4. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)Accounting Estimates

The preparation of separate financial statements in conformity with Vietnamese Standards on Accounting, Vietnamese Enterprise Accounting System and other prevailing accounting regulations in Vietnam requires The Board of General Directors to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of liabilities, assets and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the separate financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the financial year. Actual results could differ from those estimates and assumptions.

Basis for Preparing the Converted Financial Statements of Dependent Accounting Units

For the purpose of preparing the separate financial statements of the Corporation, the financial statements of the Cambodia Branch, prepared in United States Dollars (USD), have been converted into Vietnamese Dong (VND) following these principles:

- Assets and liabilities are converted into VND based on the actual exchange rate at the end of the period, as published by the Bank for Investment and Development of Cambodia, on the reporting date;
- Exchange differences and revaluation differences of assets are converted into VND using the actual exchange rate at the revaluation date;
- Undistributed post-tax profit and reserves appropriated from undistributed post-tax profit arising after the investment date are converted into VND by calculating the related in the income statement
- Items in the Statement of Profit or Loss and Cash Flow Statement are converted into VND using the actual exchange rate at the transaction date.

Exchange differences arising from the conversion of the financial statements prepared in foreign currency into VND are recorded in the "Exchange Rate Differences" account (Code 417) under the Owner's Equity section of the separate Balance Sheet.

Foreign exchange rates applied in accounting

Actual exchange rates for foreign currency transactions arising during the period:

- The actual exchange rate for foreign currency purchases or sales is the rate specified in the foreign currency purchase or sale contract between the Parent Company and the commercial bank;
- The exchange rate used for recognizing receivables is the buying rate of the commercial bank designated by the Parent Company for customer payments at the transaction date;
- The exchange rate used for recognizing payables is the selling rate of the commercial bank where the Parent Company anticipates transactions at the transaction date.

Actual exchange rates for revaluing monetary items denominated in foreign currency at the time of preparing the separate financial statements:

- For foreign currency deposits, the buying rate of the bank where the Parent Company holds the foreign currency account is applied;
- For liabilities, the selling rate of the commercial bank with which the Parent Company regularly conducts transactions is applied.

All actual exchange differences arising during the period and differences from revaluing balances of monetary items denominated in foreign currency at the end of the period are recognized in the results of operations for the accounting period.

Cash and cash equivalents

Cash comprises cash on hand, bank deposits.

Cash equivalents comprise short-term deposits and highly liquid investments with an original maturity of less than 3 months that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash and that are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

4. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)Financial investmentsHeld to maturity investments

Held-to-maturity investments include bank deposits with original terms exceeding three months and loans held to maturity for the purpose of earning periodic interest..

Held-to-maturity investments are measured at cost, net of provisions for doubtful debts.

Provisions for doubtful debts related to held-to-maturity investments are made in accordance with current accounting regulations.

Investments in subsidiaries, associates and other entities

Investments in Subsidiaries: Investments in Subsidiaries over which the Corporation holds control are presented at cost method in the Corporation's separate financial statements.

Profit distributions that Corporation received from the accumulated profits of its subsidiaries after the date the Company gains control are recognized in income statement of the company. Other Distributions are considered a recovery of investment and are deducted from the investment value.

Profit distributions that Corporation received from the accumulated profits of the associated companies after the date the Company obtains control right are recognized in income statement of the company. Other Distributions are considered a recovery of investment and are deducted from the investment value.

Investments in subsidiaries, joint ventures, associates, and other investments are presented in the separate balance sheet at cost, net of any provision for impairment (if any).

Other investments: Recorded at cost, including purchase price and directly attributable acquisition costs. After initial recognition, these investments are measured at cost less allowance for diminution in value of investments.

Allowance for loss of investments

Allowance for losses of investments in subsidiaries, contributions to joint ventures, investments in associates and investments in equity instruments of other entities is made when there is apparent evidence for impairment in value of the investments as at the balance sheet date.

Receivables

The receivables comprise the customer receivables and other receivables. Receivables are recognized at the carrying amounts less allowances for doubtful debts.

Allowance for doubtful debts is assessed and made for overdue receivables that are difficult to be collected, or the debtor is unable to pay due to dissolution, bankruptcy or similar difficulties.

4. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)Inventories

Inventories are measured at the lower of cost and net realizable value. Cost of inventories comprise costs of direct materials, direct labor, and general operation (if any) incurred in bringing the inventories to their present location and conditions. Net realizable value is the estimated selling price of inventory items less all estimated costs of completion and costs of marketing, selling and distribution.

The value of inventory is determined using the weighted average cost method.

Inventory is accounted for using the periodic inventory system.

Provision for impairment of inventories of The Corporation is made when there is reliable evidence of impairment in net realizable value compared to cost of inventories.

Tangible fixed assets and Depreciation

Tangible fixed assets are stated at history cost less accumulated depreciation. Historical costs of tangible fixed assets include all the expenses paid by the Corporation to bring the asset to its working condition for its intended use.

Tangible fixed assets are depreciated using straight line method over their estimated useful lives. Details are as follows:

	Years
Buildings, structures	06 - 25
Machinery and equipment	06 - 10
Office equipment	03 - 10
Motor vehicles	06 - 10
Software	03

When a tangible fixed asset is sold or disposed, its historical cost and accumulated depreciation are written off, then any gain or loss arising from such disposal is included in the income or the expenses during the year.

Intangible fixed assets and Amortization

Software and other intangible fixed assets are stated at history cost less accumulated amortization.

Software and other intangible fixed assets are allocated to the income statement using the straight-line method over a period of 03 to 10 years.

4. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)Finance lease liabilities

A lease is a finance lease whereby the lessor transfers most of the risks and rewards associated with the ownership over an asset to the lessee. All other leases are classified as operating leases.

Finance lease assets are recognized as both asset and liability in the balance sheet at the lower of the fair value of the leased asset and the present value of the minimum lease payments at the lease commencement date.

Lease payments for finance leases are split into finance costs and principal repayments. Finance costs are calculated for each accounting period over the lease term using a fixed interest rate on the remaining outstanding liability

Finance lease assets are depreciated using the straight-line method over their estimated useful life, similar to assets owned by the company, or over the lease term, whichever is shorter, as follows:

	Years
Machinery and equipment	03 - 10
Motor vehicles	06 - 08

Construction in Progress

Construction in progress reflects the Properties in progress for production, leasing, administrative purposes, or for any other purposes are recognized at the historical cost. This cost includes relevant service fees, interest fees in accordance with the Corporation's accounting policies. Depreciation of these assets is the same as the other assets, commencing from these assets are ready for their intended use.

Prepaid expenses

Prepaid expenses include costs that have been incurred but relate to the operating results of multiperiod accounting. The Corporation's prepaid expenses include the following:

Instrument and tools

Instrument and tools that have been put into use are allocated to expenses using the straight-line method not over 3 years.

Fixed assets major repairs expenses

Fixed assets major repairs expenses which have significant value incurring one time which are recorded to expenses and amortized on a straight-line basis over 3 years.

Payables

The account payables are monitored in details by payable terms, payable parties, original currency and other factors depending on The Corporation's management requirement.

The account payables include payables as trade payables, loans payable, intercompany payable and other payables which are determined almost certainly about the recorded value and term, which is not carried less than amount to be paid. They are classified as follows:

- Trade payables: reflect payables of commercial nature arising from the purchase of goods, services, or assets, payables for import through trustees of which the seller (is an independent entity with the Corporation including payables between the Parent Company and Subsidiaries, Associates).

4. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)Accrued Expenses

Accrued expenses reflect amounts payable for goods or services received from suppliers or provided to buyers but not yet paid due to the absence of invoices or incomplete accounting documents. These are recognized as production and business expenses in the reporting period.

The Corporation records accrued expenses under the following main categories:

- Labor, materials, and fuel costs: Accrued based on estimated amounts in the project records according to completed work volume;
- Interest expenses payable;
- Other accrued expenses.

Unrealized revenues

Unrealized revenue includes: advance receipts (e.g., prepayments from customers over multiple accounting periods for leased assets, infrastructure); excluding: advances from customers for which the Corporation has not provided products, goods, or services; uncollected revenue from leasing assets, providing services over multiple periods.

Revenue received in advance is allocated using the straight-line method based on the number of periods in which payment has been collected in advance.

Loans and finance lease liabilities

This includes borrowings, finance lease obligations, excluding borrowings in the form of bond issuance or preferred stock with a mandatory buyback clause at a specific future date.

The Corporation tracks borrowings and finance lease obligations in detail by debtor category and classifies them as current or non-current based on the repayment period.

Costs directly related to the borrowings are recognized as financial expenses, except for costs arising from borrowings used for investment, construction, or production of construction in progress, which are capitalized under the borrowing costs accounting standard.

Recognition and capitalization of Borrowing costs

All interest costs are recognized in the income statement as incurred, unless they are capitalized under the provisions of the "Borrowing Costs" accounting standard.

Owners' equity

Capital is recorded according to the actual amounts invested by shareholders.

Share premium is recognized as the difference between the actual issue price and the nominal value of the shares issued during the initial offering, additional issuance, or reissue of treasury shares.

Undistributed profits are determined based on after-tax earnings and profit distribution.

Profit after corporate income tax is distributed to shareholders after setting up funds in accordance with The Corporation's Charter as well as the provisions of law and approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Dividends are recognized as a payable when approved by the Shareholders' General Meeting.

4. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)Other revenue and other incomeConstruction Contracts

In the case of construction contracts where the Corporation is paid based on the value of the work performed, when the outcome of the contract can be reliably measured and is confirmed by the customer, revenue and related costs are recognized in proportion to the work completed, as confirmed by the customer in the period and reflected in the issued invoice.

If the outcome of the contract cannot be reliably estimated, but the Corporation can recover the contract costs incurred, revenue is recognized only to the extent of the costs incurred that are expected to be recoverable. In this case, no profit is recognized, even if the total costs incurred exceed the total revenue of the contract.

Revenue from sale of goods and products

Revenue from sale of goods shall be recognized when it satisfies all the five (5) conditions below:

- (a) The Corporation has transferred to the buyer the significant risks and reward of ownership of the goods;
- (b) The Corporation retains neither continuing managerial involvement to the degree usually associated with ownership nor effective control over the goods sold;
- (c) The amount of revenue can be measured reliably;
- (d) It is probable that the economic benefits associated with the transaction will flow to The Corporation
- (e) Costs related to transactions can be determined.

Revenue from services

Revenue from services is recognized when the outcome of that transaction can be reliably determined. Where a transaction involving the rendering of services is attributable to several periods, revenue is recognized in the year by reference to the percentage of completion of the transaction at the balance sheet date of that period. The outcome of a transaction can be measured reliably when all four (4) following conditions are satisfied:

- (a) The amount of revenue can be measured reliably;
- (b) It is probable that the economic benefits associated with the transaction will flow to The Corporation;
- (c) Identify the completed work as at the balance sheet date;
- (d) Determine the costs incurred for the transaction as well as the cost to complete the transaction to provide that service.

Revenue from interest income, dividends and profits received and other income: Revenue is recognized when the Corporation can obtain economic benefits from the transaction, and it is reliably measured.

Cost of goods sold

Cost of goods sold or services rendered including the cost of products, goods, services, investment property, production cost of construction products sold during the period is recorded corresponding to revenue of the period. For cost which is over the normal level of inventories is recorded directly into the cost of goods sold.

Financial expenses

Borrowing costs: Recognized monthly based on the loan amount, loan interest rate, and actual number of days borrowed;

4. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)Current corporate income tax expense and deferred corporate income tax expense

Corporate income tax expenses (or corporate income tax income): is total current and deferred income tax expenses (or total current and deferred tax) in determining profit or loss of a period.

- Current income tax expenses: are corporate income tax payable calculated on taxable profit during the year and current corporate income tax rate. Current income tax is calculated on taxable income and applicable tax rate during the tax period. Difference between taxable income and accounting profit is from adjustment of differences between accounting profit and taxable income in accordance with current tax policies.

The Corporation is required to pay corporate income tax at a rate of 20% on taxable income.

The determination of the Corporation's income tax is based on the current tax regulations. However, these regulations may change over time, and the final determination of the corporate income tax depends on the results of audits by the competent tax authorities.

Related parties

A party is considered a related party of the Corporation in case that party is able to control the Corporation or to cause material effects on the financial decisions as well as the operations of the Corporation. A party is also considered a related party of the Corporation in case that party is under the same control or is subject to the same material effects

When considering the relationship of related parties, the nature of relationship is focused more than its legal form.

(i) According to Judgment No. 466/2022/HS-PT dated July 1, 2022, issued by the High People's Court in Hanoi, concerning the responsibility of contractors for substandard construction works as stipulated in Bid Package No. 4 of the Da Nang - Quang Ngai Expressway Project during the period from July 2014 to July 2017, under the section on liability for compensation, the Corporation, as a contractor, must compensate the Vietnam Expressway Investment and Development Corporation - One Member Limited Liability Company (VEC) the amount of VND 33,266,862,248. Based on the above judgment, the Corporation has recorded a liability payable to VEC in the amount of VND 33,266,862,248. At the same time, according to the contracts signed between the Corporation and the subcontractors to implement Bid Package No. 4, the Corporation is in the process of temporarily determining the subcontractors responsible for compensating the Corporation due to poor-quality construction work as per the regulations. On September 5, 2023, the Hanoi Civil Judgment Enforcement Department issued Decision No. 174/QD-CCTHADS regarding the deduction of VND 18,556,130,948 from the account number 1462201022200 of the Vietnam Expressway Investment and Development Corporation for the enforcement of the judgment. The remaining amount will be partially settled through accounts receivable between the Vietnam Expressway Investment and Development Corporation - One Member Limited Liability Company and Thang Long Corporation - Joint Stock Company. So far, the execution of the sentence is still underway.
