables is performed in accordance with the following principles:

- Trade payables reflect commercial payables arising from the purchase of goods, services, assets and the seller is an independent entity from the Company, including payables between the parent company and its subsidiaries, joint ventures, and associates;
- Accrued expenses reflect amounts payable for goods and services already received from suppliers or provided to customers but not yet paid due to the absence of invoices or incomplete accounting documentation;
- Other payables reflect payables that are not commercial in nature and not related to the purchase, sale, or provision of goods and services.

Payables are monitored in detail by counterparty and by maturity. Foreign currency-denominated liabilities are retranslated by the Company using the selling exchange rate of the commercial bank with which the Company regularly conducts transactions.

3.13 BORROWING AND FINANCIAL LEASE LIABILITIES

Borrowings and finance lease liabilities are recognized based on bank documents, loan contracts and agreements.

Borrowings and finance lease liabilities are tracked by object, term.

3.14 BORROWING COSTS

Borrowing costs include interest and other costs incurred directly in connection with the loans.

Borrowing costs are recognized as production and business expenses in the year they are incurred unless they are capitalized in accordance with the provisions of Accounting Standard on "Borrowing costs". Accordingly, borrowing costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of assets that require a relatively long time to complete are added to the cost of the assets until they are put into use or operation. Gains arising from the temporary investment of loans are deducted from the cost of the related assets. For specific loans related to the construction of fixed assets or real estate investment, interest is capitalized even if the construction period is less than 12 months.

NOTES TO THE COMBINED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS (CONT'D)(These notes are an integral part of and should be read in conjunction with the accompanying combined financial statements)3. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONT'D)*3.15 UNEARNED REVENUE

Unearned revenue include prepayments from customers for one or multiple accounting periods related to asset leasing interest received in advance when lending equity or purchasing debt instruments, the difference between the selling price of goods on installment or deferred payment as committed and the selling price paid immediately, revenue corresponding to the value of goods and services, the amount of discounts for customers in the traditional customer program that the company records according to and other amounts. The Company recognizes the obligations that the Company will have to perform in the future.

3.16 OWNER'S EQUITY

Owner's contribution capital is recognized based on the actual amounts contributed by the shareholders.

Share premium is recognised as the difference between the issuance price and the par value of shares in initial public offerings, additional issuances, the difference between the re-issuance price and the book value of treasury shares, and the equity component of convertible bonds upon maturity. Direct costs related to additional share issuances and the re-issuance of treasury shares are deducted from share premium.

Other equity of owners is formed from additions arising from operating results, revaluation of assets, and the residual value between the fair value of assets received as donations, gifts, or sponsorships after deducting related taxes payable (if any).

Treasury shares are shares repurchased by the Company that were originally issued by the Company. The amount paid, including transaction-related costs, is recognized as treasury shares and presented as a deduction from equity. Upon reissuance, the difference between the reissuance price and the carrying amount of the treasury shares is recognized in "Share premium".

3.17 PROFIT DISTRIBUTION

Profit after corporate income tax is distributed to shareholders after appropriations to funds in accordance with the Company's Charter and applicable laws, as approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Profit after corporate income tax is distributed to shareholders after the deduction of reserves in accordance with the Charter of the Company and legal provision, as approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Dividends are recognized as a liability when approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders.

3.18 REVENUE RECOGNITIONRevenue from selling products and goods*

Revenue from the sale of goods and finished products is recognized when all five (5) of the following conditions are satisfied simultaneously:

- The Company has transferred substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of the products or goods to the purchaser;
- The Company no longer holds management right on goods, products as the goods and product owner or control right on goods;
- The revenue can be measured reliably. When contracts define that buyers are entitled to return products, goods purchased under specific conditions, revenue are recognized only when such specific conditions no longer exist and buyers are not entitled to return products, goods (except the case that buyers are entitled to return goods, products in the form of exchange for other goods, services);

NOTES TO THE COMBINED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS (CONT'D)(These notes are an integral part of and should be read in conjunction with the accompanying combined financial statements)3. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONT'D)*3.18 REVENUE RECOGNITION (CONT'D)

- The Company has received or shall receive economic benefits from transactions of selling goods; and
- Costs related to the transaction of selling goods can be determined.

Revenue from rendering of services

Revenue from service provision transaction is recognized when the outcome of the transaction can be measured reliably. In case the service provision transaction involves many periods, revenue is recognized in the period based on the results of the completed work at the closing date of the financial period. Revenue of a service provision transaction is determined when all four (4) of the following conditions are satisfied:

- The revenue can be measured reliably. When contracts specify that buyers are entitled to return services provided under specific conditions, revenue is recognized only when such specific conditions no longer exist and the buyers are not entitled to return services provided;
- The Company has received or shall receive economic benefits from the service provision transactions;
- The stage of completion of transaction at the end of reporting period can be measured reliably; and
- The costs incurred for transactions and the costs to complete transactions can be measured reliably.

Revenue from construction contract

When the outcome of a contract can be estimated reliably:

- For construction contracts that stipulate that the contractor is paid according to the planned progress, revenue and costs related to the contract are recorded corresponding to the portion of work completed as determined by the Company at the closing date of the financial statements.
- For construction contracts that stipulate that the contractor is paid according to the value of the quantity performed, revenue and costs related to the contract are recorded corresponding to the portion of work completed as confirmed by the customer and reflected on the issued invoice.

Increases and decreases in construction and installation volume, compensation and other revenues are only recorded as revenue when agreed with the customer.

When the outcome of a construction contract cannot be estimated reliably:

- Revenue is only recognized to the extent of contract costs incurred for which recovery is reasonably certain.
- Contract costs are only recognized as expenses when incurred.

The difference between the cumulative revenue recognized from the construction contract and the cumulative amount billed according to the planned payment schedule is recorded as contract receivables or contract payables, in accordance with the progress of the construction contracts.

Financial income

Returns on long-term investments are estimated and the right to receive interest from established Investee Companies are recognized.

Interest from bank deposits is recognised based on periodic bank statements, while interest from loans is recognised on an accrual basis, using the actual interest rate applicable for each period.

NOTES TO THE COMBINED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS (CONT'D)(These notes are an integral part of and should be read in conjunction with the accompanying combined financial statements)3. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONT'D)3.18 REVENUE RECOGNITION (CONT'D)Dividends and distributed profits

Dividends and distributed profits are recognized when the Company obtains the right to receive them from its capital contributions. Dividends received in the form of shares are tracked solely by the number of additional shares, and are not recognised at fair value.

3.19 FINANCIAL EXPENSES

Financial expenses recognized in the income statement are the total financial expenses incurred during the period, not offset against financial income, including interest expense and exchange rate differences....

3.20 TAXES AND OTHER PAYABLES TO THE STATE BUDGETValue-added tax (VAT)*

The Company implemented the declaration and, calculation of VAT in conformity with guidance of the applicable law.

Corporate income tax

Corporate income tax (if any) represents the sum of the current tax.

Current income tax is the tax amount computed based on taxable income for the year. Taxable income differs from net profit presented in the income statement as it excludes income and expenses that are taxable or deductible in different periods (including carried-forward losses, if any). It also excludes non-taxable income and non-deductible expenses.

Income from the Pake Hydropower Project is exempt from tax for 04 years (from 2021 to 2024) and its tax payable is reduced by 50% in the next 09 years (from 2025 to 2033) from the time the project has taxable income; it is subject to the corporate income tax rate of 10% for 15 years from the time the project generates revenue (from 2021 to 2035).

Income from other hydropower plants and other activities is subject to corporate income tax at a tax rate of 20%.

Deferred income is calculated based on the difference between the carrying amounts of assets or liabilities on the balance sheet and the income tax base. Deferred income tax is accounted for according to the method based on the balance sheet. Deferred tax liability must be recognized for all taxable temporary differences, while deferred tax assets are recognized only when there is certainty that there is sufficient future taxable profit to deduct the differences between the carrying value and the income tax base of assets or liabilities on the combined financial statements.

Deferred income tax is determined by the estimated tax rate that will apply to the year assets are recovered or liabilities are paid. Deferred income tax is recognized in profit or loss unless such tax is related to items recognised directly in equity. In that case, deferred income tax is also recognised directly in equity.

Deferred income tax assets and liabilities are offset when the Company is legally entitled to offset between applicable income tax assets and payables and when deferred tax assets and liabilities related to corporate income tax are managed by the same tax authority and the Company intends to pay the prevailing income tax on a net basis.

NOTES TO THE COMBINED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS (CONT'D)(These notes are an integral part of and should be read in conjunction with the accompanying combined financial statements)3. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONT'D)*3.20 TAXES AND OTHER PAYABLES TO THE STATE BUDGET (CONT'D)

The determination of corporate income tax payable by the Company and its subsidiaries is based on current tax regulations. However, these regulations change from time to time, and tax regulations for different types of transactions can be interpreted in different ways. Therefore, the tax amount presented on the combined financial statements may change when inspected by tax authorities.

Other taxes

The Company and its branches must pay resource tax for the exploitation of natural water used for hydropower production with the taxable price based on the commercial electricity retail price: from 01 January 2024 to 24h on 09 May 2025 was 2,103.1159 VND/kwh according to Decision No. 2699/QĐ-BCT dated 11 October 2025; from 0h on 10 May 2025 to 31 December 2025 was 2,204.0655 VND/kwh according to Decision No. 1279/BCT-DTDL dated 09 May 2025 of the Ministry of Industry and Trade and the tax rate is 5%. The company and its branches must pay the grant of water resource exploitation rights upon notice from the tax authority annually.

Property tax is paid upon notice from the tax authority.

Enterprises are required to declare and pay other taxes and fees to local tax authorities in accordance with current tax laws in Vietnam.

3.21 RELATED PARTIES

Entities and individuals are considered related parties when one party has the ability to control or significantly influence the other party in making financial and operational policy decisions. Related parties include:

- Enterprises have the right to control or are directly or indirectly controlled by one or more intermediaries, or are under common control with the Company, including the parent company, subsidiaries of the Group, joint ventures, jointly controlled entities, and affiliates.
- Individuals who directly or indirectly hold voting right in the Company that give them significant influence over the Company, including key management personnel who have the authority and responsibility for planning, directing, and controlling the Company's activities, including close family members of such individual.
- Enterprises owned by aforementioned individuals, having direct or indirect voting rights or having a significant influence on the business.

In considering the relationship of related parties, the Company should consider the nature and not just the legal form of the relationship.

3.22 SEGMENT REPORT

The reported segment is a distinguishable segment of the Company engaged in the production or supply of individual products or services, a group of related products or services (business segment), or engaged in the production or supply of products, services within a specific economic environment (Geographical segment) that has different economic risks and benefits from other business departments.

The Company's primary segment reporting is presented by business segments. Segment results include items that are directly attributable to a segment as well as those that can be allocated to segments on a reasonable basis. Items that are not allocated include assets and liabilities, finance income and finance costs, selling expenses and general and administrative expenses, other income and expenses, and corporate income tax.
