8. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

The Group may have financial assets such as trade receivables and other receivables, other long-term investments cash and short-term deposits that arise directly from the operations of the Group. Financial liabilities of the Group mainly consist of loans, trade payables and other payables. The main purpose of these financial liabilities is to gather the financial resources to serve the activities of the Group.

The Group incurs from market risk, credit risk and liquidity risk.

Operational risk management is indispensable operations for the entire business operations of the Group. The Group has developed control system to ensure balance at a reasonable level between the costs when incurred

Board of General Directors considered and uniformly applied policies to manage each of these risks are

i Market risk

Market risk is the risk that the fair value of future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market prices. Market risk has four types of risk: interest rate risk, currency risk, goods price risk and other price risk, such as share price risk.

Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates. Market risk for changes in interest rates of the Group primarily correlates to cash, short term deposits, bonds, and loans of the Group.

The Group manages interest rate risk by analyzing the competitive situation in the market to acquire beneficial interest for company's purposes, but still remain within the limits of their risk management.

Foreign currency risk

The Group bears the risk of exchange rate due to fluctuation in fair value of future cash flows of a financial instrument according to changes in exchange rates. The Group is exposed to the risk of exchange rate changes directly related to its business operations.

The Group has foreign exchange risk from the purchase, sale and borrowings denominated in other currencies, which are different from the accounting currency of the Group. The Group manages foreign currency risk by considering the current market situation and expected when the Group plans to buy and sell in foreign currency

Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk that one party of a financial instrument or contract not performing its obligations, resulting in financial losses. The Group has credit risk from its operating activities (primarily for trade receivables account), and from its financial activities, including bank deposits, foreign exchange transactions and the other financial instruments.

Trade receivables

The Group regularly keeps track of the receivables, which is not yet collected. For big customers, the Group considered the decline in the credit quality of each customer at the reporting date. The Group seeks the way to remained the tight control of the receivables and arranging credit control staff to minimize credit risk. On this basis and the trade receivables of the Group related to various customers, credit risk is not significantly concentrated in a certain customer.

Cash in bank

The Group mainly maintained deposit balances at well-known banks in Vietnam. Credit risk of the deposit balances at banks is managed by the treasury department of the Group policies. The maximum credit risk of the Group for the items on the balance sheet at the end of the financial year is the value book presented in note No. 5.1. The Group found that the level of concentration of credit risk on bank deposits is low.

ii Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Group will encounter difficulties in implementing their financial obligations due to lack of funds. Liquidity risk of the Group mainly arises from maturity mismatches of financial assets and financial liabilities.

The Group minimizes the liquidity risk by maintaining an amount of cash and cash equivalents and bank loans at a level that the Board of General Directors believes it is sufficient to meet the Group's operations and minimize the risks due to the volatility of cash flows. The table below summarizes the maturity of the financial liabilities of the Group based on expected payments on undiscounted basic contracts:
