The Board of Directors (BOD) has carried out the inspection and supervision over the Company's Executive Board in accordance with the provisions of the Law on Enterprises, the Company's Charter, and the Regulations on the Operation of the Board of Directors. Specifically:

The Chairman of the Board of Directors regularly monitors and supervises the Executive Board and the Company's departments regarding the implementation and results of the resolutions adopted by the General Meeting of Shareholders, as well as the resolutions and decisions of the Board of Directors, to provide timely and ongoing direction and ensure effective corporate governance and management.

On a monthly basis, the Chairman of the Board of Directors attends meetings with the Executive Board and relevant departments to stay informed of the Company's business operations, arising issues, and to provide timely instructions on related matters.

Under the management and supervision of the Board of Directors, the Executive Board has implemented a series of business measures and solutions to adapt to the new post-pandemic situation and the current context of global economic and political instability. These efforts aim to attract tourists to the Company, expand commercial activities to increase revenue, and gradually stabilize and restore the business.

The Board of Directors has promptly provided business orientations and proposed plans for the repair and upgrading of infrastructure and expansion of operational scale in the near future. The BOD has also continued to direct all departments and subsidiaries throughout the Company to implement cost-saving measures, and to set and assign specific cost norms to each unit to both drive business performance and align with actual conditions.

On a quarterly basis, the Executive Board prepares financial indicator reports to be submitted to the BOD. Additionally, during the Board of Directors' meetings, the Executive Board reports on the business performance for the quarter and presents upcoming plans for the Board's assessment and direction.
