WORKING REGULATIONS

Extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders 2026 NHA TRANG TEXTILE & GARMENT JOINT STOCK COMPANY

Base:

- The Enterprise Law No. 59/2020/QH14 was passed by the National Assembly of the Socialist Republic of Vietnam on June 17, 2020;
- The Securities Law No. 54/2019/QH14 was passed by the National Assembly of the Socialist Republic of Vietnam on November 26, 2019;
- Based on the Charter of Organization and Operation of Nha Trang Textile and Garment Joint Stock Company;

The Extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders of Nha Trang Textile & Garment Joint Stock Company in 2026 will be organized and conducted according to the following regulations:

CHAPTER I

GENERAL REGULATIONS

Article 1. This Regulation applies to the organization of the 2026 Extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders (hereinafter referred to as the "Meeting") of Nha Trang Textile & Garment Joint Stock Company (hereinafter referred to as the "Company").

Article 2. This Regulation specifies the rights and obligations of the parties participating in the Congress, and the conditions and procedures for conducting the Congress.

Article 3. Shareholders and participating parties are responsible for complying with the provisions of this Regulation.

CHAPTER II

RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF PARTICIPANTS IN THE CONFERENCE

Article 4. Rights of Shareholders

1. Eligibility requirements:

These are shareholders whose names are on the Company's shareholder list as of January 5, 2026, the record date for attending the General Meeting.

2. Shareholder rights:

- You may attend the Congress in person or authorize someone else to attend on your behalf.
- Voted in accordance with Article 10 of these Regulations.
- Shareholders or their representatives attending the General Meeting are publicly informed of the meeting agenda and draft documents. Any opinions or suggestions from shareholders or their representatives will be discussed at the meeting.
- Shareholders receive meeting documents, voting cards, and ballots indicating their voting shareholdings. A shareholder's voting value corresponds to the proportion of voting shares they own or the number of shares they represent registered with the Organizing Committee.
- Shareholders arriving after the opening of the meeting have the right to register and subsequently participate in and vote at the meeting, but the Chairperson is not obligated to stop the meeting to allow them to register, and the validity of any voting already conducted will not be affected.

Article 5. Obligations of Shareholders

1. Shareholders and their representatives attending the General Meeting must bring identification documents (citizen identity card or passport), a power of attorney (if authorized), and complete the registration procedures with the General Meeting Organizing Committee.
2. Comply with the provisions of this Regulation.
3. Strictly abide by the rules of the Congress and respect the results of the work done at the Congress.

Article 6. Rights and obligations of the General Meeting Organizing Committee and the Shareholder Eligibility Verification Committee

1. The General Meeting Organizing Committee is responsible for welcoming shareholders or their representatives, distributing documents, voting cards, and ballots, and guiding them to their seats.
2. The Shareholder Eligibility Verification Committee is responsible for verifying and reporting to the General Meeting on the results of the verification of shareholder eligibility to attend the meeting.

Article 7. Rights and obligations of the Presidium and Secretariat of the Congress

1. Members of the Presidium are nominated by the Organizing Committee and approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders, with the Chairperson being the Chairman of the Board of Directors or a person authorized in writing by the Chairman of the Board of Directors.

2. The Presidium's decision regarding the procedures, formalities, or events arising outside the agenda of the Shareholders' General Meeting will be final.

3. The Presidium has the right to conduct the General Meeting of Shareholders in a valid and orderly manner, ensuring that the meeting reflects the wishes of the majority of shareholders present.

4. Without consulting the General Assembly, the Presidium of the General Assembly may, at any time, postpone the General Assembly to a later time and place in accordance with the Enterprise Law and the Company's Articles of Association if it deems that:

- The conduct of those present that hinders or is likely to hinder the orderly conduct of the meeting or;
- The delay was necessary so that the work of the Congress could proceed properly.

5. The Secretariat, consisting of two members nominated by the Presidium, is responsible for recording the minutes of the General Meeting fully and truthfully, including all proceedings of the meeting and issues approved or raised by shareholders or their representatives at the meeting; and for drafting and presenting the minutes and resolutions of the General Meeting to the meeting.

Article 8. Rights and obligations of the Vote Counting Committee

1. The Congress's vote counting committee consists of three people, including one Chairman and two members nominated by the Chairman and elected by a vote of confidence by the Congress.

2. Responsibilities of the Vote Counting Committee:

- Determine the exact voting results on each issue submitted for a vote at the Congress and inform the Secretary of the voting results;
- Review and report to the Congress any cases of violations of voting rules or complaints regarding voting results.

CHAPTER III

PROCEDURE FOR CONDUCTING THE CONGRESS

Article 9. Conditions for holding the Congress

An extraordinary general meeting of shareholders is held when the number of shareholders or shareholder representatives in attendance represents more than 50% of the total voting shares of the Company.

Article 10. Procedures for conducting the Congress

The General Shareholders' Meeting will be held in one session. The meeting will discuss and approve the reports and proposals of the meeting in turn.

Article 11. Voting Procedures at the General Assembly

1. Principle: All matters on the agenda and content of the General Meeting must be discussed publicly by the General Meeting of Shareholders and voted on by ballot.

2. Voting slip:

- The voting ballots will be printed by the Organizing Committee and sent directly to the delegates at the General Meeting after the list of attending shareholders has been finalized.

- Each delegate has only one vote. The ballot clearly states the delegate's code, full name, and the total number of shares represented by that delegate.

3. Voting method:

Shareholders attending the meeting will vote in person by selecting the option: Agree, Disagree, or No Opinion for each issue on the ballot distributed at the General Meeting of Shareholders. The organizing committee will collect, compile, and report the results.

4. An invalid ballot is one that falls under one or more of the following categories :

- The tickets were not issued by the Organizing Committee;

- The ballot does not contain the full signature and/or clearly state the name of the delegate;

- The ballot was crossed out and/or altered and/or had additional voting content added to it;

- Voting issues may not be selected, or may have more than one option selected for a Congress Proposal.

5. The voting for the election of Board members will be conducted in accordance with the Election Regulations.

Article 12. Principles of speaking at the congress

1. Shareholders attending the General Meeting express their opinions and participate in discussions by raising their Voting Cards, and may only speak after receiving the Chairman's approval.

2. Shareholders delivered brief speeches, focusing on the key issues to be discussed, in line with the agenda approved by the General Meeting.

CHAPTER IV

CONCLUSION OF THE CONFERENCE

Article 13. Minutes and Resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders

All proceedings at the General Shareholders' Meeting must be recorded in minutes and resolutions by the Meeting Secretariat. The minutes and resolutions are read and approved before the closing of the meeting and are kept at the Company.

CHAPTER V

OTHER TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Article 14. Cases where the General Meeting of Shareholders is unsuccessful

1. If the required number of delegates as stipulated in Article 8 of these Regulations is not present, the organizers of the Congress shall decide to postpone the session and must reschedule the Congress within 30 days from the date of the decision to postpone the session.
2. A re-convened General Meeting of Shareholders shall be held when the number of shareholders and shareholder representatives present represents at least 33% of the voting shares. If the required number of representatives is not present at the second meeting, the General Meeting must be postponed and a third General Meeting of Shareholders must be convened within 20 days of the opening of the second meeting.
3. The third General Meeting of Shareholders, regardless of the number of shareholders or shareholder representatives in attendance, is valid and they have the right to decide on all matters intended for voting within the agenda sent to shareholders in previous meetings.

CHAPTER VI

ENFORCEMENT CLAUSES

Article 15. Effective Date

1. Shareholders or their authorized representatives and members attending the General Meeting must strictly comply with these Rules of Procedure.
2. These regulations shall take effect immediately upon being approved by the Company's General Meeting of Shareholders./.

INTRODUCTION

The charter governing the organization and operation of Nha Trang Textile & Garment Joint Stock Company serves as the legal basis for all of the Company's activities as a joint stock company, in accordance with the Enterprise Law, the Securities Law, and other relevant legal documents. This charter, along with resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders, resolutions of the Board of Directors, and other decisions issued by the Company, if approved in accordance with the law, will constitute the binding rules and regulations for conducting the Company's business operations.

These charters were adopted pursuant to Resolution No. 66/NQ-DMNT of the General Meeting of Shareholders March 20, 2026.

CHAPTER I

DEFINITION OF TERMS IN THE BYLAWS

Article 1: Explanation of Terms

In these Regulations, the following terms are understood as follows:

1. "Charter capital" is the total par value of shares sold or subscribed upon the company's establishment, as stipulated in Article 6 of these Charters.
2. "Voting capital" refers to share capital, whereby the owner has the right to vote on matters within the decision-making authority of the General Meeting of Shareholders;

CHAPTER IV

CHARTER CAPITAL, SHARES, FOUNDING SHAREHOLDERS

Article 6: Charter capital, shares, founding shareholders

1. The company's charter capital is stated on the Certificate of Business Registration issued by the competent business registration authority and changes periodically. The company's charter capital is VND 235,000,000,000 (In words: Two hundred and thirty-five billion Vietnamese Dong) .

The total charter capital of the Company is divided into 23,500,000 shares (Twenty-three million five hundred thousand shares), each share having a par value of 10,000

VND (Ten thousand Vietnamese Dong) .

2. The company may change its charter capital with the approval of the General Meeting of Shareholders and in accordance with the provisions of the law.
3. The Company's shares on the date of adoption of these Articles of Association include common shares and preferred shares (if any). The rights and obligations of shareholders holding each type of share are stipulated in Articles 12 and 13 of these Articles of Association.
4. The company may issue other types of preferred shares after obtaining the approval of the General Meeting of Shareholders and in accordance with the provisions of the law.
5. The company officially operates as a joint-stock company according to Business Registration Certificate No. 4200237973 issued by the competent business registration authority on August 8, 2006. Based on the provisions of the Enterprise Law, as of now, the common shares of the founding shareholders have exceeded the transfer restriction period.
6. Offering shares for sale.

A share offering is when a company increases the number of shares it is authorized to offer and sells those shares during its operation to increase its charter capital.

A share offering can be conducted in one of the following forms:

- a) Offering to existing shareholders;
- b) Offered to the public;
- c) Offering shares privately;
- d) Other forms may be decided by the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Common shares must be offered preferentially to existing shareholders in proportion to their shareholding in the Company, unless otherwise decided by the General Meeting of Shareholders. The number of shares not subscribed by shareholders will be decided by the Company's Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may distribute these shares to shareholders and other parties under conditions no more favorable than those offered to existing shareholders, unless otherwise approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders or provided for by securities law.

7. The Company may repurchase shares issued by itself in the manner prescribed in these Articles of Association and applicable law.
8. The company may issue other types of securities as prescribed by law.

Article 7: Stock Certificate

1. Shareholders of the Company are issued share certificates corresponding to the number and type of shares they own.
2. A stock is a type of security that confirms the legal rights and interests of the owner in a portion of the issuer's share capital. Stock certificates must contain the following information:

- a) Name, business registration number, and registered office address of the Company;
 - b) Number of shares and type of shares;
 - c) The par value of each share and the total par value of all shares stated on the share certificate;
 - d) The full name, contact address, nationality, and legal documents of individual shareholders; the name, business registration number or legal document number, and registered office address of organizational shareholders;
 - e) The signature of the legal representative and the company seal;
 - f) The registration number in the Company's shareholder register and the date of share issuance;
 - g) Other provisions as stipulated in Articles 116, 117 and 118 of the Enterprise Law regarding preferred stock shares.
3. Shareholders shall be issued share certificates within seven (07) days from the date VSDC notifies that it has received a complete application for transfer of share ownership in accordance with the law or within two (02) months from the date of full payment of the share purchase price as stipulated in the Company's share issuance plan (or other time as stipulated in the Issuance Terms). Shareholders shall not pay the Company the cost of printing share certificates.
4. In the event that a share certificate is lost, damaged, or otherwise destroyed, the shareholder shall be reissued a share certificate by the Company upon the shareholder's request. The shareholder's request must include the following information:
- a) Information regarding the stock certificate that has been lost, damaged, or otherwise destroyed;
 - b) We commit to taking responsibility for any disputes arising from the reissuance of new stock certificates.
5. In the event that the Company cancels its securities registration at VSDC, the Company shall reissue the share certificate to the shareholder within thirty (30) working days from the effective date of securities cancellation as notified by VSDC.

Article 8: Other securities certificates

Bond certificates or other securities certificates issued by the Company bear the signature of the legal representative and the seal of the Company.

Article 9: Transfer of Shares

- 1. All shares are freely transferable, except as stipulated in point c, clause 1, Article 12 of the Company's Charter which imposes restrictions on the transfer of shares.
- 2. The transfer can be carried out by contract in the usual manner or through transactions on the stock market. In the case of a contract transfer, the transfer documents must be signed by the transferor and the transferee or their authorized representatives. In the case of a transfer through a stock market transaction, the procedures and recording of ownership shall be carried out in accordance with the laws on securities and the stock market.

3. In the event that a shareholder who is an individual dies, the heir according to the will or by law of that shareholder becomes a shareholder of the Company.
4. In the event that a shareholder who is an individual dies without heirs, or the heirs refuse to accept the inheritance, or are disinherited, the shares will be handled according to the provisions of civil law.
5. Shareholders have the right to donate a portion or all of their shares in the Company to other individuals or organizations; or to use the shares to pay off debts. In this case, the individual or organization receiving the donated shares or receiving the shares as debt repayment will become a shareholder of the Company.
6. Individuals and organizations receiving shares in the cases stipulated in this Article shall only become shareholders of the Company from the time their information as stipulated in Clause 2, Article 122 of the current Enterprise Law is fully recorded in the shareholder register.
7. The company must register changes to shareholders in the shareholder register upon request from the relevant shareholder within 24 hours of receiving the request, as stipulated in the Company's Articles of Association.
8. Unpaid shares are not transferable and do not entitle the holder to related rights such as the right to receive dividends, the right to receive newly issued shares to increase share capital from equity, the right to purchase newly offered shares, and other rights as stipulated by law.

Article 10: Reclamation of Shares

1. In the event that a shareholder fails to pay the full amount due for the purchase of shares on time, the Board of Directors shall notify and have the right to demand that the shareholder pay the remaining amount and be liable for the Company's financial obligations arising from the failure to pay, corresponding to the total par value of the registered shares.
2. The aforementioned payment notice must clearly state the new payment deadline (at least seven (07) days from the date of sending the notice), the payment location, and the notice must clearly state that in case of non-payment as required, the remaining unpaid shares will be reclaimed.
3. The Board of Directors has the right to reclaim shares that have not been fully and timely paid for if the requirements in the aforementioned notice are not met.
4. Repurchased shares are considered shares authorized for sale as stipulated in Clause 3, Article 112 of the Enterprise Law. The Board of Directors may directly or authorize the sale and redistribution of these shares under conditions and in a manner that the Board of Directors deems appropriate.
5. Shareholders holding repurchased shares must relinquish their shareholder status with respect to those shares, but remain liable for the Company's financial obligations arising at the time of repurchase, as determined by the Board of Directors, from the date of repurchase until the date of payment, in proportion to the total par value of the shares they registered to purchase. The Board of Directors has the full authority to enforce payment of the full value of the shares at the time of repurchase.

6. The recall notice is sent to the holders of the recalled shares before the recall takes place. The recall remains valid even in the event of errors or negligence in sending the notice.

3. All resolutions and matters on the agenda must be discussed and voted on at the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Article 16: Authorization to attend the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. Shareholders, or authorized representatives of institutional shareholders, may attend meetings in person or authorize one or more other individuals or organizations to attend, or attend through one of the forms stipulated in Clause 6, Article 13 of these Charters, as specifically prescribed below:
 - a) For individual shareholders, only one (01) authorized representative may be authorized to attend the meeting. The authorized shareholder will not be allowed to attend the meeting even if they partially authorize the authorized representative.
 - b) For institutional shareholders, the authorization process is as follows:
 - Shareholders holding less than 10 % of the total number of common shares have the right to authorize a maximum of one (01) person to attend the General Meeting of Shareholders;

- Shareholders holding 10% or more of the total number of common shares have the right to authorize a maximum of two (0 2) people to attend the meeting.

If there is more than one authorized representative, the number of shares and votes authorized for each representative must be specifically determined. If the number of shares and votes for each authorized representative is not specifically determined, the shares and votes will be divided equally among the authorized representatives, and any fractional shares (if any) will be prioritized alphabetically by the name of the authorized representative.

2. The authorization for an individual or organization to represent a shareholder at the General Meeting of Shareholders, as stipulated in Clause 1 of this Article, must be in writing. The authorization document must be prepared in accordance with civil law and must clearly state the name of the authorizing shareholder, the name of the authorized individual or organization, the number of shares authorized, the content of the authorization, the scope of the authorization, the duration of the authorization, the signature, full name (handwritten), and seal (if an organization) of both the authorizing party and the authorized party. The authorized person attending the General Meeting of Shareholders must submit the authorization document when registering to attend the meeting.
3. The ballot/voting slip of an authorized representative attending the meeting within the scope of their authorization remains valid in the event of any of the following circumstances:
 - a) The grantor has died, is restricted in their legal capacity, or has lost their legal capacity;
 - b) The principal has revoked the designation of authorization;
 - c) The grantor has revoked the authority of the grantee.

This clause does not apply if the Company receives notice of any of the above events before the opening of the General Meeting of Shareholders or before the meeting is reconvened. Article 17: Changes to Rights

1. Changes to or cancellations of special rights associated with a preferred stock take effect when approved by shareholders representing 65% or more of the total voting rights of all shareholders present at the meeting.
2. A resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders concerning matters that adversely affect the rights and obligations of shareholders holding preferred shares shall only be adopted if it is approved by preferred shareholders of the same class present at the meeting, holding at least 75% of the total number of preferred shares of that class, or if approved by preferred shareholders of the same class holding at least 75% of the total number of preferred shares of that class in the case of a resolution adopted by written ballot.
3. The holding of a meeting of shareholders holding a class of preferred shares to approve the aforementioned change of rights is only valid when there are at least two

(02) shareholders (or their authorized representatives) and holding at least 1/3 of the par value of the issued shares of that class. If there are not enough representatives as stated above, the meeting shall be held again within the next thirty (30) days and those holding shares of that class (regardless of the number of people and shares) present in person or through authorized representatives shall be considered to have met the required number of representatives. At the meetings of shareholders holding the aforementioned preferred shares, those holding shares of that class present in person or through representatives may request a secret ballot. Each share of the same class has equal voting rights at the aforementioned meetings.

4. The procedures for conducting such separate meetings are carried out in accordance with the provisions of Articles 19, 20 and 21 of these Regulations.
5. Unless otherwise stipulated in the terms of the share issuance, the special rights associated with preferred shares concerning some or all matters relating to the distribution of the Company's profits or assets remain unchanged when the Company issues additional shares of the same class.

Article 18: Convening the meeting, meeting agenda, and notice of invitation to the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. The Board of Directors convenes an annual or extraordinary general meeting of shareholders. The Board of Directors may also convene an extraordinary general meeting of shareholders in the cases stipulated in Clause 3, Article 14 of these Charters.
2. The person convening the General Meeting of Shareholders must perform the following tasks:
 - a) Prepare a list of shareholders eligible to attend and vote/elect at the General Meeting of Shareholders. The list of shareholders entitled to attend the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be prepared no more than ten (10) days before the date of sending the notice of invitation to the General Meeting of Shareholders. The Company must disclose information about the preparation of the list of shareholders entitled to attend the General Meeting of Shareholders at least twenty (20) days before the last registration date.
 - b) Prepare the program and content for the congress;
 - c) Prepare documents for the conference;
 - d) Draft resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders according to the planned agenda of the meeting; list and detailed information of candidates in case of election of members of the Board of Directors and Supervisory Board;
 - e) Determine the time and location for holding the congress;
 - f) Notify and send notices of the General Meeting of Shareholders to all shareholders entitled to attend the meeting;
 - g) Other tasks in preparation for the Congress.
3. The notice of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be sent to all shareholders by means that ensure it reaches the shareholders' contact addresses, and shall also be published on the Company's website and the State Securities Commission, and the stock exchange where the Company's shares are registered for trading. The convenor of the General Meeting of Shareholders must send the notice of the meeting to all shareholders on the List of Shareholders entitled to attend the meeting no later than twenty-one (21) days before the opening date of the meeting (calculated from the date the notice is duly sent or transmitted). The agenda of the General Meeting of Shareholders, and documents related to the issues to be voted on at the meeting shall be sent to shareholders and/or posted on the Company's website. In case the documents are not sent with the notice of the General Meeting of Shareholders, the notice of the meeting must clearly state the link to all meeting documents so that shareholders can access them, including:

- a) Meeting agenda, documents to be used in the meeting;
 - b) List and details of candidates in the case of electing members of the Board of Directors and members of the Supervisory Board;
 - c) Voting/election ballot;
 - d) Draft resolutions for each item on the meeting agenda.
4. Shareholders or groups of shareholders as stipulated in Clause 2, Article 12 of this Charter have the right to propose issues to be included in the agenda of the General Meeting of Shareholders. Proposals must be in writing and must be sent to the Company no later than five (05) working days before the opening date of the meeting. Proposals must clearly state the name of the shareholder, the number of each type of share held by the shareholder, contact address, nationality, Citizen Identity Card number, Passport number or other legally valid personal identification for individual shareholders; name, enterprise code or establishment decision number, head office address for organizational shareholders; the number and type of shares held by that shareholder, and The issue should be included on the meeting agenda.
5. The person convening the General Meeting of Shareholders has the right to reject the proposal stipulated in Clause 4 of this Article if it falls under one of the following cases:
- a) The petition was submitted in violation of the provisions of Clause 4 of this Article;
 - b) At the time of the proposal, the shareholder or group of shareholders did not hold at least 5% of the common shares as stipulated in Clause 2, Article 12 of these Charters;
 - c) The issue raised in this proposal falls outside the scope of authority of the General Meeting of Shareholders.
 - d) Other cases as prescribed by law and these Regulations.
6. The person convening the General Meeting of Shareholders must accept and include the proposal stipulated in Clause 4 of this Article in the proposed agenda and content of the meeting, except as provided in Clause 5 of this Article; the proposal shall be officially added to the agenda and content of the meeting if approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Article 19: Conditions for holding a General Meeting of Shareholders

1. A general meeting of shareholders is considered valid when the number of shareholders present represents more than 50% of the total voting rights.
2. If the first meeting does not meet the quorum requirements as stipulated in Clause 1 of this Article, a notice of the second meeting shall be sent within thirty (30) days from the date of the first planned meeting. The second General Meeting of Shareholders shall be held when the number of shareholders attending the meeting represents 33% or more of the total voting rights.
3. If the second meeting does not meet the quorum requirements as stipulated in Clause 2 of this Article, the notice of the third meeting must be sent within thirty (30) days from the date of the planned second meeting. The third General Meeting of Shareholders shall be held regardless of the total number of voting shares of the shareholders present.

Article 20: Procedures for conducting meetings and voting at the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. Before the meeting commences, the Company must conduct shareholder registration and continue the registration process until all shareholders entitled to attend the meeting have registered, following this procedure:
 - a) When registering shareholders, the Company issues each shareholder or authorized representative a voting card/voting slip/election ballot, which includes the registration number, the shareholder's full name, the authorized representative's full name, and the number of votes/election ballots for that shareholder. The General Meeting of Shareholders discusses and votes on each item on the agenda. Voting is conducted by vote in favor, against, or abstention. The results of the vote count are announced by the Chairman/Vote Counting Committee immediately before the closing of the meeting. The General Meeting elects those responsible for counting or supervising the vote count as proposed by the Chairman. The number of members of the Vote Counting Committee is decided by the General Meeting of Shareholders based on the proposal of the Chairman of the meeting;
 - b) Shareholders, authorized representatives of institutional shareholders, or authorized persons arriving after the meeting has commenced have the right to register immediately and subsequently participate in and vote/elect at the meeting immediately after registration. The chairperson is not obligated to stop the meeting to allow late-arriving shareholders to register, and the validity of any previously voted/elected items remains unchanged.
2. The election of the chairperson, secretary, shareholder/delegate eligibility verification committee, and vote counting committee is regulated as follows:
 - a) The Chairman of the Board of Directors presides over or authorizes another member of the Board of Directors to preside over the General Meeting of Shareholders convened by the Board of Directors. If the Chairman is absent or temporarily incapacitated, the remaining members of the Board of Directors shall elect one of them to preside over the meeting by majority vote. If no one can be elected to preside, the Head of the Supervisory Board shall direct the General Meeting of Shareholders to elect a presiding officer from among those present, with the candidate receiving the highest number of votes becoming the presiding officer.

- b) Except as provided in point a of this clause, the signatory convening the General Meeting of Shareholders shall preside over the meeting so that the General Meeting of Shareholders can elect the chairman of the meeting, and the person with the highest number of votes shall be the chairman of the meeting;
 - c) The chairperson appoints one or more people to act as meeting secretaries; the person convening the General Meeting of Shareholders appoints one or more people to serve as the Committee for verifying the eligibility of shareholders/delegates for the meeting;
 - d) The general meeting of shareholders elects one or more people to the vote counting committee upon the recommendation of the meeting chairman.
3. The agenda and content of the meeting must be approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders at the opening session. The agenda must clearly and specifically define the time allocated to each item on the agenda.
4. The chairperson of the meeting has the right to take necessary and reasonable measures to conduct the General Meeting of Shareholders in an orderly manner, in accordance with the approved agenda, and reflecting the wishes of the majority (more than ½) of the attendees.
- a) Arrangement of seating at the Shareholders' General Meeting venue;
 - b) Ensure the safety of everyone present at the meeting venues;
 - c) To facilitate shareholder attendance (or continued attendance) at the general meeting, the convener of the General Meeting of Shareholders has the full right to modify the aforementioned measures and apply all necessary measures. These measures may include issuing entry passes or using other selection methods.
5. The General Meeting of Shareholders discusses and votes on each item on the agenda. Voting is conducted by vote in favor, against, or abstention. The results of the vote count are announced by the chairman immediately before the meeting adjourns.
6. Shareholders or their authorized representatives who arrive after the meeting has commenced are still registered and have the right to participate in voting immediately after registration; in this case, the validity of any previously voted-on items remains unchanged.
7. The person convening or presiding over the General Meeting of Shareholders has the following rights:

- a) Require all meeting attendees to undergo security checks or other lawful and reasonable security measures;
 - b) Request the competent authority to maintain order at the meeting; expel those who do not comply with the chairman's authority, intentionally disrupt order, hinder the normal progress of the meeting, or fail to comply with security checks from the General Shareholders' Meeting.
8. The Chairperson has the right to postpone the General Meeting of Shareholders that has reached the maximum number of registered attendees for no more than three (03) working days from the date the meeting is scheduled to commence and may only postpone the meeting or change the meeting place in the following cases:
- a) The meeting venue did not have enough comfortable seating for all attendees.
 - b) The communication facilities at the meeting venue do not guarantee that shareholders attending the meeting can participate, discuss, and vote;
 - c) Some attendees obstructed the meeting, disrupted order, and risked preventing the meeting from being conducted fairly and legally.
9. If the chairperson postpones or suspends the General Meeting of Shareholders in violation of the provisions of Clause 8 of this Article, the General Meeting of Shareholders shall elect another person from among the attendees to replace the chairperson and conduct the meeting until its conclusion; all resolutions passed at that meeting shall be effective and enforceable.
10. In cases where the Company applies modern technology to organize the General Meeting of Shareholders through online meetings, the Company is responsible for ensuring that shareholders can attend and vote by electronic ballot or other electronic means as prescribed in Article 144 of the Enterprise Law and Clause 3, Article 273 of Government Decree No. 155/2020/ND-CP dated December 31, 2020, detailing the implementation of a number of articles of the Securities Law.

Article 21: Conditions for the adoption of a resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. Resolutions on the following matters shall be adopted if approved by shareholders representing 65% or more of the total voting rights of all shareholders present at the meeting, except as provided in Clauses 3, 4 and 5 of this Article:
- a) Types of shares and the total number of shares of each type;
 - b) Changes in industry, occupation, and business sector;
 - c) Changes to the company's organizational and management structure;
 - d) An investment project or sale of assets with a value of 35% or more of the total asset value recorded in the Company's most recent financial statement;
 - e) Reorganize or dissolve the company;
 - f) The modification or cancellation of special rights associated with a preferred stock.

2. Resolutions are adopted when approved by shareholders holding more than 50% of the total voting rights of all shareholders present and voting , except as provided in Clause 1 of this Article and Clauses 3, 4 and 5 of this Article.
3. The voting for members of the Board of Directors and the Supervisory Board must be conducted using the cumulative voting method, whereby each shareholder has a total number of votes corresponding to the total number of shares owned multiplied by the number of members to be elected to the Board of Directors or the Supervisory Board, and shareholders have the right to allocate all or part of their total votes to one or more candidates. The elected members of the Board of Directors or Supervisory Board are determined by the number of votes received, from highest to lowest, starting with the candidate with the highest number of votes until the number of members stipulated in the Company's Charter is reached. In the event that two (02) or more candidates receive the same number of votes for the last member of the Board of Directors or the Supervisory Board, a re-election will be held among the candidates with the equal number of votes or a selection will be made according to the criteria stipulated in the election regulations or the Company's Charter .

Please note that in the case of electing members of the Board of Directors and the Supervisory Board, if the number of candidates is less than or equal to the number of members to be elected to the Board of Directors/Supervisory Board, the election of members of the Board of Directors/Supervisory Board may be conducted by cumulative voting as described above or by voting (approve, disapprove, abstain). The percentage of votes cast by voting shall be determined according to Clause 2, Article 21 of the Company's Charter.

4. In cases where a resolution is adopted through written consultation, the resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders is considered adopted if it is approved by shareholders holding more than 50% of the total voting rights of all shareholders entitled to vote.
5. A resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders concerning matters that adversely affect the rights and obligations of shareholders holding preferred shares shall only be adopted if it is approved by preferred shareholders of the same class present at the meeting, holding at least 75% of the total number of preferred shares of that class, or if approved by preferred shareholders of the same class holding at least 75% of the total number of preferred shares of that class in the case of a resolution adopted by written ballot.
6. Resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders must be notified to shareholders entitled to attend the General Meeting of Shareholders within 15 days of the date of adoption; if the company has a website, sending the resolution may be replaced by posting it on the company's website.
7. Resolutions passed by 100% of the total voting shares at the General Meeting of Shareholders are legal and effective even if the procedures for convening the meeting and passing the resolution violate the provisions of the Enterprise Law and the Company's Articles of Association.

Article 22: Authority and procedures for obtaining shareholder opinions in writing to approve resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders

The authority and procedures for obtaining shareholder opinions in writing to approve resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders are carried out according to the following regulations:

1. The Board of Directors has the right to solicit shareholder opinions in writing to pass resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders on the following matters:

 - h) Full name and signature of the Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Company.
4. Shareholders may submit their completed opinion ballots to the Company by mail, fax, or email using the information registered with the Vietnam Securities Depository and Clearing Corporation, as stipulated below:
- a) In the case of mailing, the answered opinion ballot must be signed by the individual shareholder, the authorized representative, or the legal representative of the organizational shareholder. Opinion ballots sent to the Company must be enclosed in a sealed envelope, and no one is allowed to open it before the ballots are counted;
 - b) In the case of sending ballots by fax or email, the ballots sent to the Company must be kept confidential until the time of vote counting;
 - c) Opinion ballots submitted to the Company after the deadline specified in the ballot itself, or that have been opened (in the case of mail submissions) or disclosed (in the case of fax or email submissions), are invalid. Unsubmitted ballots will be considered as non-voting ballots.
5. The Board of Directors shall organize the vote counting and prepare the vote counting report in the presence of the Supervisory Board or shareholders who do not hold management positions in the Company. The vote counting report must include the following main contents:
- a) Name, registered office address, business registration number;
 - b) The purpose and issues requiring consultation for the resolution's adoption;
 - c) The number of shareholders with the total number of votes/elections cast, distinguishing between valid and invalid votes/elections, and the method of submitting the votes/election ballots, along with an appendix listing the shareholders who participated in the voting/election;
 - d) The total number of votes in favor, against, and abstentions on each issue, and the total number of votes cast for each candidate (if any);
 - e) The issue has been approved , and the voting percentage in favor is as follows ;
 - f) The full name and signature of the Chairman of the Board of Directors, the vote counter, and the vote counting supervisor.

Board members, vote counters, and vote supervisors shall be jointly liable for the integrity and accuracy of the vote count record; and jointly liable for any damages arising from decisions made due to dishonest or inaccurate vote counting.

6. The vote count minutes and resolution must be sent to shareholders within fifteen (15) days from the date of the end of the vote count. Sending the vote count minutes and resolution may be replaced by posting them on the Company's website within 24 hours from the time of the end of the vote count.
7. The completed survey forms, vote counting records, adopted resolutions, and related documents accompanying the survey forms must all be kept at the Company's head office.
8. A resolution is adopted by written shareholder consultation if it is approved by shareholders holding more than 50% of the total voting rights of all shareholders entitled to vote, and it has the same validity as a resolution adopted at the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Article 23: Resolutions and Minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. The General Meeting of Shareholders must be recorded in minutes and may be audio-recorded or recorded and stored in other electronic forms. The minutes must be written in Vietnamese, and may also be written in a foreign language, and must include the following main contents:

 - g) The total number of votes cast for each voting issue, specifying the voting method, the total number of valid, invalid, affirmative, and abstention votes; the corresponding percentage of the total votes cast by shareholders present at the meeting; and the corresponding percentage of the total votes cast by shareholders who attended and voted.
 - h) Summarize the number of votes for each candidate (if applicable);
 - i) The issues were approved and the corresponding percentage of votes were cast in favor;
 - j) The full name and signature of the chairperson and secretary. If the chairperson or secretary refuses to sign the meeting minutes, these minutes shall be valid only if signed by all other members of the Board of Directors present at the meeting and containing all the information as stipulated in this clause. The meeting minutes shall clearly state the chairperson's or secretary's refusal to sign.

2. The minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders must be prepared and approved before the meeting concludes. The chairperson and secretary of the meeting, or any other person signing the minutes, shall be jointly responsible for the truthfulness and accuracy of the minutes' contents.
3. Minutes prepared in both Vietnamese and foreign languages have equal legal validity. In case of discrepancies in content between the Vietnamese and foreign-language minutes, the content in the Vietnamese version shall prevail.
4. Resolutions, minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders, appendix listing registered shareholders, proxies for attending the meeting, all documents attached to the minutes (if any), and related documents accompanying the meeting invitation notice must be kept at the Company's head office.
5. Resolutions, minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders, and accompanying documents must be disclosed in accordance with the law on information disclosure in the securities market.

Article 24: Request for annulment of a Shareholders' General Meeting Resolution

Within ninety (90) days from the date of receipt of the decision or minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders or the minutes of the results of the vote count of the General Meeting of Shareholders, the shareholder or group of shareholders specified in Clause 2, Article 12 of this Charter has the right to request the Court or Arbitration to review and annul the resolution or part of the content of the resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders in the following cases:

1. The sequence and procedures for convening meetings or obtaining shareholder opinions in writing and making decisions by the General Meeting of Shareholders seriously violate the provisions of the Enterprise Law and these Charters, except as provided in Clause 7, Article 21 of these Charters.
2. The resolution's content violates the law or the Company's Articles of Association.

In the event that a shareholder or group of shareholders requests the Court or Arbitration Tribunal to annul a resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders as stipulated in Article 151 of the Enterprise Law, that resolution shall remain in effect until the decision of the Court or Arbitration Tribunal takes effect, except in cases where interim measures are applied by a competent authority.

CHAPTER VII

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Article 25: Nomination and candidacy of Board members

1. In the event that candidates for the Board of Directors have been identified, the Company must publish information related to the candidates at least ten (10) days before the opening date of the General Meeting of Shareholders on the Company's website so that shareholders can learn about these candidates before voting. Candidates for the Board of Directors must provide a written commitment regarding the truthfulness and accuracy of the personal information published and must commit to performing their duties honestly, diligently, and in the best interests of the Company if elected as a member of the Board of Directors. Information related to candidates for the Board of Directors that is published includes:

- a) Full name, date of birth (day, month, year);
- b) Professional qualifications;
- c) Work experience;
- d) Other managerial positions (including board positions in other companies);
- e) The benefits relate to the Company and its related parties;
- f) Other information as required by law (if any).

The company is responsible for disclosing information about the companies in which the candidate holds positions as a member of the Board of Directors, other management positions, and any related interests of the candidate in the Board of Directors (if any).

2. Shareholders or groups of shareholders owning 10% or more of the total number of common shares have the right to nominate candidates for the Board of Directors in accordance with the Law on Enterprises and the Company's Articles of Association. Shareholders holding common stock have the right to pool their voting rights to nominate candidates for the Board of Directors. Shareholders or groups of shareholders holding:

- a) From 10% to less than 30%, 01 (one) candidate is nominated;
- b) From 30% to under 50%, a maximum of 02 (two) candidates can be nominated;
- c) From 50% to under 70%, a maximum of 03 (three) candidates can be nominated;
- d) From 70% or more, a maximum of 04 (four) candidates can be nominated .

The nomination and election of Board of Directors members are regulated in detail in the Internal Regulations on Corporate Governance .

3. If the number of candidates for the Board of Directors nominated and elected as stipulated in Clause 5, Article 115 of the Enterprise Law is still insufficient, the incumbent Board of Directors shall nominate additional candidates in accordance with the Company Charter, the Internal Regulations on Corporate Governance, and the Operating Regulations of the Board of Directors. The incumbent Board of Directors' nomination of additional candidates must be clearly announced before the General Meeting of Shareholders votes to elect members of the Board of Directors as prescribed by law.
4. In the event that the number of candidates nominated by the incumbent Board of Directors under Clause 3 of this Article is still insufficient, the Board of Directors shall announce the information that the number of Board of Directors candidates is insufficient within five (05) working days before the opening of the General Meeting of Shareholders. The Board of Directors shall organize for other shareholders to nominate candidates in accordance with the Company Charter, the Internal Regulations on Corporate Governance and the Operating Regulations of the Board of Directors. The fact that the incumbent Board of Directors organizes for other shareholders to nominate additional candidates must be clearly announced before the General Meeting of Shareholders votes to elect members of the Board of Directors in accordance with the law.

5. Members of the Board of Directors must meet the following standards and conditions:
 - a) Not subject to the provisions of Clause 2, Article 17 of the Enterprise Law ;
 - b) They must have professional qualifications and experience in business administration or in the company's field, industry, or profession, and do not necessarily have to be shareholders of the company;
 - c) A member of the company's Board of Directors may only be a member of the Board of Directors or Board of Members at a maximum of five (05) other companies .

Article 26: Composition and term of office of the Board of Directors members:

1. The number of Board of Directors members is five (05) people.
2. The term of office of a Board of Directors member shall not exceed five (05) years and may be re-elected for an unlimited number of terms. In the event that all Board of Directors members complete their term at the same time, those members shall continue to be members of the Board of Directors until new members are elected to replace them and take over the work.
3. The company's Board of Directors structure must ensure that at least one (01) Board of Directors member is a non-executive member. The company minimizes the number of Board of Directors members holding executive positions in the company to ensure the independence of the Board of Directors.
4. A member of the Board of Directors loses their status as a member of the Board of Directors if they are dismissed, removed, or replaced by the General Meeting of Shareholders in accordance with Article 160 of the Enterprise Law.
 - a) Board members are not entitled to attend or vote at Board meetings and are not entitled to receive remuneration as a Board member in any of the following cases:
 - The company has received notification that a member of the Board of Directors has limited legal capacity, has lost legal capacity, or has difficulties in understanding and controlling their behavior;
 - The company has received notification that a member of the Board of Directors is under criminal investigation, detained, serving a prison sentence, undergoing administrative sanctions at a compulsory rehabilitation center or compulsory education facility, or is prohibited by a court from holding office, practicing a profession, or engaging in certain work;
 - The Board of Directors has decided to accept the resignation/resignation of a Board Member in accordance with Article 9 of the Board of Directors' Operating Regulations.

- b) Board members continue to perform all their duties until the General Meeting of Shareholders approves their dismissal.
- 5. The appointment of Board members must be disclosed in accordance with the regulations of the law on securities and the securities market.
- 6. Members of the Board of Directors do not necessarily have to be shareholders of the Company.
- 7. The Board of Directors must convene a General Meeting of Shareholders to elect additional members to the Board of Directors in the following cases:
 - a) the number of members of the Board of Directors is reduced by more than one-third compared to the number stipulated in the Company's Charter, the Board of Directors must convene a General Meeting of Shareholders within sixty (60) days from the date the number of members is reduced by more than one-third (1/3) ;
 - b) Except as provided in point a of this clause, the General Meeting of Shareholders shall elect new members to replace members of the Board of Directors who have been dismissed or removed from office at the most recent meeting.

Article 27: Powers and obligations of the Board of Directors:

- 1. The Board of Directors is the governing body of the Company, having full authority to act on behalf of the Company to decide and exercise the rights and obligations of the Company, except for those rights and obligations that fall under the authority of the General Meeting of Shareholders.
- 2. The rights and obligations of the Board of Directors are stipulated by law, the Company's Articles of Association, and the General Meeting of Shareholders. Specifically, the Board of Directors has the following rights and obligations:
 - a) The company's strategic decisions, medium-term development plans, and annual business plans;
 - b) Propose the types of shares and the total number of shares authorized for sale for each type;
 - c) Decisions to sell unsold shares within the permitted number of shares for each class; decisions to raise additional capital through other means;
 - d) Deciding on the selling price of the Company's shares and bonds;
 - e) The decision to repurchase shares is governed by Clauses 1 and 2 of Article 133 of the Enterprise Law;
 - f) Decisions on investment options and investment projects with a value less than 35 % of the total asset value of the Company as recorded in the Company's most recent financial statement;

- g) Making strategic decisions regarding market development, marketing, and technology;

2. In cases where an authorized representative of a shareholder or group of shareholders requests a search of books and records, they must include a power of attorney from the shareholder or group of shareholders they represent, or a notarized copy of such power of attorney.
3. Members of the Board of Directors, members of the Supervisory Board, the General Director, and other executives have the right to access the Company's shareholder register, shareholder list, and other books and records of the Company for purposes related to their positions, provided that such information is kept confidential.
4. The company must keep these Articles of Association and any amendments to them, the Certificate of Business Registration, regulations, documents proving ownership of assets, resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders and the Board of Directors, minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders and the Board of Directors, reports of the Board of Directors, reports of the Supervisory Board, annual financial statements, accounting books and other documents as prescribed by law at its head office or another location provided that the shareholders and the Business Registration Authority are notified of the location where these documents are stored.
5. The company's charter must be published on the company's website.

CHAPTER XII

WORKERS AND UNIONS

Article 45: Workers and trade unions

1. The General Director must develop a plan for the Board of Directors to approve matters related to recruitment, termination of employment, salaries, social insurance, benefits, rewards, and disciplinary actions for employees and business executives.

2. The General Director shall develop a plan for the Board of Directors to approve matters relating to the Company's relationship with trade unions in accordance with best management standards, practices and policies, the practices and policies stipulated in this Charter, the Company's regulations and applicable laws.

CHAPTER XIII

PROFIT DISTRIBUTION

Article 46: Profit Distribution

1. The General Meeting of Shareholders decides on the dividend payout rate and the form of annual dividend payment from the Company's retained earnings.
2. The Board of Directors may decide to pay an interim dividend, as authorized by the General Meeting of Shareholders, if it deems such payment appropriate given the company's profitability.
3. The company does not pay interest on dividend payments or payments related to a particular stock.
4. The Board of Directors may propose to the General Meeting of Shareholders the approval of the payment of all or part of the dividend in shares, and the Board of Directors is the body responsible for implementing this decision.
5. In the event that dividends or other payments related to a stock are paid in cash, the Company must make the payment in Vietnamese Dong. Payment may be made directly or through banks based on the bank account details provided by the shareholder. If the Company has transferred the funds according to the bank details provided by the shareholder but the shareholder does not receive the money, the Company is not liable for the amount transferred to that shareholder. Dividend payments for shares listed on the stock exchange may be made through a securities company or the Vietnam Securities Depository and Clearing Corporation.
6. Based on the Enterprise Law and the Securities Law, the Board of Directors passes a resolution or decision to determine a specific date for closing the shareholder list. Based on that date, those registered as shareholders or holders of other securities are entitled to receive dividends in cash or shares, and to receive notices or other documents.
7. Other matters related to profit distribution are handled in accordance with the law.

CHAPTER XIV

BANK ACCOUNTS, FISCAL YEAR AND ACCOUNTING SYSTEM

Article 47: Bank Accounts

1. The company opens accounts at Vietnamese banks or at branches of foreign banks licensed to operate in Vietnam.
2. With prior approval from the competent authority, the Company may, if necessary, open bank accounts overseas in accordance with the law.
3. The company may conduct payments and accounting transactions through Vietnamese Dong or foreign currency accounts at the banks where the company has opened accounts.

Article 48: Fiscal Year

The Company's fiscal year begins on the first day of January each year and ends on the 31st day of December of the same year. The first fiscal year begins on the date of issuance of the Business Registration Certificate and ends on the 31st day of December of the year immediately following the date of issuance of that Business Registration Certificate.

Article 49: Accounting System

1. The accounting system used by the Company is either the standard corporate accounting system or a specific accounting system issued and approved by the competent authority.
2. The company maintains its accounting records in Vietnamese. The company keeps accounting records in accordance with accounting laws and related legislation. These records must be accurate, up-to-date, systematic, and sufficient to substantiate and explain the company's transactions.
3. The company uses the Vietnamese Dong as its accounting currency. If the company's economic transactions are primarily conducted in a foreign currency, it may choose that foreign currency as its accounting currency, is legally responsible for that choice, and must notify the relevant tax authority.

CHAPTER XV

FINANCIAL REPORTS, ANNUAL REPORTS AND DISCLOSURE RESPONSIBILITIES

Article 50: Annual, semi-annual, and quarterly financial reports

1. The company must prepare annual financial statements, and these statements must be audited in accordance with the law. The company must publish the audited annual financial statements in accordance with the law on information disclosure in the securities market and submit them to the competent state authority.
2. Annual financial statements must include all reports, appendices, and explanatory notes as required by law on corporate accounting. Annual financial statements must truthfully and objectively reflect the company's operational situation.
3. The company must prepare and publish audited semi-annual financial statements and quarterly financial statements in accordance with the law on information disclosure in the securities market and submit them to the competent state authority.

Article 51: Annual Report

The company must prepare and publish an Annual Report in accordance with the laws and regulations on securities and the securities market.

CHAPTER XVI

COMPANY AUDIT

Article 52: Auditing

1. The General Meeting of Shareholders appoints an independent auditing firm or approves a list of independent auditing firms and authorizes the Board of Directors to decide on the selection of one of these firms to audit the Company's financial statements for the following fiscal year based on the terms and conditions agreed upon with the Board of Directors.
2. The audit report is attached to the Company's annual financial statements.
3. Independent auditors conducting the audit of the Company's financial statements are entitled to attend Shareholders' General Meetings, receive notices and other information related to the Shareholders' General Meetings, and express their opinions at the meeting on matters related to the audit of the Company's financial statements.

CHAPTER XVII

COMPANY SEAL

Article 53: Business Seal

1. The seal includes seals made at seal-making establishments or seals in the form of digital signatures as prescribed by law on electronic transactions.
2. The Board of Directors decides on the type, quantity, form, and content of the seals of the Company, its branches, and representative offices (if any).
3. The Board of Directors and the General Director shall use and manage the seal in accordance with current laws and regulations.

CHAPTER XVIII

DISSOLVE THE COMPANY

Article 54: Dissolution of the Company

1. A company may be dissolved in the following circumstances:
 - a) According to the resolution and decision of the General Meeting of Shareholders;
 - b) The business registration certificate is revoked, except where the Law on Tax Administration provides otherwise;
 - c) Other cases as prescribed by law.
2. The premature dissolution of the Company (including any extended term) is decided by the General Meeting of Shareholders and implemented by the Board of Directors. This dissolution decision must be notified to or approved by the competent authority (if required) as prescribed by law.

Article 55: Liquidation

1. After the decision to dissolve the Company is made, the Board of Directors must establish a Liquidation Committee consisting of three (03) members, of which two (02) members are appointed by the General Meeting of Shareholders and one (01) member is appointed by the Board of Directors from an independent auditing firm.

The Liquidation Committee shall prepare its operating regulations. Members of the Liquidation Committee may be selected from among the Company's employees or independent experts. All costs related to the liquidation shall be paid by the Company before other debts of the Company.

2. The Liquidation Committee is responsible for reporting the date of establishment and the date of commencement of operations to the business registration authority. From that point onwards, the Liquidation Committee acts on behalf of the Company in all matters related to the Company's liquidation before the Courts and administrative agencies.
3. The proceeds from the liquidation will be paid out in the following order:
 - a) Liquidation costs;
 - b) Wage arrears, severance pay, social insurance, and other employee benefits as stipulated in collective bargaining agreements and signed employment contracts;
 - c) Tax debt;
 - d) Other liabilities of the Company;
 - e) The remaining amount after all debts from items (a) to (d) above have been paid is distributed to the shareholders. Preferred shares are given priority in payment.

CHAPTER XIX

RESOLVING INTERNAL DISPUTES

Article 56: Resolution of Internal Disputes

1. In the event of any disputes or claims arising relating to the Company's operations or to the rights and obligations of shareholders as stipulated in the Company's Articles of Association, the Enterprise Law, other legal regulations, or agreements between:
 - a) Shareholders and the Company;
 - b) Shareholders, along with the Board of Directors, Supervisory Board, General Director, or other executives.

The parties concerned shall attempt to resolve the dispute through negotiation and conciliation . Except in cases where the dispute involves the Board of Directors or the Chairman of the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors shall preside over the dispute resolution and request each party to present information related to the dispute within thirty (30) working days from the date the dispute arises. In cases where the dispute involves the Board of Directors or the Chairman of the Board of Directors, any party may request the Head of the Supervisory Board to appoint an (01) independent expert to act as a conciliator in the dispute resolution process.

2. If no conciliation agreement is reached within six (06) weeks from the start of the conciliation process or if the conciliation decision is not accepted by the parties, a party may submit the dispute to arbitration or a competent court.
3. Each party bears its own costs related to the negotiation and mediation process.

Payment of arbitration or court costs is made according to the award of the arbitration or court.

CHAPTER XX

SUPPLEMENTS AND AMENDMENTS TO THE STATUTES

Article 57: Company Charter

1. Any amendments or additions to these Charters must be considered and decided upon by the General Meeting of Shareholders.
2. In cases where the law provides provisions relating to the Company's operations that are not mentioned in these Charters, or where new legal provisions differ from the provisions in these Charters, those provisions shall apply to govern the Company's operations.

CHAPTER XXI

EFFECTIVE DATE

Article 58: Effective Date

1. This Charter, comprising 21 chapters and 58 articles, was unanimously approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders of Nha Trang Textile & Garment Joint Stock Company on March 20, 2026, and they all agreed to the full validity of this Charter.
2. The charter is drawn up in ten (10) copies, all having equal legal validity and must be kept at the Company's head office.
3. These bylaws are the sole and official document of the Company.
4. Copies or extracts of the Company's Articles of Association are valid when signed by the Chairman of the Board of Directors or by at least one-half (1/2) of the total number of members of the Board of Directors.

Chapter II : The General Meeting of Shareholders

I. REGULATIONS FOR SHAREHOLDER MEETINGS TO ADOPT RESOLUTIONS BY VOTING AT THE MEETING (IN-PERSON, ONLINE, MIXED-ON-IN-PERSON) SECTION 1 : GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 3. The role, rights, and responsibilities of the General Meeting of Shareholders.

The roles, rights, and obligations of the General Meeting of Shareholders are stipulated in Article 138 of the Enterprise Law No. 59/2020/QH14, the Securities Law No. 54/2019/QH14, and Articles 14 and 15 of the Company's Charter.

Article 4. Authority to convene the General Meeting of Shareholders

(Based on the provisions of Article 140 of the Enterprise Law and Article 14 of the company's charter)

1. The Board of Directors convenes annual and extraordinary general meetings of shareholders. The Board of Directors convenes an extraordinary general meeting of shareholders in the following cases:
 - a. The board of directors deems it necessary for the benefit of the company;
 - b. The number of remaining members of the Board of Directors and the Supervisory Board is less than the minimum number of members required by law;
 - c. Upon the request of a shareholder or group of shareholders as stipulated in Clauses 2 and 3 of Article 12 of the Company's Charter, the request to convene a General Meeting of Shareholders must be in writing, clearly stating the reason and purpose of the meeting, and bearing the signatures of all relevant shareholders. Alternatively, the request may be made in multiple copies and include the signatures of all relevant shareholders.
 - d. As requested by the Supervisory Board;
 - e. Other cases as prescribed by law and the Company's Articles of Association.
2. The Board of Directors must determine the opening date of the General Meeting of Shareholders within sixty (60) working days from the date the number of remaining members of the Board of Directors or Supervisors as prescribed in point b, clause 1 of this Article or receive the request prescribed in points c and d, clause 1 of this Article;
3. If the Board of Directors fails to convene a General Meeting of Shareholders as prescribed in Clause 2 of this Article, then within the next thirty (30) days, the Supervisory Board must replace the Board of Directors in convening a General Meeting of Shareholders as prescribed in Clause 3 of Article 140 of the Enterprise Law;

4. If the Supervisory Board fails to convene a General Meeting of Shareholders as prescribed in Clause 3 of this Article, the shareholder or group of shareholders specified in Point c, Clause 1 of this Article has the right to request the Company's representative to convene a General Meeting of Shareholders in accordance with the Law on Enterprises.

In this case, the shareholder or group of shareholders convening the General Meeting of Shareholders may request the Business Registration Authority to supervise the procedures for convening, conducting the meeting, and making decisions of the General Meeting of Shareholders. All costs for convening and conducting the General Meeting of Shareholders will be reimbursed by the Company. This does not include expenses incurred by shareholders when attending the General Meeting of Shareholders, including accommodation and travel expenses.

5. Members of the Board of Directors and members of the Supervisory Board must attend the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders to answer shareholder questions at the meeting (if any); in case of force majeure preventing their attendance, members of the Board of Directors and members of the Supervisory Board must report this in writing to the Board of Directors and the Supervisory Board. If the audit report of the Company's annual financial statements contains material exceptions, adverse audit opinions, or disclaimers, the Company must invite a representative of the approved auditing firm that performed the audit of the Company's financial statements to attend the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders, and the representative of the approved auditing firm is responsible for attending the Company's Annual General Meeting of Shareholders.
6. The procedure for organizing a General Meeting of Shareholders is regulated by Clause 5, Article 140 of the Enterprise Law.

Article 5. Personnel for the Shareholders' General Meeting

(Based on the provisions of Article 146 of the Enterprise Law and Clause 2, Article 20 of the Company Charter)

1. Chairperson and Presiding Panel:
 - a. The Chairman of the Board of Directors presides over or authorizes another member of the Board of Directors to preside over the General Meeting of Shareholders convened by the Board of Directors. If the Chairman is absent or temporarily incapacitated, the remaining members of the Board of Directors shall elect one of them to preside over the meeting by majority vote.  - d. The names of the chairperson and secretary;

 - e. Summarize the proceedings and statements made at the General Shareholders' Meeting on each item on the agenda;
 - f. The number of shareholders and the total number of voting shares of shareholders attending the meeting, the appendix listing registered shareholders, and the shareholder representatives attending the meeting with their corresponding shareholdings and voting rights;
 - g. The total number of votes cast for each voting issue, specifying the voting method, the total number of valid, invalid, affirmative, and abstention votes; the corresponding percentage of the total votes cast by shareholders present at the meeting; and the corresponding percentage of the total votes cast by shareholders who attended and voted.
 - h. Summarize the number of votes for each candidate (if applicable);
 - i. The issues were approved and the corresponding percentage of votes were cast in favor;
 - j. The full name and signature of the chairperson and secretary. If the chairperson or secretary refuses to sign the meeting minutes, these minutes shall be valid only if signed by all other members of the Board of Directors present at the meeting and containing all the information as stipulated in this clause. The meeting minutes shall clearly state the chairperson's or secretary's refusal to sign.
2. The minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders must be prepared and approved before the meeting concludes. The chairperson and secretary of the meeting, or any other person signing the minutes, shall be jointly responsible for the truthfulness and accuracy of the minutes' contents.

3. Minutes prepared in both Vietnamese and foreign languages have equal legal validity. In case of discrepancies in content between the Vietnamese and foreign-language minutes, the content in the Vietnamese version shall prevail.

Article 17. Announcement of Resolutions and Minutes of the General Shareholders' Meeting

(Based on the provisions of Article 23 of the Company Charter)

1. Resolutions, minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders, appendix listing registered shareholders, proxies for attending the meeting, all documents attached to the minutes (if any), and related documents accompanying the meeting invitation notice must be kept at the Company's head office.
2. Resolutions, minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders, and accompanying documents must be disclosed in accordance with the law on information disclosure in the securities market.

SECTION 2 : SPECIFIC REGULATIONS FOR EACH FORMAT OF VOTING AT THE MEETING

Section 2.1 : Specific regulations regarding voting at in-person meetings.

Article 18. How to register to attend the Shareholders' General Meeting in person.

(Based on the provisions of Clause 1, Article 20 of the company's charter)

Before the meeting commences, the Company must conduct shareholder registration and continue the registration process until all shareholders entitled to attend the meeting have registered, following this procedure:

1. When registering as a shareholder, delegates sign to confirm their attendance at the General Meeting of Shareholders. The Company then issues each delegate a voting card/voting slip, which includes the registration number, the shareholder's full name, the full name of the authorized representative, and the number of votes/voting ballots for that shareholder.
2. The General Meeting of Shareholders discusses and votes on each item on the agenda. Voting is conducted by vote in favor, against, or abstention. The results of the vote count are announced by the Chairperson/Vote Counting Committee immediately before the closing of the meeting. The General Meeting elects those responsible for counting or supervising the vote count as proposed by the Chairperson. The number of members of the Vote Counting Committee is decided by the General Meeting of Shareholders based on the proposal of the Chairperson of the meeting.

3. Shareholders, authorized representatives of institutional shareholders, or authorized persons arriving after the meeting has commenced have the right to register immediately and subsequently participate in and vote/elect at the meeting immediately after registration. The chairperson is not obligated to stop the meeting to allow late-arriving shareholders to register, and the validity of any previously voted/elected items remains unchanged.

Article 19. Voting on matters at the General Shareholders' Meeting.

(Based on the regulations in the Rules of Procedure; Regulations on Elections at the General Meeting of Shareholders)

1. General principle:
 - a. All matters on the agenda and content of the General Meeting must be discussed and voted on publicly by the General Meeting of Shareholders;
 - b. Voting cards, ballot papers, and election ballots are printed, stamped, and sent directly to delegates at the general meeting by the Company (along with the shareholder meeting attendance documents). Each delegate is issued a Voting Card/Ballot Paper/Election Ballot. The Voting Card/Ballot Paper/Election Ballot clearly states the delegate's code, full name, number of shares owned, and authorized voting power.
2. Regulations regarding the validity of voting ballots and election ballots.
 - a. Voting Card:
 - Valid voting card: The card must be a pre-printed form issued by the Organizing Committee, bearing the company's seal, and must not be altered, erased, torn, damaged, etc., or contain any additional content beyond what is stipulated for this card.
 - Invalid voting card: The content does not comply with the regulations of a valid voting card.
 - b. Voting ballot
 - Valid ballot: The ballot must be a pre-printed form issued by the Organizing Committee, bearing the company's seal, and must not be altered, erased, torn, damaged, etc., or contain any content other than what is stipulated for this ballot. All direct/remote voting (via mail, fax, email, or other means as stipulated in the company's charter) must include the signature and full name (handwritten) of the participating delegate. For remote voting, the ballot must be sent to the Ballot Counting Committee before the counting begins. On the ballot, the voting content is valid when the delegate marks one (01) of the three (03) voting squares.

- Invalid ballot: The content does not comply with the regulations of a valid ballot.

c. Ballot

- Valid ballots are those printed on the form provided by the Organizing Committee, bearing the company's seal, and free from erasures, alterations, tears, damage, etc., and without any additional content beyond what is stipulated for this ballot. All in-person/remote voting (via mail, fax, email, or other means as stipulated in the company's charter) must include the signature and full name (handwritten) of the participating delegate. For remote voting, ballots must be sent to the Ballot Counting Committee before the counting begins.
- Invalid ballot:
 - + The content does not comply with the regulations of a valid ballot;
 - + The number of candidates elected by the delegates was greater than the number of candidates needed to be elected.
 - + The ballots contain a total number of votes cast for the shareholder's or representative's candidates that exceeds the total number of votes allowed.
 - + Other regulations are as stipulated in the Regulations on the Election of Shareholders' General Meeting and the Company's Articles of Association.

Article 20. Voting procedures at the General Shareholders' Meeting

(Based on the regulations in the Rules of Procedure for the General Meeting of Shareholders)

1. General principle:
 - a) The General Meeting of Shareholders discusses and votes on each item on the agenda. Voting is conducted by raising cards, direct voting, electronic voting, or other electronic methods.
 - b) Delegates vote to approve, disapprove, or abstain from an issue put to a vote at the Congress by raising their Voting Cards or filling in their chosen options on the Voting Form.
2. Voting methods
 - a) Voting by Voting Card: When voting by raising the Voting Card, the front of the Voting Card must be raised towards the Presiding Committee. If a delegate does not raise the Voting Card in all three times of voting for, against, or no opinion on an issue, it will be considered as a vote in favor of that issue. If a delegate raises the Voting Card more than once (01) when voting for, against, or no opinion on an issue, it will be considered an invalid vote. According to the method of voting by raising the Voting Card, the Member of the Delegate Credentials Verification Committee/Vote Counting Committee marks the delegate code and the corresponding number of votes for each delegate in favor, against, no opinion, and invalid.

b) Voting by ballot:

- When voting is conducted by direct ballot: for each item, delegates choose one of three options – “Agree,” “Disagree,” or “No Opinion” – printed on the ballot by marking “X” or “✓” in their chosen box and submitting the ballot to the counting committee before the vote count begins. The ballot must be signed and clearly state the full name (handwritten) of the delegate.
- When voting is conducted via electronic ballot or other electronic means: for each item, delegates select one of three options – “Agree,” “Disagree,” or “No opinion” – which are pre-programmed into the electronic voting system at the Congress. Delegates then confirm their vote so that the electronic voting system records the result.

Article 21. Voting procedures at the General Shareholders' Meeting

(Based on the regulations in the General Meeting of Shareholders' Election Rules)

1. General principles

- a) Comply strictly with the law and the Company's Articles of Association;
- b) Elections can be conducted through in-person voting, electronic voting, or other electronic means;
- c) Members of the vote counting committee are not allowed to be on the list of nominees or to self-nominate for the Board of Directors and the Supervisory Board.

2. Forms of voting in elections

a. Cumulative voting

- Each delegate has a total number of votes corresponding to the total number of shares owned, representing ownership multiplied by the number of elected members;
- Attendees have the right to cast all of their votes for one or more candidates;
- In the event of a change in candidates on the day of the congress, the vote counting committee is responsible for issuing new ballots and collecting the old ballots (if any) before the vote counting begins;

- In case of an incorrect selection, delegates should contact the Ballot Counting Committee to obtain a new ballot and must return the old one.
- How to fill out the ballot: Each delegate will be given ballots. Instructions on how to fill out the ballot are detailed in the Election Regulations adopted at the General Meeting of Shareholders;
- Principles of election:
 - + The elected members are determined by the number of votes received, from highest to lowest, starting with the candidate with the highest number of votes until the required number of members are elected.
 - + In the event that two or more candidates receive the same number of votes for the last remaining member of the Board of Directors, a re-election will be held among those candidates, or a selection will be made according to the criteria stipulated in the election regulations approved at the General Meeting of Shareholders or the company's charter.

- b. Elections by voting: To be conducted in accordance with the provisions of Point b, Clause 2, Article 20 of these Regulations.

Article 22. Voting method at the General Shareholders' Meeting.

(Based on the regulations in the Rules of Procedure for the General Meeting of Shareholders)

The vote counting process is as follows:

- a) Summary of ballots/voting slips (according to voting method) for each voting issue, total number of valid, invalid, affirmative, negative, and abstention votes; corresponding percentage of the total votes cast by shareholders present at the meeting; corresponding percentage of the total votes cast by shareholders attending and voting as stipulated in the Company's Articles of Association;
- b) The cumulative ballot results, including the total number of valid and invalid votes, the number of votes cast for each candidate, and other details as stipulated in the Company's Articles of Association, will be compiled.

Section 2.2 : Specific regulations on voting procedures at online meetings

Article 23. How to register to attend the online General Shareholders' Meeting

The procedure for registering to attend the General Shareholders' Meeting online before the meeting's opening date is clearly stipulated in the Notice of the General Shareholders' Meeting, including:

1. Eligibility requirements:
 - a) Those whose names are included in the shareholder list (DSCĐ) are entitled to attend the General Meeting of Shareholders, as prepared in accordance with the Company's notice of exercise of rights;
 - b) Authorized representatives must meet the eligibility requirements as stipulated by law and the company's articles of incorporation.
2. Technical requirements: Delegates need an electronic device with internet access (e.g., computer, tablet, mobile phone, or other internet-connected electronic device...).
3. Method of recording attendance of delegates at online general shareholders' meetings: Delegates are recorded as attending the online general shareholders' meeting by the electronic voting system when they access the system using the access information provided as stipulated in Article 24 of these Regulations and have confirmed their attendance at the online general shareholders' meeting through the electronic voting system.

Article 24. Provide login information and cast your electronic vote.

1. Information regarding the access link to the electronic voting system, username, password, and other identifying factors (if any) for attending the online General Meeting of Shareholders will be provided in the meeting invitation notice (or the form of login information notification as stipulated by the Board of Directors). Delegates are responsible for keeping their username, password, and other assigned identifying factors confidential to ensure that only delegates have the right to vote on the electronic voting system and are fully responsible for the information they have registered.
2. When delegates request a re-issuance of login information, the General Meeting Organizing Committee may notify them through various means: in person, by mail, email, telephone, or other methods as stipulated by the Board of Directors. The provision of login information is based on shareholder information from the shareholder list compiled by the Vietnam Securities Depository and Clearing Corporation according to the notice regarding the exercise of the right to attend the General Meeting of Shareholders of the Company.
3. Delegates use their login name, password, or other identifying factors (if any) to access the electronic voting system to confirm their attendance at the online General Meeting of Shareholders and cast their electronic votes according to the agenda of the online General Meeting of Shareholders.

Article 25. Authorization for a representative to attend the General Shareholders' Meeting online.

When granting authorization online, shareholders shall grant authorization in accordance with Clause 2, Article 9 of these Regulations, taking into account the following provisions:

1. Shareholders are required to provide complete information for online authorization, especially the information of the authorized party, including: telephone number, fax number, email address, or other contact address as stipulated in the Articles of Association. This information will be used to assign login names, access passwords, and other identifying elements (if any) to the authorized party.
2. The proxy form for attending the online General Meeting of Shareholders must bear the full signatures, clearly stating the full names (handwritten), and stamped seal (if applicable) of both the authorizing party and the authorized party. The original proxy form must be sent before the official opening of the meeting. If a shareholder has not attended the meeting but has authorized a proxy online, the authorization will remain valid until the Company receives the original proxy form and until the closing of the meeting.
3. Shareholders who attended the general meeting are not allowed to authorize another person to attend the meeting on their behalf.
4. Cancellation of proxy for shareholders who have granted online proxy: Shareholders must submit a formal written request to the company to cancel their online proxy before the official opening of the General Meeting. If the proxy has already attended the General Meeting, the time of recording the cancellation of the proxy will be calculated from the time the company receives the formal written request to cancel the online proxy; the validity of any previously voted/elected items will remain unchanged .

Article 26. Discussion at the online General Shareholders' Meeting

1. Principle:
 - a) Discussions will only be conducted within the allotted time and will be limited to the issues presented in the agenda of the Shareholders' General Meeting;
 - b) Only delegates are allowed to participate in the discussion;
 - c) Delegates may register their discussion topics in the format specified in the congress's rules of procedure;
 - d) The Secretariat will organize the delegates' questions and forward them to the Chairperson.
2. Responding to the delegates' questions:

- a) Based on the content of the delegates' discussions, the Chairperson or a member designated by the Chairperson will answer the delegates' questions.
- b) In case of time constraints, questions that are not answered directly at the General Meeting will be answered by the Company through other means.

Article 27. The method of adopting resolutions at the General Shareholders' Meeting is online.

The General Meeting of Shareholders adopts resolutions within its authority through electronic voting.

Article 28. How to vote online

- 1. Voting method:
 - a) Delegates choose one of three voting options – “Approve,” “Disapprove,” or “No Opinion” – for each issue put to a vote at the Congress, which are pre-programmed into the electronic voting system;
 - b) Afterward, the delegates proceed to confirm their votes so that the electronic voting system can record the results.
- 2. How to vote in the election:
 - a) Cumulative voting method: Unless otherwise stipulated in the Company's Articles of Association, the voting for members of the Board of Directors and the Supervisory Board must be conducted using the cumulative voting method. Accordingly, delegates cast their votes according to the instructions in the online voting regulations approved at the General Meeting of Shareholders. Afterward, delegates confirm their votes so that the electronic voting system can record the results;
 - b) Voting by ballot (if applicable): This shall be conducted in accordance with the voting regulations stipulated in Clause 1 of this Article.
- 3. Other regulations when conducting electronic voting:
 - a) If a delegate fails to complete all voting or election activities as per the Congress agenda, the remaining issues that were not voted on or elected will be considered as if the delegate did not cast a vote on those issues;
 - b) In the event that issues arise outside the agenda of the congress, delegates may vote or hold supplementary elections. If delegates do not vote or participate in the elections on these issues, it will be considered that the delegates did not participate in the voting or election on those issues;
 - c) Delegates may change the results of votes and elections (but cannot cancel the results), including supplementary votes and elections on issues arising outside the agenda of the Congress. The online system only records the vote count for the final voting results at the time of completion of electronic voting for each vote counting round as stipulated in the working regulations of the Congress;

- d) In the case of cumulative voting, an invalid ballot is one in which the total number of votes cast for all candidates exceeds the total number of votes cast for the Representative Delegate as calculated at the time of vote counting or other regulations as guided by the Online Election Regulations approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders;
- e) The time for electronic voting is specified in the rules of procedure at the general meeting. During this time, Delegates can access the electronic voting system and vote twenty-four (24) hours a day and seven (07) days a week except in case of system maintenance or other reasons beyond the Company's control. After the voting period ends, the system will not record any further electronic voting results from Delegates.

Article 29. How to count votes online

When delegates cast their votes, the number of votes is recorded on the electronic voting system. Based on the results of the electronic voting, the vote counting committee compiles the voting results according to the following principles:

1. Summarize the voting/election ballots (according to the voting method) for each voting issue, the total number of valid, invalid, affirmative, negative, and abstention votes; the corresponding percentage of the total votes cast by shareholders present at the meeting; and the corresponding percentage of the total votes cast by shareholders attending and voting as stipulated in the Company's Articles of Association.
2. The cumulative ballot results, including the total number of valid and invalid votes, the number of votes cast for each candidate, and other details as stipulated in the Company's Articles of Association, will be compiled.

Article 30. Prepare minutes for the online General Shareholders' Meeting.

1. Comply with the provisions of Article 16 of these Regulations.
2. The venue specified in the minutes of the online Shareholders' Meeting is the location where the Chairman of the Meeting will be present to preside over the meeting. This location must be within the territory of Vietnam.
3. The procedure for adopting the minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders is specifically stipulated in the company's Rules of Procedure for the General Meeting of Shareholders.

 - f) Election plan (if any);
 - g) The deadline for submitting the feedback form to the company has been set.
 - h) Full name and signature of the Chairman of the Board of Directors.
4. The method of sending shareholder opinion ballots in writing.
- a. Shareholders who submitted ballots responded to the Company by mail, fax, or email:
 - The completed feedback forms must bear the full signatures, clearly written names (handwritten), and seals (if applicable) of the representatives.
 - If sent by mail, the opinion poll form must be enclosed in a sealed envelope and no one is allowed to open it before the vote count. If sent by fax or email, the opinion poll form must be kept confidential until the vote count.
 - Opinion ballots submitted to the Company after the deadline specified in the ballot itself, or that have been opened (in the case of mail submissions) or disclosed (in the case of fax or email submissions), are invalid. Unsubmitted ballots will be considered as non-voting ballots.
 - b. Shareholders submit their ballots using electronic voting.
 - i. Provide access account
 - The company will provide the shareholders with access account information along with the Shareholder Opinion Form via registered mail.
 - When a delegate requests access information again, the Company may notify them through various means: in person, by mail, email, telephone, or other methods as stipulated by the Board of Directors. The provision of access information is based on the shareholder list compiled by the Vietnam Securities Depository and Clearing Corporation in accordance with the Company's written notice regarding the exercise of shareholder rights.
 - ii. Implement electronic voting.
 - Implementation principles

- Delegates can only cast their votes through the electronic voting system from the time they receive the Shareholder Opinion Form until the deadline for returning the form as announced by the Company.
- During the voting period as announced by the Company, Delegates may access the electronic voting system and cast their votes 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, except in cases of system maintenance or other reasons beyond the Company's control.
- During the Company's announced voting period, Delegates may change their voting decisions on the electronic voting system. After the announced voting period ends, Delegates are not allowed to change their voting results, and the final results will be counted and announced by the Company.
- How to do it
 - Delegates use access accounts provided by the Company to directly access the electronic voting system to view information related to the voting process that has been posted on the system and make voting decisions on each voting/election item requiring shareholder opinion.
- c. Shareholders who submitted ballots responded to the Company by mail, fax, or email combined with electronic ballot submission.

In accordance with the provisions of points a and b of clause 3 of this Article.

5. Count the votes and prepare the vote counting report:

The Board of Directors shall organize the vote counting and prepare the vote counting report in the presence of the Supervisory Board or shareholders who do not hold management positions in the Company. The vote counting report must include the following main contents:

- a) Name, registered office address, business registration number;
- b) The purpose and issues requiring consultation before the resolution can be passed;

If there is a decision to reject a candidate, the Board of Directors must notify the shareholder in writing. or a group of shareholders nominating within five (05) working days from the date the Board decides and must state the reason for refusal.
 - If the nominating shareholder or group of shareholders does not ensure at least five (05) days in advance, the Company must send the ballot and accompanying documents to all shareholders with voting rights , the Board of Directors will not accept the nomination proposal. and will report at the next General Shareholders' Meeting (if any).
2. If the number of candidates for the Board of Directors nominated and elected as stipulated in Clause 5, Article 115 of the Enterprise Law is still insufficient, the incumbent Board of Directors shall nominate additional candidates in accordance with the Company Charter, the Internal Regulations on Corporate Governance, and the Operating Regulations of the Board of Directors. The incumbent Board of Directors' nomination of additional candidates must be clearly announced before the General Meeting of Shareholders votes to elect members of the Board of Directors as prescribed by law.
 3. In the event that the number of candidates nominated by the incumbent Board of Directors under Clause 2 of this Article is still insufficient, the Board of Directors shall announce the information that the number of Board of Directors candidates is insufficient within five (05) working days before the opening of the General Meeting of Shareholders. The Board of Directors shall organize for other shareholders to nominate candidates in accordance with the Company Charter, the Internal Regulations on Corporate Governance and the Operating Regulations of the Board of Directors. The fact that the incumbent Board of Directors organizes for other shareholders to nominate additional candidates must be clearly announced before the General Meeting of Shareholders votes to elect members of the Board of Directors in accordance with the law.

Article 45. Method of electing board members

(Based on the provisions of Clause 3, Article 148 of the Enterprise Law, and Clauses 2 and 3, Article 21 of the Company Charter)

1. The election of Board members must be conducted using cumulative voting, whereby each shareholder has a total number of votes corresponding to the total number of shares owned multiplied by the number of Board members to be elected. Shareholders have the right to allocate all or part of their total votes to one or more candidates. The elected Board members are determined by the number of votes received, from highest to lowest, starting with the candidate with the highest number of votes until the number of members stipulated in the company's charter is reached. If two or more candidates receive the same number of votes for the last Board member, a re-election will be held among those candidates or a selection will be made according to the criteria stipulated in the election regulations or the company's charter.
2. If the number of candidates is less than or equal to the number of Board of Directors members to be elected, the election of Board members may be conducted by cumulative voting as stipulated in Clause 3, Article 148 of the Enterprise Law, or by voting (approve, disapprove, abstain). The percentage of votes cast by voting shall be determined according to Clause 2, Article 21 of the Company's Charter.

Article 46. Cases of dismissal, removal, replacement, and appointment of Board of Directors members.

(Based on Article 160 of the Enterprise Law)

1. The General Meeting of Shareholders may dismiss a member of the Board of Directors in the following cases:
 - a) The company does not meet the qualifications and conditions stipulated in Article 155 of the Enterprise Law;

- b) A resignation letter was submitted and accepted;
 - c) Other cases are stipulated in the company's charter.
- 2. The General Meeting of Shareholders may dismiss a member of the Board of Directors in the following cases:
 - a) Not participating in Board of Directors activities for six (06) consecutive months, except in case of force majeure;
 - b) Other cases are stipulated in the company's charter.
- 3. When deemed necessary, the General Meeting of Shareholders may decide to replace members of the Board of Directors; dismiss or remove members of the Board of Directors except in the cases stipulated in Clauses 1 and 2 of this Article.
- 4. The Board of Directors must convene a General Meeting of Shareholders to elect additional members to the Board of Directors in the following cases:
 - a) The number of Board of Directors members is reduced by more than one-third (1/3) compared to the number stipulated in the company's charter. In this case, the Board of Directors must convene a General Meeting of Shareholders within sixty (60) days from the date the number of members is reduced by more than one-third (1/3);
 - b) Except as provided in point a of this clause, the General Meeting of Shareholders shall elect new members to replace members of the Board of Directors who have been dismissed or removed from office at the most recent meeting.

Article 47. Announcement regarding the election, dismissal, and removal of members of the Board of Directors.

Company is responsible for disclosing the information internally and to relevant authorities, through mass media, and on the Company's website in accordance with the procedures and regulations of current law .

Article 48. How to nominate candidates for the Board of Directors

(Based on the provisions of Article 274 of Decree No. 155/2020/ND-CP; Clause 1, Article 25 of the Company Charter)

In the event that candidates for the Board of Directors have been identified in accordance with Clause 1, Article 44 of these Regulations, the Company must publish information related to the candidates at least ten (10) days before the opening date of the General Meeting of Shareholders on the company's website so that shareholders can learn about these candidates before voting. Candidates for the Board of Directors must provide a written commitment regarding the truthfulness and accuracy of the published personal information and must commit to performing their duties honestly, diligently, and in the best interests of the Company if elected as a member of the Board of Directors. Information related to candidates for the Board of Directors that is published includes:

Article 89. Regulations concerning the evaluation of the performance of Board Members , Supervisors, General Manager, and other executives.

1. The Board of Directors is responsible for establishing performance evaluation standards for all members of the Board, the CEO, and other executives.

2. Performance evaluation criteria must strike a balance between the interests of business executives and the long-term interests of the Company and its shareholders. The financial and non-financial indicators used in the evaluation are carefully considered and decided upon by the Board of Directors at each given time. Non-financial indicators may include: stakeholder interests, operational efficiency, progress and improvements achieved, etc.

3. Annually, based on assigned functions and responsibilities, established evaluation standards, and achieved results, the Board of Directors conducts a performance evaluation of its members.

4. The evaluation of the Supervisors' performance is conducted in accordance with the methods outlined in the organizational structure and operation of the Supervisory Board.

5. The performance evaluation of other executives is carried out according to internal regulations or may be based on self-assessments by those executives.

Article 90. Awards

1. The Board of Directors or the Compensation Subcommittee (if any) is responsible for developing the reward policy. Rewards are given based on performance evaluations as stipulated in Article 89 of these Regulations.

2. Forms of reward include: cash, stock (issuing shares under an employee stock option program) , or other forms as developed by the Board of Directors or the Compensation and Benefits Subcommittee. The General Director must prepare a plan for the General Director to submit to the Board of Directors for approval; in cases exceeding his authority, it will be submitted to the General Meeting of Shareholders for approval.

3. The reward system for members of the Board of Directors and supervisory board members will be decided by the General Meeting of Shareholders.

4. For business executives: the bonus funds are drawn from the Company's reward and welfare fund and other legitimate sources. The bonus amount is based on the actual annual business results; the General Director will propose it to the Board of Directors for approval, and if it exceeds the General Director's authority, it will be submitted to the General Meeting of Shareholders for approval.

Article 91. Discipline

1. The Board of Directors is responsible for determining disciplinary action based on the nature and severity of the violation. Disciplinary action must include the highest form of punishment, which is dismissal or removal from office.

2. Board members, supervisors, and business executives who fail to perform their duties as required with honesty, diligence, and care will be held personally liable for any damages caused by their actions.

3. Members of the Board of Directors, Supervisors, and business executives who, while performing their duties, violate legal regulations or company regulations will be subject to disciplinary action, administrative penalties, or criminal prosecution depending on the severity of the violation, in accordance with the law and the company's charter. In cases where damage is caused to the interests of the company, shareholders, or other parties, compensation will be required according to the law.

Chapter VII : Amendments to the Regulations on Corporate Governance

Article 92. Supplementing and amending the Corporate Governance Regulations.

1. Any additions or amendments to these Regulations must be considered and decided upon by the Company's General Meeting of Shareholders.

2. In the event that there are legal provisions relating to the company's operations not addressed in these regulations, or in the event that new legal provisions differ from the provisions in these regulations, those legal provisions shall automatically apply and govern the company's operations.

4. In the event that the Chairman of the Board of Directors submits a resignation letter or is dismissed or removed from office, the Board of Directors must elect a replacement within ten (10) days from the date of receiving the resignation letter or being dismissed or removed from office.
5. In the absence of the Chairman of the Board of Directors or inability to perform his/her duties, he/she must authorize another member of the Board of Directors in writing to exercise the rights and obligations of the Chairman of the Board of Directors in accordance with the principles stipulated in the company's charter. If there is no authorized person, or if the Chairman of the Board of Directors dies, goes missing, is detained, is serving a prison sentence, is undergoing administrative sanctions at a compulsory rehabilitation center or compulsory education facility, has absconded from his/her residence, is incapacitated or has lost his/her civil capacity, has difficulties in understanding or controlling his/her behavior, or is prohibited by the Court from holding office, practicing a profession, or performing a specific job, then the remaining members shall elect one of them to hold the position of Chairman of the Board of Directors by a majority vote until a new decision is made by the Board of Directors.
6. When deemed necessary, the Board of Directors shall decide to appoint one (01) or more persons as Company Secretary for a term as decided by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may dismiss the Company Secretary when necessary, but not contrary to current labor laws. The Company Secretary has the following rights and obligations:
- a) Assisting in organizing and convening General Meetings of Shareholders and Board of Directors; recording meeting minutes;
 - b) Assisting members of the Board of Directors in exercising their assigned rights and responsibilities;
 - c) Assisting the Board of Directors in applying and implementing corporate governance principles;
 - d) Assisting the Company in building shareholder relations and protecting the legitimate rights and interests of shareholders; ensuring compliance with information provision obligations, information disclosure, and administrative procedures;
 - e) Other rights and obligations as stipulated in the Company's Charter and Internal Article 9. Dismissal, removal, replacement, and appointment of members of the Board of Directors.

1. The General Meeting of Shareholders may dismiss a member of the Board of Directors in the following cases:
 - a) The company does not meet the qualifications and conditions stipulated in Article 155 of the Enterprise Law;
 - b) A resignation letter was submitted and accepted;
 - c) Other cases are stipulated in the Enterprise Law and the Company's Articles of Association.
2. Board members continue to fulfill all their obligations until their dismissal is approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders. Board members are not entitled to attend or vote at Board meetings and are not entitled to receive remuneration in the following circumstances:
 - a) The company has received notification that a member of the Board of Directors has limited legal capacity, has lost legal capacity, or has difficulties in understanding and controlling their behavior.
 - b) The company has received notification that a member of the Board of Directors is under criminal investigation, detained, serving a prison sentence, undergoing administrative sanctions at a compulsory rehabilitation center or compulsory education facility, or is prohibited by a court from holding office, practicing a profession, or engaging in certain work.
 - c) The Board of Directors shall decide to accept the resignation/resignation of a Board Member in accordance with Clause 3 of this Article.
3. In the event that a Board Member submits a resignation/resignation letter, the specific procedures for receiving it are as follows:
 - a) To announce their resignation, a Board member must submit a Letter of Resignation to the Board of Directors containing the following key information:
 - Resignation/Resignation from office;
 - Reason for resignation/resignation;
 - Effective date (specify the effective date);
 - Signature and full name (handwritten) of the Board member.
 - b) The procedure for handling resignation/resignation requests from members of the Board of Directors, as stipulated in point a of this clause, is as follows: The company will disclose any unusual information within 24 hours of receiving the resignation/resignation letter.
 - The Chairman of the Board of Directors or the person convening the Board of Directors meeting must send notices of the meeting to the members of the Board of Directors within seven (07) working days from the date the Company receives the resignation/resignation letter and no later than three (03) working days before the meeting date.

- The Board of Directors meeting must be held no later than ten (10) working days from the date the Company receives the resignation/resignation letter.
 - In the event that the Board of Directors approves the acceptance of a resignation/resignation letter, the resigning/resigning Board member shall continue to exercise their rights and obligations until the General Meeting of Shareholders approves the decision to dismiss the Board member, except for the right to attend and vote at Board meetings and the right to receive remuneration as a Board member.
 - In the event that the Board of Directors does not approve the acceptance of the resignation/resignation letter, the resigning/resigning Board member shall continue to exercise their rights and obligations until the General Meeting of Shareholders approves the decision to dismiss the Board member. The Board of Directors must notify the resigning/resigning Board member in writing, stating the reasons for refusing to accept the resignation/resignation letter, no later than two (02) working days after the date of the decision.
- The Board of Directors' resolution regarding the acceptance of a resignation/resignation letter must be published as an extraordinary information disclosure within 24 hours of the decision being made.
- c) Board members are not permitted to withdraw their resignation, except in cases where the Board of Directors decides not to accept the resignation.
- 4. The General Meeting of Shareholders may dismiss a member of the Board of Directors in the following cases:
 - a) Not participating in Board of Directors activities for six (06) consecutive months, except in case of force majeure;
 - b) Other cases are stipulated in the Enterprise Law and the Company's Articles of Association.
- 5. When deemed necessary, the General Meeting of Shareholders may decide to replace members of the Board of Directors; dismiss or remove members of the Board of Directors except in the cases stipulated in Clauses 1 and 4 of this Article.
- 6. The Board of Directors must convene a General Meeting of Shareholders to elect additional members to the Board of Directors in the following cases:
 - a) If the number of Board of Directors members is reduced by more than one-third (1/3) compared to the number stipulated in the Company's Charter, the Board of Directors must convene a General Meeting of Shareholders within sixty (60) days from the date the number of members is reduced by more than one-third. (1/3) ;
 - b) Except as provided in point a of this clause, the General Meeting of Shareholders shall elect new members to replace members of the Board of Directors who have been dismissed or removed from office at the most recent meeting.

Article 10. Procedures for electing, dismissing, and removing members of the Board of Directors.

1. Shareholders or groups of shareholders owning 10% or more of the total number of common shares have the right to nominate candidates for the Board of Directors in accordance with the Law on Enterprises and the company's charter. Common shareholders forming a group to nominate candidates for the Board of Directors must notify the attending shareholders of the group meeting before the opening of the General Meeting of Shareholders. Shareholders or groups of shareholders holding:
 - a) From 10% to less than 30%, 01 (one) candidate is nominated;
 - b) From 30% to under 50%, a maximum of 02 (two) candidates can be nominated;
 - c) From 50% to under 70%, a maximum of 03 (three) candidates can be nominated;
 - d) Candidates with a score of 70% or higher may nominate a maximum of 04 (four) candidates.

The nomination and election of members of the Board of Directors are regulated in detail in Clause 1, Article 44 of the Internal Regulations on Corporate Governance.

2. If the number of candidates for the Board of Directors nominated and elected as stipulated in Clause 5, Article 115 of the Enterprise Law is still insufficient, the incumbent Board of Directors shall nominate additional candidates in accordance with the Company Charter, the Internal Regulations on Corporate Governance, and the Operating Regulations of the Board of Directors. The incumbent Board of Directors' nomination of additional candidates must be clearly announced before the General Meeting of Shareholders votes to elect members of the Board of Directors as prescribed by law.
3. In the event that the number of candidates nominated by the incumbent Board of Directors under Clause 2 of this Article is still insufficient, the Board of Directors shall announce the information that the number of Board of Directors candidates is insufficient within five (05) working days before the opening of the General Meeting of Shareholders. The Board of Directors shall organize for other shareholders to nominate candidates in accordance with the Company Charter, the Internal Regulations on Corporate Governance and the Operating Regulations of the Board of Directors. The fact that the incumbent Board of Directors organizes for other shareholders to nominate additional candidates must be clearly announced before the General Meeting of Shareholders votes to elect members of the Board of Directors in accordance with the law.
4. The voting for Board of Directors members must be conducted using cumulative voting, whereby each shareholder has a total number of votes corresponding to the total number of shares owned multiplied by the number of Board of Directors members to be elected, and shareholders have the right to allocate all or part of their total votes to one or more candidates. The elected Board of Directors members are determined by the number of votes received, from highest to lowest, starting with the candidate with the highest number of votes until the number of members stipulated in the Company Charter is reached. In the event that two (02) or more candidates receive the same number of votes for the last Board of Directors member, a re-election will be held among the candidates with the equal number of votes, or a selection will be made according to the election regulations or the Company Charter.

5. If the number of candidates is less than or equal to the number of Board of Directors members to be elected, the election of Board members may be conducted by cumulative voting as stipulated in Clause 3, Article 148 of the Enterprise Law, or by voting (approve, disapprove, abstain). The percentage of votes cast by voting shall be determined according to Clause 2, Article 21 of the Company's Charter.
6. The election, dismissal, and removal of members of the Board of Directors are carried out by the General Meeting of Shareholders through voting (approve, disapprove, abstain). The voting percentage required for approval by this method is stipulated in Clause 2, Article 21 of the Company's Charter.

Article 11. Notification of election, dismissal, and removal of members of the Board of Directors

1. In the event that candidates for the Board of Directors have been identified in accordance with Clause 1, Article 44 of the Internal Regulations on Corporate Governance, the Company must publish information related to the candidates at least ten (10) days before the opening date of the General Meeting of Shareholders on the Company's website so that shareholders can learn about these candidates before voting. Candidates for the Board of Directors must provide a written commitment regarding the truthfulness and accuracy of the published personal information and must commit to performing their duties honestly, diligently, and in the best interests of the Company if elected as a member of the Board of Directors. Information related to candidates for the Board of Directors that is published includes:
 - a) Full name, date of birth (day, month, year);
 - b) Professional qualifications;
 - c) Work experience;
 - d) Other managerial positions (including board positions in other companies);
 - e) The benefits relate to the Company and its related parties;
 - f) Other information (if any) as stipulated in the Company's Articles of Association;
 - g) The company is responsible for disclosing information about the companies in which the candidate holds positions as a member of the Board of Directors, other management positions, and any related interests of the candidate in those companies (if any).
2. The announcement of the results of the election, dismissal, and removal of members of the Board of Directors shall be made in accordance with the regulations and guidelines on information disclosure.

CHAPTER III

 - n) The audited annual financial statements are presented to the General Meeting of Shareholders;
 - o) Proposing the dividend rate to be paid; deciding on the timeframe and procedures for paying dividends or handling losses incurred during business operations;
 - p) Proposing the reorganization or dissolution of the Company; requesting the Company's bankruptcy;
 - q) Decisions to issue the Regulations on the operation of the Board of Directors, the Internal Regulations on corporate governance after approval by the General Meeting of Shareholders; and the Regulations on information disclosure of the Company ;
 - r) Monitoring and preventing conflicts of interest among members of the Board of Directors, members of the Supervisory Board, the General Director, and other managers, including misuse of company assets and abuse of related-party transactions ;
 - s) Appointing a person in charge of corporate governance ;
 - t) Organize training and workshops on corporate governance and necessary skills for members of the Board of Directors, the General Director, the person in charge of corporate governance, and other managers of the company ;
 - u) The decision to establish and issue operating regulations for subcommittees of the Board of Directors is made at different times ;
 - v) The Board of Directors requests the General Director, Deputy General Directors, and other managers within the Company to provide information and documents regarding the financial situation and business operations of the Company and its units. Managers are required to provide timely, complete, and accurate information and documents as requested by the Board members. The procedures for requesting and providing information are specifically stipulated in the Internal Regulations on Corporate Governance.
 - w) Other rights and obligations as prescribed by the Enterprise Law, the Securities Law, other legal regulations, and the Company's Charter and Internal Regulations on Corporate Governance .
3. The Board of Directors must report to the General Meeting of Shareholders on the results of the Board of Directors' operations as stipulated in Article 280 of Government Decree No. 155/2020/ND-CP dated December 31, 2020, detailing the implementation of a number of articles of the Law on Securities (and any replacement or amendment documents from time to time).

4. The Board of Directors adopts resolutions and makes decisions by voting at in-person or online meetings, by written consultation, or by other means as decided by the Board of Directors. Each member of the Board of Directors has one vote.
5. In cases where a resolution or decision passed by the Board of Directors is contrary to the law, a resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders, or the company's charter, and causes damage to the Company, the members who approved the resolution or decision shall be jointly and severally liable for the individual responsibility for that resolution or decision and shall compensate the Company for the damage; members who opposed the resolution or decision shall be exempt from liability. In this case, the Company's shareholders have the right to request the Court to suspend the implementation or annul the aforementioned resolution or decision.

Article 13. Duties and powers of the Board of Directors in approving and signing transaction contracts.

1. The Board of Directors approves contracts and transactions with a value less than 35% or transactions resulting in a total transaction value arising within twelve (12) months from the date of the first transaction with a value less than 35% of the total asset value recorded in the most recent financial statement or a smaller percentage or value as stipulated in the Company's Charter between the Company and one of the following parties:
 - Members of the Board of Directors, members of the Supervisory Board, the General Director, other managers, and related parties of these entities;
 - Shareholders, authorized representatives of shareholders owning more than 10% of the total common stock of the Company, and their related parties;
 - Businesses are related to the entities specified in Clause 2, Article 164 of the Enterprise Law.
2. The Board of Directors approves contracts, loan transactions, and asset sales with a value less than or equal to 10% of the total value of the company's assets as recorded in the most recent financial statement between the Company and shareholders owning 51% or more of the total voting shares or related parties of such shareholders.
3. The Company's representative signing the contract or transaction must notify the members of the Board of Directors and the members of the Supervisory Board about the parties involved in that contract or transaction and send along the draft contract or the main contents of the transaction. The Board of Directors shall decide on the approval of the contract or transaction within fifteen (15) days from the date of receiving the notification, unless the Company's Charter stipulates a different period; members of the Board of Directors with interests related to the parties in the contract or transaction do not have the right to vote.

Article 14. Responsibilities of the Board of Directors in convening extraordinary general meetings of shareholders.

1. The Board of Directors must convene an extraordinary general meeting of shareholders or solicit shareholder opinions in writing in the following cases:
 - a) The Board of Directors deems it necessary for the benefit of the Company;
 - b) The number of remaining members of the Board of Directors and the Supervisory Board is less than the minimum number of members required by law;
 - c) As requested by a shareholder or group of shareholders as stipulated in Clause 2, Article 115 of the Enterprise Law, the request to convene a General Meeting of Shareholders must be in writing, clearly stating the reasons and purpose of the meeting, and bearing the signatures of all relevant shareholders. Alternatively, the request may be made in multiple copies and include the signatures of all relevant shareholders.
 - d) As requested by the Supervisory Board;
 - e) Other cases as prescribed by law and the Company's Articles of Association.
2. Convening an extraordinary general meeting of shareholders.

The Board of Directors must determine the opening date of the General Meeting of Shareholders within sixty (60) working days from the date the number of remaining members of the Board of Directors or members of the Supervisory Board is as prescribed in point b, clause 1 of this Article or receives the request prescribed in points c and d, clause 1 of this Article;

3. The person convening the General Meeting of Shareholders must perform the following tasks:
 - a) Prepare a list of shareholders eligible to attend and vote/elect at the General Meeting of Shareholders. The list of shareholders entitled to attend the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be prepared no more than ten (10) days before the date of sending the notice of invitation to the General Meeting of Shareholders unless the Company's Charter stipulates a shorter period. The Company must publish information on the preparation of the list of shareholders entitled to attend the General Meeting of Shareholders at least twenty (20) days before the last registration date;
 - b) Prepare the program and content for the congress;
 - c) Prepare documents for the conference;
 - d) Draft resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders according to the planned agenda of the meeting; list and detailed information of candidates in case of election of members of the Board of Directors and members of the Supervisory Board;
 - e) Determine the time and location for holding the congress;
 - f) Notify and send notices of the General Meeting of Shareholders to all shareholders

- entitled to attend the meeting ;
- g) Other tasks related to the congress.

Article 15. Subcommittees assisting the Board of Directors .

1. When deemed necessary, the Board of Directors may establish a subcommittee to be in charge of development policy, human resources, compensation, internal audit, and risk management. The number of members of the subcommittee is decided by the Board of Directors , with a minimum of three (03) people including members of the Board of Directors and external members. The activities of the subcommittee must comply with the regulations of the Board of Directors. Resolutions of the subcommittee are only effective when a majority of members attend and vote to approve them at the subcommittee meeting.
2. The implementation of decisions of the Board of Directors, or of subcommittees under the Board of Directors, must comply with applicable laws and regulations and the provisions of the Company's Charter and Internal Regulations on Corporate Governance.

CHAPTER IV
BOARD OF DIRECTORS MEETING

Article 16. Board Meetings

1. The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall be elected at the first meeting of the Board of Directors within seven (07) working days from the date of the end of the election of that Board of Directors. This meeting shall be convened and chaired by the member with the highest number of votes or the highest percentage of votes. In the event that more than one member has the highest number of votes or the same percentage of votes, the members shall vote by majority to choose one of them to convene the meeting of the Board of Directors.
2. The Board of Directors must meet at least once every quarter (01) and may hold extraordinary meetings.
3. The Chairman of the Board of Directors convenes a meeting of the Board of Directors in the following cases:
 - a) There is a proposal from the Supervisory Board ;
 - b) With the recommendation of the General Director or at least five (05) other managers;
 - c) There is a proposal from at least two (02) members of the Board of Directors;
 - d) Other cases are as stipulated in the Company's Articles of Association.
4. The proposals stipulated in Clause 3 of this Article must be in writing, clearly stating the purpose, the issues to be discussed, and the decisions falling within the authority of the Board of Directors.
5. The Chairman of the Board of Directors must send notices of the meeting to the members of the Board of Directors within 07 (seven) working days from the date the Company receives the proposal as stipulated in Clause 3 of this Article and no later than 03 (three) working days before the meeting date. The Board of Directors meeting must be held no later than 10 (ten) working days from the date the Company receives the proposal. In case of failure to convene a Board of Directors meeting as requested, the Chairman of the Board of Directors shall be responsible for any damages incurred by the Company; the person making the request has the right to replace the Chairman of the Board of Directors in convening the Board of Directors meeting, following the same procedure as the Chairman of the Board of Directors convening the meeting as requested.

6. The Chairman of the Board of Directors or the person convening the Board of Directors meeting must send a notice of meeting at least three (03) working days before the meeting date unless the Company Charter stipulates otherwise. The notice of meeting must specify the time and place of the meeting, the form of the meeting, the agenda, the issues to be discussed and decided. The notice of meeting must be accompanied by the documents to be used at the meeting and the voting ballot of the members.

Notices inviting members to the Board of Directors meeting may be sent by invitation, telephone, fax, electronic means, or other methods as stipulated in the company's charter, and must be ensured to reach the contact address of each member of the Board of Directors registered with the Company.

7. The Chairman of the Board of Directors or the person convening the meeting sends the notice of meeting and accompanying documents to the members of the Supervisory Board in the same way as to the members of the Board of Directors.

Members of the Supervisory Board have the right to attend Board of Directors meetings; they have the right to participate in discussions but do not have the right to vote.

8. A Board of Directors meeting shall be held when at least three-quarters ($\frac{3}{4}$) of the total number of members are present. If the meeting convened in accordance with this Article does not have the required number of members present, the Chairman of the Board of Directors must send a second notice of meeting to the Board members within 7 (seven) days from the date of the first scheduled meeting and no later than 3 (three) working days before the meeting date. The Board of Directors meeting shall be held no later than 10 (ten) days from the date of the first scheduled meeting. In this case, the meeting shall be held if more than half of the Board members are present.

9. A member of the Board of Directors is deemed to have attended and voted at the meeting in the following circumstances:

- a) Attend and vote in person at the meeting;
- b) Authorize another person to attend the meeting and vote as stipulated in Clause 11 of this Article;
- c) Participate and vote via online conference, electronic voting, or other electronic means;

- d) Submit your ballot to the meeting via mail, fax, or email;
 - e) Submit your ballot by other means as prescribed in the Company's Articles of Association.
10. In case of sending ballots to the meeting by mail, the ballot must be in a sealed envelope and must be delivered to the Chairman of the Board of Directors no later than one (01) hour before the opening. The ballot may only be opened in the presence of all attendees.
 11. Members must attend all Board of Directors meetings. Members may authorize another person (a Board member or not a Board member) to attend meetings and vote on their behalf. If the authorized person is not a Board member, it must be approved by a majority of the Board members .
 12. Resolutions and decisions of the Board of Directors are adopted if approved by a majority (more than ½) of the members present; in case of a tie, the final decision rests with the side whose opinion is supported by the Chairman of the Board of Directors. Note that Board members are not permitted to vote on transactions that benefit that member or their related parties, as stipulated in the Enterprise Law and Article 42 of the Company's Charter.

Article 17. Minutes of the Board of Directors Meeting

1. Board of Directors meetings must be recorded in minutes and may be audio-recorded, recorded, and stored in other electronic forms. Minutes must be in Vietnamese and may also be in a foreign language, including the following main contents:
 - a) Name, registered office address, business registration number;
 - b) Time and location of the meeting;
 - c) Purpose, agenda, and content of the meeting;
 - d) The full names of each member attending the meeting or their authorized representatives, and the manner of attendance; the full names of members absent from the meeting, and the reasons for absence;
 - e) The issue was discussed and voted on at the meeting;
 - f) Summarize the statements made by each meeting participant in chronological order of the meeting's proceedings;
 - g) The voting results clearly indicate which members approved, disapproved, and abstained.
 - h) The issue was approved, and the voting percentage was in favor.
 - i) The full name and signature of the presiding officer and the person recording the minutes, except as provided in Clause 2 of this Article.
2. In the event that the chairperson or the person recording the minutes refuses to sign the meeting minutes, but if all other members of the Board of Directors present and agree to sign the minutes, and the minutes contain all the information stipulated in points a, b, c, d, e, g, and h of Clause 1 of this Article, then these minutes shall be valid. The minutes shall clearly state that the chairperson or the person recording the minutes refused to sign. The person signing the minutes shall be jointly liable for the accuracy and truthfulness of the content of the Board of Directors' meeting minutes. The chairperson or the person recording the minutes shall be personally liable for any damages incurred by the enterprise due to their refusal to sign the minutes, in accordance with the Enterprise Law, the Company Charter, and relevant laws .

3. The chairperson, the minutes recorder, and those who sign the minutes are responsible for the truthfulness and accuracy of the content of the Board of Directors meeting minutes.
4. Minutes of Board of Directors meetings and documents used in the meetings must be kept at the Company's head office.
5. Minutes drawn up in Vietnamese and in a foreign language have equal legal validity. In case of discrepancies in content between the Vietnamese and foreign-language minutes, the content in the Vietnamese minutes shall prevail.

CHAPTER V

REPORT AND DISCLOSURE OF BENEFITS

Article 18. Submitting annual reports

1. At the end of the fiscal year, the Board of Directors must submit the following report to the General Meeting of Shareholders:
 - a) Report on the company's business results;
 - b) Financial statements;
 - c) Report evaluating the company's management and operations;
 - d) Audit report by the Supervisory Board.
2. Reports stipulated in points a, b and c of Clause 1 of this Article must be submitted to the Supervisory Board for appraisal no later than thirty (30) days before the opening date of the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders.
3. The reports stipulated in Clauses 1 and 2 of this Article, the Supervisory Board's appraisal report, and the audit report must be kept at the Company's head office no later than twenty-one (21) days before the opening date of the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders. Shareholders who have continuously owned shares of the Company for at least one (01) year have the right to personally or together with a lawyer, accountant, or auditor with a professional certificate to directly review the reports stipulated in this Article.

Article 19. Remuneration, bonuses and other benefits of members of the Board of Directors

1. The company has the right to pay remuneration and bonuses to members of the Board of Directors based on business results and performance.
2. Board members are entitled to remuneration and bonuses. Remuneration is calculated based on the number of working days required to complete the tasks of the Board member and the daily rate. The Board of Directors determines the remuneration for each member by mutual agreement. The total remuneration and bonuses for the Board of Directors are decided by the General Meeting of Shareholders at its annual meeting.

3. The remuneration of each member of the Board of Directors is included in the Company's business expenses in accordance with the law on corporate income tax, is shown as a separate item in the Company's annual financial statements, and must be reported to the General Meeting of Shareholders at the annual meeting.
4. Board members holding executive positions, or board members working in subcommittees of the Board, or performing duties outside the normal scope of a board member's duties, may receive additional compensation in the form of a lump-sum payment, salary, commission, percentage of profits, or other forms as determined by the Board.
5. Board members are entitled to reimbursement for all travel, accommodation, and other reasonable expenses incurred in performing their duties as board members, including expenses incurred in attending meetings of the General Meeting of Shareholders, the Board of Directors, or subcommittees of the Board of Directors.
6. Board members may be insured by the Company for liability insurance after approval by the General Meeting of Shareholders. This insurance does not cover the liability of Board members related to violations of the law and the Company's Articles of Association.

Article 20. Disclosure of related interests

Unless otherwise stipulated in the Company's Articles of Association, the disclosure of the Company's interests and related parties shall be carried out in accordance with the following regulations:

1. Members of the Company's Board of Directors must declare to the Company their related interests, including:
 - a) The name, business registration number, head office address, business sector, and type of business of the enterprise in which they own capital contributions or shares; the percentage and time of ownership of those capital contributions or shares;
 - b) The name, business registration number, head office address, and business lines of the enterprise in which the related parties jointly or individually own more than 10% of the charter capital.
2. The declaration stipulated in Clause 1 of this Article must be made within seven (07) working days from the date the relevant benefit arises; any amendments or additions must be notified to the Company within seven (07) working days from the date of the corresponding amendments or additions.
3. Members of the Board of Directors who, in their own name or on behalf of others, perform any work in any form within the scope of the Company's business operations must explain the nature and content of such work to the Board of Directors and may only perform it with the approval of a majority of the remaining members of the Board of Directors; if they perform such work without reporting it or without the approval of the Board of Directors, all income derived from such activity shall belong to the Company.

CHAPTER VI RELATIONSHIP OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Article 2 1. Relationship between members of the Board of Directors

1. The relationship between the members of the Board of Directors is one of collaboration; the members are responsible for informing each other on relevant issues in the process of handling their assigned tasks.
2. During the course of work, the Board member assigned primary responsibility must proactively coordinate and handle issues related to areas under the responsibility of other Board members. In cases where there are differing opinions among Board members, the member primarily responsible shall report to the Chairman of the Board for consideration and decision within his/her authority, or organize a meeting or seek the opinions of the Board members in accordance with the law, the Company Charter, and these Regulations.

MEMBERS OF THE SUPERVISORY BOARD

Article 4. Rights, obligations, and responsibilities of members of the Supervisory Board

1. Comply with the law, the Company's Charter, resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders, and professional ethics in exercising assigned rights and performing assigned obligations.
2. Exercise assigned rights and obligations honestly, prudently, and to the best of their ability to ensure the maximum lawful interests of the Company.
3. Be loyal to the interests of the Company and shareholders; do not abuse position or rank, or use information, know-how, business opportunities, or other assets of the Company for personal gain or to serve the interests of other organizations or individuals.
4. Other obligations as prescribed by the Law on Enterprises and the Company's Charter; including the right to access information and documents related to the company's operations. Members of the Board of Directors, the General Director, and other executives of the enterprise are responsible for providing timely and complete information at the request of the members of the Supervisory Board.
5. In case of violation of the provisions in Clauses 1, 2, 3, and 4 of this Article causing damage to the Company or others, the members of the Supervisory Board shall be personally or jointly liable for compensation for such damage. Any income and other benefits obtained by the members of the Supervisory Board due to the violation must be returned to the Company.
6. In case of discovery that a member of the Supervisory Board has committed a violation in the exercise of assigned rights and obligations, a written notice must be sent to the Supervisory Board, requesting the violator to cease the violation and remedy the consequences.

Article 5. Term of office and number of members of the Supervisory Board

1. The number of members of the Company's Supervisory Board is three (03), which may change from time to time but shall be at least 03 members and at most 05 members. The term of office of a member of the Supervisory Board shall not exceed five (05) years and they may be re-elected for an unlimited number of terms.

2. Members of the Supervisory Board are not necessarily shareholders of the Company.
3. The Supervisory Board must reside permanently in Vietnam.
4. In case the terms of office of the members of the Supervisory Board expire at the same time and the members for the new term have not been elected, the members whose terms have expired shall continue to exercise their rights and obligations until the members for the new term are elected and take office.

Article 6. Standards and conditions for members of the Supervisory Board

1. Members of the Supervisory Board must satisfy the following standards and conditions:
 - a) Not being a person as prescribed in Clause 2, Article 17 of the Law on Enterprises;
 - b) Having been trained in one of the majors in economics, finance, accounting, auditing, law, business administration, or a major suitable for the business activities of the Company;
 - c) Not being a family relative of a member of the Board of Directors, the General Director, or other managers;
 - d) Not being a manager of the Company, and not necessarily being a shareholder or an employee of the Company;
 - e) Not working in the accounting or finance department of the Company;
 - f) Not being a member or an employee of the independent auditing firm that performed audits of the Company's financial statements for the 03 consecutive preceding years;
 - g) Residing permanently in Vietnam;
 - h) Other standards and conditions as prescribed by relevant laws.
2. In addition to the standards and conditions prescribed in Clause 1 of this Article, members of the Company's Supervisory Board shall ensure full satisfaction of the conditions as prescribed in Clause 2, Article 169 of the Law on Enterprises.

Article 7. Head of the Supervisory Board

1. The Head of the Supervisory Board must have a university degree or higher in one of the majors in economics, finance, accounting, auditing, law, business administration, or a major related to the business activities of the enterprise.
2. The Head of the Supervisory Board shall be elected by the Supervisory Board from among its members; the election, dismissal, and removal shall be based on the majority principle.
3. The rights and obligations of the Head of the Supervisory Board are prescribed by the Company's Charter.

Article 8. Nomination and candidacy for members of the Supervisory Board

1. Shareholders or groups of shareholders owning 10% or more of the total ordinary shares have the right to nominate persons to the Supervisory Board. Shareholders or groups of shareholders holding:
 - a. From 10% to less than 30% may nominate 01 (one) candidate;
 - b. From 30% to less than 70% may nominate a maximum of 02 (two) candidates;

c. From 70% or more may nominate a maximum of 03 (three) candidates.

The nomination and candidacy for members of the Supervisory Board are detailed in Clause 1, Article 70 of the Internal Regulations on Corporate Governance.

2. In case the number of candidates for the Supervisory Board through nomination and candidacy under Clause 5, Article 115 of the Law on Enterprises is insufficient, the incumbent Supervisory Board shall nominate additional candidates in accordance with the Company's Charter, the Internal Regulations on Corporate Governance, and the Operating Regulations of the Supervisory Board. The nomination of additional candidates by the incumbent Supervisory Board must be clearly announced before the General Meeting of Shareholders votes to elect members of the Supervisory Board in accordance with the law.
3. In case the number of candidates nominated by the incumbent Supervisory Board under Clause 2 of this Article is still insufficient, the Supervisory Board shall disclose information regarding the insufficient number of candidates for the Supervisory Board no later than five (05) working days before the opening date of the General Meeting of Shareholders. The incumbent Supervisory Board shall organize for other shareholders to nominate in accordance with the Company's Charter, the Internal Regulations on Corporate Governance, and the Operating Regulations of the Supervisory Board. The organization by the incumbent Supervisory Board for other shareholders to nominate additional candidates must be clearly announced before the General Meeting of Shareholders votes to elect members of the Supervisory Board in accordance with the law.

Article 9. Methods of election, dismissal, and removal of members of the Supervisory Board

1. The election, dismissal, and removal of members of the Supervisory Board fall under the authority of the General Meeting of Shareholders.
2. Voting to elect members of the Supervisory Board must be conducted by cumulative voting, whereby each shareholder has a total number of votes corresponding to the total number of shares owned multiplied by the number of members to be elected to the Supervisory Board, and shareholders have the right to cast all or part of their total votes for one or several candidates. Elected members of the Supervisory Board are determined by the number of votes from high to low, starting from the candidate with the highest number of votes until the number of members specified in the Company's Charter is reached. In case there are two (02) or more candidates achieving the same number of votes for the last member of the Supervisory Board, a re-election shall be held among the candidates with equal votes or selection shall be based on criteria specified in the election regulations or the Company's Charter.
3. If the number of candidates is less than or equal to the number of Supervisory Board members to be elected, the election of Supervisory Board members may be conducted by cumulative voting as prescribed in Clause 3, Article 148 of the Law on Enterprises or by voting (approval, disapproval, no opinion). The voting approval ratio under the voting method is implemented in accordance with Clause 2, Article 21 of the Company's Charter.

Article 10. Cases of dismissal and removal of members of the Supervisory Board

1. The General Meeting of Shareholders shall dismiss a member of the Supervisory Board in the following cases:
 - a) No longer meeting the criteria and conditions to be a member of the Supervisory Board as prescribed in Article 169 of the Law on Enterprises;
 - b) Submission of a resignation letter and its acceptance;
 - c) Other cases as prescribed by law and the Company Charter (if any).
2. Members of the Supervisory Board shall continue to perform their obligations in full until the General Meeting of Shareholders approves the dismissal of the Supervisory Board members. A member of the Supervisory Board shall not have the right to attend or vote at meetings of the Supervisory Board and shall not receive remuneration as a member of the Supervisory Board upon the occurrence of one of the following cases:
 - a) The Company receives a notice that the Supervisory Board member has restricted civil act capacity, has lost civil act capacity, or has difficulties in perceiving or controlling their acts.
 - b) The Company receives a notice that the Supervisory Board member is being prosecuted for criminal liability, is in temporary detention, is serving an imprisonment sentence, is serving administrative handling measures at a compulsory detoxification center or a compulsory educational institution, or is prohibited by the Court from holding certain positions, practicing certain professions, or performing certain jobs.
 - c) The Supervisory Board issues a decision approving the receipt of the resignation letter of the Supervisory Board member in accordance with Article 9 of the Operating Regulations of the Board of Directors.
3. The General Meeting of Shareholders shall remove a member of the Supervisory Board in the following cases:
 - a) Failure to complete assigned duties and tasks;
 - b) Failure to exercise their rights and obligations for 06 consecutive months, except in cases of force majeure;
 - c) Repeated or serious violations of the obligations of a Supervisory Board member as prescribed by the Law on Enterprises and the Company Charter;
 - d) Other cases according to the resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Article 11. Notification of election, dismissal, and removal of Supervisory Board members

1. In case candidates for the Supervisory Board have been identified pursuant to Clause 1, Article 70 of the Internal Regulations on Corporate Governance, the Company must disclose information related to the candidates at least ten (10) days before the opening date of the General Meeting of Shareholders on the Company's website so that shareholders can learn about these candidates before voting; candidates for the Supervisory Board must provide a written commitment regarding the truthfulness and accuracy of the disclosed personal information and must commit to performing their duties honestly, prudently, and for the best interests of the company if elected as a member of the Supervisory Board. Information related to candidates for the Supervisory Board to be disclosed includes:

- a) Full name, date, month, and year of birth;
- b) Professional qualifications;
- c) Working history;
- d) Other management positions;
- e) Interests related to the Company and related parties of the Company;
- f) Other information (if any) as prescribed in the Company Charter;

The Company shall be responsible for disclosing information about the companies in which the candidate is holding management positions and the interests related to the Company of the Supervisory Board candidate (if any).

2. The notification of the results of the election, dismissal, and removal of Supervisory Board members shall be carried out in accordance with the guiding regulations on information disclosure.

CHAPTER III

SUPERVISORY BOARD

Article 12. Rights, obligations, and responsibilities of the Supervisory Board

1. The Supervisory Board shall supervise the Board of Directors and the General Director in the management and operation of the Company.
